northward journey—however, found winter still lingering in many sections of the land.

The weather bureau predicted for today a cold wave in the east, the middle Atlantic and gulf states, with snow for interior New England and New York, though followed by warmer weather by tomorrow afternoon except in the south Atlantic states.

Meantime, out of the west and midwest came reports of floods and snows, respectively.

In Washington and further south blossoms are out. The White House lawn is fragrant with the blooms of a dozen magnolia trees while red crocus blossoms lend a touch of color to the grass.

Washington's nationally famous Japanese cherry trees, skirting the Potomac, are blossoming early.

Separation From Wife Given Cinderella Man

White Plains, N. Y., Mar. 21.—(UP)—Edward West Browning, 52 year old millionaire and dabbler in Cinderellas, today won a separation from Frances "Peaches" Heenan, the girl 36 years his junior, whom he married less than a year ago.

The decision of Supreme Court Justice A. H. F. Seeger, before whom the sensational trial was held, was filed in the Westchester county court, where "Daddy" Browning and his plump bride came in January to begin the airing of their sometimes funny, frequently vulgar marital difficulties.

Justice Seeger dismissed Mrs. Browning's claim and awarded Browning an absolute separation.

Mrs. Browning was given no alimony and her cross complaint against Browning was dismissed.

What's Wrong With Your Marriage?

Edited by ALICE TABOR

THIS HUSBAND SAYS: My wife "nags" me almost to distraction. I come home at night and she has a dozen or more complaints all piled up, ready for me. She finds fault with this and with that. I feel lost in a cloud of darkness. Deep in my heart I love my wife very much. She is a woman of refinement, education and ideals. But she can discover more faults in me in five minutes than I ever thought a human being could carry around with him. Then she takes them up, one by one, and reprimands me for them. If she would only meet me at the door with a smile and a "bear hug" and tell me how glad she was to have me home, and give me a little credit for all the work of the day, or have some little party or "event" planned upon my return, it would overjoy me. I'm sure that my wife loves me. It's just because she doesn't think. I wish she would think. It would make all the difference in the world.

SUFFERING CAT? I'M MARRY A WALTER, OR A TAXI DRIVER.

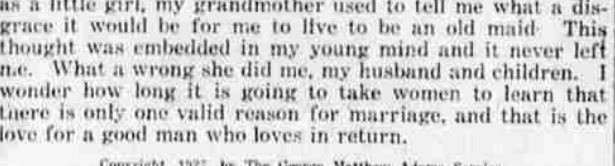

I got frightened

THIS WIFE SAYS: I married because I got frightened. I thought that I might live to be an "old maid." But I have since learned that there are disappointments far greater than this. I have decided that love alone is able to give happiness and a happy home. I married a very wonderful man, but I married him through this fear and not because I loved him. I now feel the great wrong I did my husband. Early, as a little girl, my grandmother used to tell me what a disgrace it would be for me to live to be an old maid. This thought was embedded in my young mind and it never left me. What a wrong she did me, my husband and children. I wonder how long it is going to take women to learn that there is only one valid reason for marriage, and that is the love for a good man who loves in return.

Are You Too Thin?

Writer Says—Folks Underweight Should Consider Question Seriously

One does not need to be "fat" in order to be healthy—but folks underweight should try to correct their weakness at once!

You do not need to be a Doctor to understand this danger. Common Sense and the fact that Life Insurance Companies refuse to sell insurance to folks who are "too thin" furnish convincing daily proofs!

In the opinion of the writer, if you are five or more pounds underweight, you ought to try a few weeks' use of McCoy's Tablets at once. Tiny, tasteless tablets, containing the world known flesh giving value, the physical power and strength of Cod Liver Oil. At Owl Pharmacy and other druggists (60 tablets 60c) on money back if not satisfied plan. Adv.
