Covering Today After Trying for Break

(Wall Street Journal Financial Review)

NEW YORK, Aug. 1.—Stocks were largely in professional hands in the week end session. Inasmuch as day to day operators had engaged in an attempt to break prices on Friday without distinctive success, their transactions today were mostly of the covering variety. To buying of this kind were added orders from outside sources encouraged by the indications of accelerated business expansion pointed out by the weekly trade reviews.

This demand found a limited amount of stock available. Steel common performed at its peak, almost unprecedented under normal circumstances by jumping a point between sales.

General Electric moved into new high ground on the current advance, and sharp advances occurred in specialties like Coca Cola and New York Canners.

Rails were enlisted by strength in Frisco and Katy issues and Columbia Gas was an outstanding feature of the public utilities.

The market closed higher. Closing prices included: U. S. Steel 118⅛, up ½; American Can 209⅝, up 1⅞; Fisher Body 81½, off ½; General Motors 89; General Electric 297½, up 3⅛; North American 58; Pan American "B" 71¼, up 1; Studebaker 47⅞, up ⅝; Spicer 32⅝, up ⅞; Marland 46, up 1⅛; Texas company 51⅝, up ⅝; White Motors 88⅜, up ⅜; New York Canners 51⅜, up 2⅛; Montgomery Ward 65⅝, up 2⅜; Frisco 91¼, up 1⅝; Rock Island 46½, up ½; Southern Railway 100, up 1⅜; New Haven 34⅜, up ½; M. K. and T. 40, unchanged; A. T. & T. 139½; Electric P. & L. 36¼.

TIRE CASINGS UP

LONDON, Aug. 1.—Tire casings will be increased 15 per cent and inner tubes 20 to 25 per cent here early next week, according to unofficial predictions today.

The proposed increases are due to the rubber shortage, which has caused spectacular movements on the rubber market the past few days.

Pedigreed Cockerels

We have more cockerels than we need for our own use and will sell the surplus at about 25 per cent of values asked by the breeder for mature birds. They are out of a bunch of chicks purchased from Hanson's celebrated O. A. C. farm this spring; thrifty and fine; some are crowding now. Each has original wing band and pedigree, and from dams with trapnest records of 260 to 300 eggs. They are the grade that Hanson sells at $5 to $15. We will sell our surplus at $3 if taken by August 10th, 4 for $10.

GERMAN REFUGEES CAMP IN PRUSSIA

Forced to Leave Poland Because They Voted Wrong

(U. P. Leased Wire to The Bend Bulletin)

BERLIN, Aug. 1.—Bringing with them their earthly possessions, even down to the pigs—the German refugees expelled from Poland because they voted for Germany in the Upper Silesian plebiscite, have established a camp at Schneidemuehl on the border of Prussia.

This camp had grown today to 5,000 humans.

Many of the women, coming out of the land which had been home for many years, brought with them children. A great mass of belongings, furniture, beds and agricultural machinery, was piled up as a mute testimony that the refugees were leaving forever.

And the trek of the refugees continues while 2,000 to 3,000 Poles have fled to Poland, some of them skilled workers and miners of the Silesian region, others from the Ruhr.

The concentration camp at Schneidemuehl is pictured as marked by frightful conditions. The refugees are sleeping on barren floors, not even covered with straw.

Adding to the tragedy, a dysentery epidemic has broken out and has claimed three victims in the past few days.

The plight of the Polish fugitives from Germany is reported to be better than that of the Germans, for many of the Poles are of the skilled class, while the campers of Schneidemuehl are small farmers or laborers.

Vice President Working To Perfect Horsemanship

(U. P. Leased Wire to The Bend Bulletin)

WAGONWHEEL GAP, Col., Aug. 1.—After viewing two rodeos while in the State and seeing the best riders in action, Vice President Charles G. Dawes has decided he needs to brush up a little on his own horsemanship.

Dawes has prolonged his vacation here and will not leave until Wednesday, when he will go to Lincoln, Nebraska, to make a speech on the senate rules and then continue onto his home in Evanston, Ill.
