

No Secrets Given Away By Rockne, Says Bend Coach

TEACHES MEN TO USE HEADS

Coaching Methods Valuable, Thinks Riney

"Knut Rockne turns out winning football teams because he has the ability to teach his men to use their heads on the field."

Thus Coach James C. Riney of the Bend high school summed up his impressions of the outstanding mentor of football, after attending Rockne's course in coaching at O. A. C. this summer.

Some northwest coaches attended this course expecting Rockne to teach them his trick plays and inside secrets, but they were disappointed, said Riney, who returned to Bend Tuesday after spending six weeks at the Corvallis institution.

As a matter of fact, while he emphasizes the surprise factor, Rockne doesn't place much reliance on trick plays.

Asked as to which of his plays worked best against Stanford in the Big Intercollegiate game last fall, Rockne said that all of them were good for from three to five yards until his team tired out—and then only better teamwork saved the day.

"Stanford's passes were our best plays," Rockne said, recalling the manner in which his fastest "huronian" intercepted two of those passes and ran for touchdowns.

Riney, however, believes that he received untold benefit from Rockne's course, particularly with respect to coaching methods rather than as to specific strategy.

Notre Dame's great football teacher gives his men only a small amount of scrimmage work each week, but he insists that combat work be real combat.

Rockne is a modest man and gives other coaches, notably Glenn Warner of Stanford, credit for contributing more to the game than Rockne himself, Riney stated.

Riney is not yet ready to make any announcements as to the plans for the coming season, but will begin preparations at once.

DEMPSEY OUTBURST TO BE ENDED SOON

Ballyhoo Will Die Natural Death Is Prediction

(U. P. Leased Wire to The Bend Bulletin)

NEW YORK, Aug. 12.—Hoping's greatest run around was continued here today with a record production of second class bunk. Contracts, statements, assertions and claims that were pulled out of the bag when the Dempsey-Wills ballyhoo started in Chicago last week were hauled out here yesterday and today and they will be used until Friday. The run around probably will die a natural death on Friday when Jack Kearns goes before the New York boxing commission to make good the threat that he will sign Dempsey to meet Wills and let the champion carry the buck from then on.

"I have the authority to sign Dempsey to fight anyone, for any promoter I choose, and in any place I prefer and I'm going to do it," Kearns said. "I'm going to put him down on paper before the commission Friday and it will be up to him to go through with it."

In answer to the report from Los Angeles that Dempsey would sue Kearns if he made any matches for him, Kearns replied:

"That paper will hold good in any court. It was drawn with that purpose in mind."

The only actual happening—and it may amount to little—was the signing by Tex Rickard of Gene Tunney to meet Harry Wills in the Yankee stadium late in September.

While they may never meet, Tunney's action in signing a contract for the fight may put Wills in a hole when all the present tumult and shouting have died. If Wills refuses to accept the Tunney match he will have to give his reasons and it will be hard for him to find a plausible excuse.

Paddy Mullins, Wills' manager, seems to think that Floyd Fitzsimmons has a great thing for him in his plans for a Dempsey-Wills match "some place in the west," next year. He is to meet Fitzsimmons again today and he has other conferences with Rickard, Kearns and anyone else in the lobby who wants to do a little conferring.

LOS ANGELES, Aug. 12.—A near riot of 7,000 fight fans broke out at Vernon arena late last night when Referee Harry Lee gave Lou Paluso, Salt Lake City, a draw instead of a decision over Ace Hudkins, "Nebraska wild cat," after a 10 round bout. The entire Vernon police force was called out to quell the demonstration.

Girl From Argentina Gets Enough Channel

(U. P. Leased Wire to The Bend Bulletin)

CAPE GRIS NEZ, France, Aug. 12.—Lillian Harrison, who was nearly drowned during her attempt to swim the English channel Monday, will remain here until Helmi, the Egyptian, who rescued her, has made his effort to battle through the tides to Dover. Then she will leave for England and later for Buenos Aires, abandoning for this year at least, any further attempts. Gertrude Ederle, the American girl, has set Tuesday as the day on which she will try to swim the channel.

Amundsen's Ship Safe States Radio Message

SEATTLE, Aug. 12.—The Maud, famous Amundsen polar exploration ship, is safe and bound for Nome, a radio message from the Alaska Steamship Company's freighter Odona said this morning. The Maud has been frozen in northern ice, drifting helplessly with the floes for three years.

The Odona's message to the harbor radio said:

"Communicated with Amundsen polar ship Maud. She is now out of the ice and off East Cape, Siberia, bound for Nome."

This is the first word from the Maud since last November, at which time she radioed she was off the northern Siberian coast, fast in the ice and short of fuel. The vessel at the time had been damaged badly and was drifting helplessly.

The Maud sailed from Seattle on her hazardous cruise on June 3, 1922. She is "out" nearly 1,175 days, a record voyage. Following her arrival at Nome the famous vessel probably will be brought to Seattle before winter sets in in the north.

Swalley Canal Breaks, Repair Now Under Way

The Swalley canal broke out of its banks a mile or more below its point of diversion near the north canal dam Tuesday evening, the water cutting a deep gash in the hillside as it rushed down to the Deschutes, crossing The Dalles-California highway where it borders the river at the Boyd place.

The bank at the point where the ditch broke, was entirely carried away, and settlers on the Swalley project were busy repairing the damage today.

The highway was not damaged except that a small amount of gravel was washed out at it where the flood crossed.

Bill Johnston Gets a Place On American Tennis Team

(U. P. Leased Wire to The Bend Bulletin)

FOREST HILLS, N. Y., August 12.—Bill Johnston of California practically made certain his place as No. 2 player on the American Davis cup tennis team this afternoon when he again defeated Vinnie Richards. The scores were 6-3, 6-4 and 7-5. The match lacked the spirit of last Saturday's battle between the two when Johnston won only in the face of stubborn opposition.

The hottest thing under the sun

Engineers devised a miniature "crater." Electric energy, passing through the gas which it contains, makes it considerably hotter than the crater of Vesuvius.

Is this merely a laboratory experiment? Not at all. This tremendous heat and light is safely used in searchlights and in motion picture projectors, where it contributes to the pleasure and education of millions.
