

Pluvius Calls Central Oregon Tennis Tournament Draw

LAY FINALS NEXT SUNDAY

Good Crowd Sees Excellent Work on Courts

As the finals in Central Oregon's biggest tennis tournament were well under way at Redmond Labor day afternoon, Empire Jap. Pluvius threw sponge into the ring, or rather court, and called it a draw, for time being at least.

The McClintock brothers, Donald Graham, were opposing Dr. J. P. H. and Billy Van Allen in the doubles match, and honors were at even when rain called off proceedings. The McClintocks had won the first set 6-3, and Hosh and Van Allen had taken the second one by same score. The McClintocks were ahead 2-1 in the third set.

This and the final match in the girls will be played off next Sunday, it was decided. Hosh and Van Allen will oppose each other for the central Oregon singles championship. The interrupted doubles match was the most exciting and the fastest of the tournament, the two tuggers standing up at a scorching volleying back and forth nearly all the time. Hosh and Van Allen varied this program occasionally by lobbing over their opponents' heads, while the McClintocks took most of their points by terrific overhead smashes.

The singles match in which Van Allen won his way to the finals by defeating Donald McClintock was the best in that department of the tournament, and decidedly better than any of the matches in the previous tournament at Bend two months ago.

McClintock took the first set 6-2, never varying from his steady chopping and placing game which prevented Van Allen from using his phenomenal backhand drive to any extent and stowed up his forehead game. In the second set the Redmond boy became more accustomed to handling the treacherous chopped ball, and at the same time McClintock's service went "haywire," with the result that Van Allen won 7-5, and the same condition prevailed during the third set, which Van Allen won 6-2.

Dr. Hosh was forced to extend himself in two matches before he qualified for the finals. He defeated Arthur Michel 6-2, 6-0, but nearly every game went to deuce and in a number of them he was forty-five against Hosh before he took any points. Michel used more fast drives than any other player in the tournament.

In the semi-finals Dr. Hosh won from Dunbar Burdick 6-3, 6-3. The Redmond high school boy played a phenomenal game, especially at the net, and forced the veteran player to extend himself at all times.

Large crowds attended the tournament both days, giving the remarkably good play which was featured throughout, and the encouragement it deserved. It was generally conceded that so large a group of first rank players had never been brought together for a tournament in Central Oregon before. The matches were:

Final workouts of the men who are to appear in the fight card Thursday night in the Hippodrome will be taken tomorrow afternoon, Matchmaker O. M. Montgomery announces. The first workout, between Spec Woods and Frankie Doyle, will start at 2:30. The other fighters will start their final workouts at 7:30 in the evening.

Local fight fans who have seen the principals of the Thursday night card in training this week say that the men appear to be in the best of condition. This is especially true of the headliners, Woods and Submarine Dean. Doyle, a clean, 21 year old fighter, will tangle with Stolz in the semi final.

K. O. Greenly and Joe Taylor will be presented in the curtain raiser, stepping four rounds. The main event will be a 10 round go, and the semi final will be a six round fight.

DEMPSEY APPEARS FOR FOUR ROUNDS

Exhibition Shows Champion in Excellent Condition

(U. P. Leased Wire to The Bend Bulletin)

SAN FRANCISCO, Sept. 8.—Jack Dempsey, heavyweight champion, spurred four rounds as a feature on a Labor day card here, but the workout was hardly an index to his condition. Appearing in excellent physical shape, Dempsey put over enough punches against "Pat" Larne and "Cowboy" Warner, who agreed to face him two rounds each, to show that he still has the same wicked force which made him champion.

Although he was using 16 ounce gloves, Dempsey sang each of his opponents often and neither came near home. The champion's appearance drew a 15,000 crowd to witness a bill which otherwise was featured by "Clever" Seno, new Philippine flash who expects to annex the title held by his late countryman, Pancho Villa. Seno, managed by Frank Churchill, who handled Villa, scored a decisive technical knockout over Mickey Gill in the second round.

"Stiffening Up" Exercises on Program for First Workout—Riney Building on Training in Fundamentals

The largest turnout of candidates for the Bend high school football team in the history of the school was expected this afternoon when Coach James C. Riney's squad will hold its first practice. Suits were issued to some of the players Monday afternoon, and the rest were being outfitted early this afternoon, in preparation for a workout which, Coach Riney admitted, was planned for the express purpose of "making them good and stiff."

There are a number of experienced players who have entered from other schools, in addition to several letter men, substitutes and second team men from last year's squad, but until they line up on the field for the first instructions from Coach Riney, no clear idea of the outlook for Bend high can be secured.

Even then it will be only a hazy idea, for Riney will not line up any sort of team until at least two weeks of fundamentals have been gone through.

"Doc" J. H. Loomis, who has donated his services as trainer for the past two years, will be on duty again this year, according to present indications. Training rules are already in effect, both Loomis and Riney announced today, and they will be fully as strict as last year.

O'Donnell field will be used for practice as in the past, but since the new high school building is close to the gymnasium and the squad will dress there, the coach has added a new feature to the daily training program—a lively jog to and from the field.

Innocent bystanders who see the whole football squad running down the street need not fear that Riney's wildcats have broken loose and are bent on destruction—they will just be on their way to or from the field, as the case may be. The coach may be among them, to make sure that they run all the way—but on this point he has made no announcement.

Less than a month of training lies before the Bend high team before the first hard game, that against Redmond October 2. This means that the squad will have no time to waste, and practice sessions will be mapped out accordingly.

Thousands of Plunges Taken During Summer

A total of 6,550 swims were taken in the tank in the school gymnasium building during the 1925 vacation period of the local schools, according to a report made out today by Paul Ager, in charge of the gymnasium pool.

Out of this total, 4,914 were free swims, boys and girls not being required to pay. A total of 2,526 swims were taken by boys and 2,388 by girls. There were 1,936 paid admissions.

During the school year, the tank will be open to the general public from 7 to 9 o'clock Thursday night. It will be open to women from 7 to 9 o'clock Wednesday night.

Few Dampened Innings Are Tried at Klamath

Rain spoiled the plans of the Bend and Klamath Falls baseball teams to hold a two game series at the Southern Oregon city during the past week end, Between showers Monday morning, seven innings were played, Klamath Falls winning 5 to 3, members of the Bend team reported on their return.

Bend scored all of its runs in the third inning. Batteries were Tetherow and W. Russell for Bend, and Mohler and Dement for Klamath Falls.

On the way to Klamath Falls, the automobile of the Russell brothers was badly smashed when it struck a car which had come suddenly from a blind crossroad. None of the occupants of the Russells' car was injured.

The Bend team is planning to invade Burns for a game next Sunday.

MAY SALVAGE FORTUNE

TOKIO, Sept. 8.—The Japanese Salvage Works has agreed to British insurance interests' request that it attempt to salvage 1,000,000 pounds sterling, lost when the Cunard liner Krynt was sunk in the bay of Biscay.

Bend High Grads Open Grid Practice Today

Alumni of the Bend high school will start football practice on O'Donnell field at 5 o'clock Wednesday afternoon, in preparation for a game against the high school team, it was announced today.

No game has been definitely scheduled, but Coach James C. Riney of the high school has stated that he wants a game in order to give his men some experience in actual combat before the regular season starts.

The alumni won last year's encounter, 14 to 0, and the high school boys are determined to even the account this year. Knowing this, the alumni are planning to start practice at once and train just as hard as the undergraduates do this fall.

Inasmuch as an American Legion eleven is to be put in the field this fall, candidates for the legion team are invited to turn out with the alumni, although chief emphasis will be placed on the alumni team's training until its game with the high school is played.

NEW YORK, Sept. 8.—Because of the heavy expense involved and the lack of funds, Australia will not challenge for the Davis cup in 1926 and may remain out of the international competition for a longer period, according to Jack Hawkes, manager of the team.

EVANSVILLE, Ind., Sept. 8.—Louis Chedo, 32, Christopher, Ill., pitcher of the Decatur, Ill., Three "I" league team, died today as the result of injuries sustained when struck by a pitched ball in the game with Evansville yesterday.

GREAT FALLS, Mont., Sept. 8.—Billy De Foe, St. Paul featherweight, won a 12 round decision from Don Tippero of Bingham, Utah, here last night. Tippero took a severe lacing in the last five rounds, but De Foe could not put him away.

HELENA, Mont., Sept. 8.—Pete Sarmiento, Filipino, and Dixie La Hood, Butte, bantams, fought 12 rounds to a draw here last night. The judge's decision was unpopular. La Hood repeatedly staggered Sarmiento and twice in the 11th round refused to take the decision offered by the referee after Sarmiento had landed foul blows.

ATHLETICS SLUMP IN LEAGUE RECORD

Philadelphia Definitely Out of American Race

(U. P. Leased Wire to The Bend Bulletin)
NEW YORK, Sept. 8.—Helpless in the grasp of a record making slump, the young Philadelphia Athletics are now out of the American league pennant race and Washington unofficially is the American league entry for the world's series.

The mathematical certainty has not been reached in the American or the National league but it seems quite certain now that Washington and Pittsburgh will meet in the post season series to decide the world's championship.

The Senators are nine games ahead of the Athletics and they are moving like a steam roller over all opposition. The Pirates are 8 1/2 games in front of the New York Giants and they have shown to signs of faltering.

The collapse of the Athletics since August 15 has been one out of the outstanding events of a season that has furnished a generous supply of interesting features and the spurt of the Senators when they were threatened, has been one of the most inspiring incidents of years.

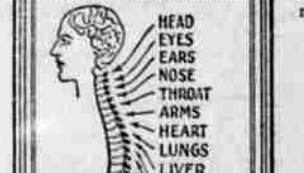

During all the variations in the calendar, September has always had 30 days.

STOP THE LEAK!

If a water pipe burst you would have no doubt as to the proper measure of correction, which is to repair the break, stop the leak, and remove the cause. If an equally simple accident creates havoc within your body, are you as logical?

All disease with which the human family is afflicted has a cause. Most disease has a single, simple cause—pressure upon nerves which prevents a proper flow of motive power to the various cells and organs of the body.
