

Fast Baseball Games Seen by Bend Fans Here Sunday

OUT OF TOWN TEAMS STRONG

Veteran Makes It Hard For Millmen

Two fast baseball games, both of them exciting and close until the final innings, were played up to the top on the local diamond Sunday afternoon. Shevlin-Hixon defeated the Brooks-Scanton camp team 9 to 3 and the Brooks-Scanton plant team from Tumalo 20 to 9. The scores were unequal enough, but the way the games went tickled the fans immensely, and the out of town teams showed strength which had hardly been expected.

The Brooks-Scanton loggers proved that handling a bat is not much different than handling a peavy, and they made things interesting for Shevlin-Hixon from the opening inning, when two clean hits forced over a run. The loggers blanked the mill men in that inning and might have continued to do so, except for one weakness, or rather except for too much strength—they repeatedly overthrew the bases.

When Shevlin-Hixon saw this, the word was passed to "steal everything in sight," and it proved a good policy. Stow, who is one of the fastest base runners in Central Oregon, scored three runs on stolen bases and overthrows, and a lot of Shevlin-Hixon's other runs came the same way. All they had to do was get a man on the bases and wild throwing insured his scoring.

The loggers used three pitchers, but they really didn't need to change—all of the pitchers held their own, although the first one lasted two weeks in the second inning.

The Brooks-Scanton-Tumalo game was an even better comedy than the first one. Having a good ball team but no pitcher, Tumalo borrowed Emil Dieters, veteran heavier who has been utility man on one local ball team or another for several years. Rumor has it that Dieters has passed the half century mark, though he doesn't look it. Incidentally, he is the uncle of H. Dieters, who pitched for Brooks-Scanton.

The veteran Dieters knew all of the Brooks-Scanton players' weaknesses, so he let them what they didn't like and placed his fielders where their hits would do no good. Tumalo buys outdid themselves in the field and also at bat, and the result was a circus for five innings, the score at the end of that time being 2 to 2 for Tumalo.

Then the law of compensation got in its work. Dieters wobbled and so did his support, and Brooks-Scanton got seven hits and eight runs in the sixth inning.

Dieters gave one more demonstration of what baseball knowledge can do, and then retired. He reached first on a fielder's choice, stole second and scored from there on an infield out.

Ralph Russell, who had already pitched one game and then let his arm rest, was called on to finish the game for Tumalo, and he did well for some time, but the Brooks-Scanton sluggers got to him in the next and drove in eight runs, fattening their

BASEBALL LEADERS ARE NECK AND NECK

Teams Are Closely Paired In Major Leagues

(U. P. Leased Wire to The Bend Bulletin)

NEW YORK, July 20.—Leaders of the major league pennant races are still running neck and neck at the turn into another week that is bringing them to the three-quarters pole.

The Pittsburgh Pirates are leading the New York Giants in the National league by a margin of one game, and the Philadelphia Athletics are less than a half game ahead of the Washington Senators in the American.

The interest in the pennant races has become so keen that baseball has subordinated almost every other summer sport.

The Athletics came out of their slump last week and played the best ball in the two leagues. They won seven out of their eight games and went back into first place after having enjoyed a short stay in second place. The Athletics are still being forced hard to win their games, as evidenced by the 15 inning victory over the Browns yesterday. This strain, many friends of Connie Mack fear, may make his young team blow up in the stretch.

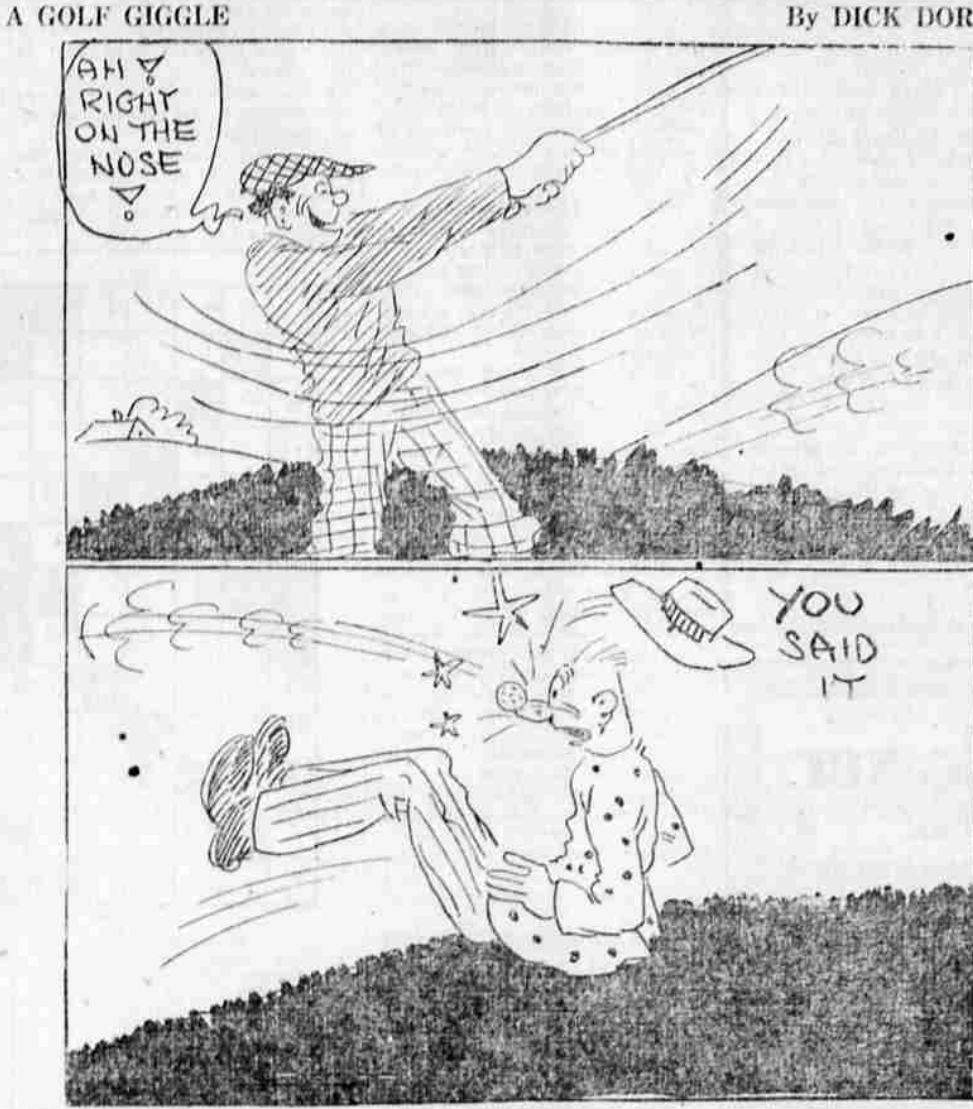

The Senators lost four out of their seven games last week. The club has missed Walter Johnson, who has been in poor health, and they naturally will have more power when he is able to work in his regular turn. Coveleskie, the Cleveland castoff, has been the biggest surprise of the season and has proved to be the mainstay of the team.

The St. Louis Browns, by winning six out of their seven games, moved into the first division, and the Detroit Tigers, losing four out of their seven games, have dropped into fifth place.

The Cincinnati Reds, who are making a season's record for ups and downs in the National league, moved up to third place. The Reds won four out of their six games and displayed the Brooklyn Robins.

C. A. Breed lifted, with one hand, from a floor, a barrel of flour weighing, with fixtures, 218 pounds, 186 times in one minute at Lynn, Mass., in 1884.

MR. TAYLOR WRITES HIS CHIROPRACTOR

"It is more than twenty years that I have suffered most acutely. Late last fall I came to you, just able to hobble on crutches, sick at my stomach, coughing day and night. The first two months under your care I felt little benefit—there was so much to undo. Today, after eight months of steady adjustments, I am a wonder to myself, walking without crutches, eat and sleep well, very little cough, and able to do two or three consecutive days' work. I feel sure that with continued adjustments I will further surprise myself. I only wish I had known of your method when I was a younger man, then—"
