

Jack Sharkey Takes Convincing Victory From Maloney in Fifth

GENE'S CROWN IS NEW GOAL

Jim's Eye Is Slashed In First Frame

New York, May 21. — (AP)—A most convincing five-round knockout victory over his rival Boston heavyweight to his credit, Jack Sharkey, the orator and fish slinger from the navy, today was in the front ranks of contenders for Gene Tunney's heavyweight title. In Tex Rickard's elimination contest last night at Yankee stadium, Sharkey outboxed and outfought Jim Maloney with little difficulty.

As far as the fight went, Maloney won only one round—the first. Even in that first round he had his left eye opened by a well directed right-hand punch. After the first, there was no doubt about the winner.

In the fourth round Sharkey slammed Maloney to the floor for a count of three. Maloney was pulling himself up with the aid of ropes when the gong ended the round.

Sharkey came out with his defiant sneer in the fifth round and rapped Maloney to the floor again with a right to the jaw.

Goes Down Again

Maloney struggled to his feet and was sent down again with another hard right to the jaw. Maloney, showing that his game-ness cannot be questioned, rolled over and over on the floor, pulled himself up with the help of the ropes and then collapsed on his face in the resin as the referee stepped in and stopped the fight.

Maloney did have a bad break in the first round when his eye was opened, but that was no excuse for the inferiority he demonstrated in the later rounds.

There can be no question that Sharkey is the better fighter.

Tex Rickard was enthused after the fight. "Sharkey is one of the best box fighters I ever have seen", Rickard said. "I have him signed up to meet Dempsey in the next number of the eliminations and I know it will be a great fight."

Sharkey razzed Maloney all through the fight. When they were called to the center of the ring Sharkey did all the talking and Johnny Buckley, his manager, stood by silently.

Fast All the Way

It was a fast bout all the way and in that manner reminiscent of the famous Dempsey-Firpo engagement at the polo grounds.

Fifty thousand fans were on hand when the fighters entered the ring, thus insuring the $200,000 stake Rickard had predicted. It was not a capacity crowd but a noisy one.

Looking back it is easy to believe that Sharkey may have received his inspiration just before the fight began. After a United Press dispatch telling of Captain Lindbergh's whereabouts had been read to the crowd a shout prayer was said.

When someone yelled from the depths of the stadium:

The anonymous sentiment may have gotten under the thick skin of the blustering Lithuanian. At once he showed a right-hand blow that never before had exhibited and had terrific power in his punches. He turned out to be not only a boxer but a slugger.

The Washington team settled down somewhat after that disaster and has played much better ball. Tomorrow's game, played on White Salmon's own field, will probably be a different sort of struggle than the shut-out here.

Speck Kennedy's boys are becoming somewhat hardened to the task of riding a couple of hundred miles and then winning a ball game before tackling the long ride home. Last Sunday in Hood River they ran away with the ball game from the start in spite of six or seven hours on the road just before the battle. The same lineup used last Sunday will make the trip tomorrow.
