

Greater Movie Season Now On!

Never before have such really fine pictures been offered the people of Bend. The pictures shown in the last month will prove this while a glance over some to follow will also prove that they will continue that way.

WHY?

First, through co-operative buying, we are now able to choose the pictures we want to play. We select the best and refuse the poorer product. Previously we had to take all of a certain product in order to get a few that we really want.

Second, the public has become educated to better pictures and now demands only the best. This is proven by the support given to the best pictures shown.

Third, we now have the entire field of new pictures from which to choose, we are constantly kept in touch with all new products, and as a result we now have chosen the very best from the products of FIRST NATIONAL, PARAMOUNT, UNIVERSAL. They are the leaders in the field and consistently turn out the best pictures on the market. Co-operative buying has made this possible. The people of Bend this year will get only the cream, and we can truthfully say that there is not a theatre in the Northwest that will show such a consistent line of special attractions.

Style Show Announced Third Week Next Month

The second annual style show of the Smart Shop in cooperation with the Bend Theaters, Inc., will be given the third week in September at the Capitol theater. It was announced this morning. It is planned to show not less than 100 garments. There will be 15 or more models. Special stage arrangements will be made, with likelihood that additional scenery will be secured as well.

The theater management is holding the film, "A Dressmaker From Paris," described as being in itself a style show, to be run in connection with the September event.

England has now won two out of the three series held for the Wightman cup, which is designed to be emblematic of the women's international lawn tennis championship.

Your Fall Clothes should give you an athletic look--Big Values, too

$35.00 to $49.50

The styles were never more becoming for men; shoulders are wider, lapels are wider; buttons and pockets are higher. Coats are narrow through the hips—they make a man look taller and full through the chest—athletic.

Trousers are full and taper slightly to the shoe. These are the new ideas and you'll like them. Hart Schaffner & Marx have given us these styles that the best dressed men of Europe and America are wearing right now. There is nothing newer or better; there is nothing bigger than the value we are offering either.

Something new--a Hart Schaffner & Marx Suit for

$35.00 to $49.50

It is an amazing value and only possible through the tremendous volume, buying power and concentration of Hart Schaffner & Marx—fine all-wool worsteds and smart new style—values that you can't surpass anywhere.

SPORTSMAN PARK, ST. LOUIS, Mo., Aug. 29.—Manager Miller Huggins of the Yankees just before the game today announced that Babe Ruth had been suspended indefinitely for "conduct unbecoming the game."

Huggins refused to specify what actions brought about the suspension but said they had come up during the last several days' play.

The former champion home run hitter appeared at the park an hour before today's game but did not get into uniform. He sat in the stands during the game.

In addition to the indefinite suspension, the babe was fined $5,000.
