(U. P. Leased Wire to The Bend Bulletin)
OMAHA, Neb., Oct. 2.—The bandit who held up and robbed the passengers of two trains in two nights was fatally wounded last night while escaping with the loot of his second robbery.

He was Robert Henry Porter, 53, Council Bluffs, Iowa, father of four children, and was shot by Audrey S. Kenworthy, special agent for the Union Pacific railroad.

Porter confessed the two robberies and died an hour later.

Shortly before he was wounded, Porter had lined up 26 persons on the Portland Limited of the Union Pacific and robbed them of $500. Wednesday night Porter terrorized 40 passengers of a Missouri Pacific train from Kansas City and robbed 26 of them, escaping after a brush with a special agent, who fired at him.

Among passengers robbed on the Union Pacific train last night were: B. L. Randall, Portland, Oregon; Charles Bean, Denver; W. H. Meagher, Boise City, Iowa; and Julius H. Jacobson, Boise, Idaho.

All the money and jewelry taken from the passengers was recovered and returned to its owners.
