

Twenty Seven Qualify for First Annual Duffers Tournament Here

MATCH PLAY STARTS SOON

Players Are Placed in Bracket of 32

Twenty seven men qualified for the first annual duffers tournament at the Bend Golf club, and first round matches are to begin Saturday afternoon, with the M. P. Cashman trophy at stake. Every qualifier will have a chance to win the cup, according to A. A. Clapp, who is in charge of the tournament, and there will be additional prizes enough to allow at least one for each of the 27 entrants. The prizes are to be awarded at a stag dinner to be held in the club house.

The 27 qualifiers were placed in a bracket of 32, with five byes, in order to make it possible for all to compete for the cup. The beaten 16 in the first round will form the consolation flight.

Pairings for the first round are as follows: Dr. J. S. Grahman vs. M. P. Cashman; William Burrell vs. Ben Hamilton; Dr. Grant Skinner vs. A. N. Curtis; F. O. Minor, bye; A. R. Leary vs. Gerry Horstlotte; J. E. Smith, bye; E. L. Shevlin vs. G. C. Pendergast; A. E. Hill vs. Carl Johnson; H. C. LaBertew vs. D. C. Hale; Douglas Ward vs. Clarence Curtis; A. A. Clapp vs. E. R. Ryan; Hod Richards, bye; Paul Hampson vs. W. D. Evans; H. C. Friedley, bye; C. J. Monahan, bye; Kenneth Cruikshank vs. Horace Richards.

Sport Tabloids

Tacoma, Wash. — Fred Lenhart, 178½, Tacoma, fished strongly here last night to earn a draw with Maxie Rosenbloom, 177, light heavyweight champion, in a non-title bout. Rosenbloom piled up an early lead. In the eighth, he claimed a foul, but finished the fight after a five-minute rest. Lenhart opened up and took the fight away from the champion in the closing rounds. In two previous meetings, each fighter won a decision. Rosenbloom insisted on an overweight fight.

San Francisco. — Ed "Strangler" Lewis defeated Ted Cox, two falls out of three; Vic Christy drew with George Hagen.

Chicago. — Pitcher Paul Gregory has been released on option to the Milwaukee American association club by the Chicago White Sox to make room for pitcher Harold Haid, recently purchased from the Seattle Pacific Coast league club.

Gresham. — Horse racing with legalized pari-mutuel betting returned to Oregon today after more than a quarter century. The 20-day race meet, first under legalization of the legislature, will be held at the Multnomah county fair grounds. Seventy two horses are entered in today's races.

Chicago. — Equipose, often called America's greatest race horse since Man O' War, will attempt to pack 135 pounds tomorrow in the $10,000 Arlington handicap and beat a field of the best handicap horses in the land. C. V. Whitney shipped his great horse west to race in the stars and stripes at Arlington July 4, but scratched him because of the heavy impost, one pound more than he's carrying tomorrow. A field of a dozen will start in the Arlington handicap.

Hooks and Slides

Gridiron Interlude
The professional footballers have taken a leap and bound on the way toward stealing the show from the colleges. Changes they have made in the rules during the summer promise a return of old thrills and some new ones added.

First, the pros are moving the goal posts back to the goal line, which is expected to revive the lost art of place-kicking and drop-kicking. The suspense of watching a ball soar from the toe of a Brickley or a Pfaffman on the 35-yard line, describing a deadly arc between the posts, is to be restored to the stands.

More Passing
A brand-new rule on forward passing gives the pro game a new offensive attraction. Under intercollegiate law, the passer must be at least five yards back of the line of scrimmage. Under the pro arrangement, a man may fling the leather any time before he crosses the scrimmage stripe.

This pass rule will do much to confuse the defense and increase the scoring. Imagine a back circling a wing, drawing the secondary defense over to stop him, then suddenly putting on the brakes and hurling a mile-long pass to a pal far down the field. Or faking a line buck, straightening up at the line of scrimmage and lobbing a short one over to a companion back!

Courts Deception
This will make pro football an offensive game, and a free-scoring, see-saw battle that ought to keep the customers on their toes throughout. The pass rule also is an invitation to trickery and surprise. Coaches throughout the league already have doped out scores of strange shifts, based on the deception this legislation allows.

Pop Warner would be right at home in the pro league this year. As it is, his deceitful disciple, Lone Star Dietz of the Boston Redskins, is pretty sure to have a pleasant and successful season.

Did You Know That—
The late Hiram Conibear must have taught Al Ulbrickson, coach of Washington's Husky crew, a little more than he taught Ed Leader, Yale's mentor... that's one way of accounting for the Washington victory over Yale... by one-fifth of a second... Louis J. Soreat, the newest of the Camera Association of Managers, is in there taking a cut in the interests of Primo's family back in Italy... Owen Madden, former assistant manager, recently terminated his sojourn at Ossening.

MAJOR LEAGUES
New York, July 21.—(UP)—The Chicago Cubs and Pittsburgh Pirates today were in full cry behind the New York Giants threatening to overhaul the National league leaders in short order.

The race tightened yesterday when New York dropped a 6 to 5 decision to the third-place Pirates and the runner-up Cubs downed the Phillies. This left the Giants only two and a half games ahead of Chicago, with the Corsairs trailing the Cubs by a scant half-contest.

New York was shaky in the field, contributing three errors to the Pirate victory, the seventh Pittsburgh triumph in the last nine starts.

Benched for light hitting, Babe Herman returned to the Cubs' line-up and equalled the National league record by smashing out three home runs as Chicago crushed the Phillies, 10 to 1. He also made a single, driving in a total of eight runs.

Boston shaded St. Louis, 3 to 2, when the Braves scored the tying and winning runs in the ninth as a result of Pinky Whitney's homer, followed by Lee's walk and Rabbit Maranville's triple.

Brooklyn wound up only half a game ahead of the last-place Cincinnati Reds, who blanked the Dodgers, 1 to 0.

New York and Washington remained tied for leadership in the American league when both were defeated. Cleveland downed the Yanks, 3 to 1. Detroit blanked Washington, 1 to 0.

Philadelphia nosed out St. Louis, 6 to 5, when Frank Higgins' single with the bases loaded drove in Mickey Cochran in the 10th, enabling Lefty Grove to triumph over Rolland Stiles in a pitching duel.

COAST LEAGUE (By United Press)
The San Francisco Seals defeated the league leading Sacramento team Thursday in a game marked by two notable happenings: i. e. the displacement of Seattle by the Seals as cellar warmer and the single Joe DeMaggio hit in his 56th consecutive game.

DeMaggio San Francisco's boy wonder hit on his third time at bat, maintaining his march toward the world's record of 69 consecutive games in which Joe Whit of the Western league set in 1919.

The Seals won, 3 to 2, with Curt Davis holding the Senators to seven hits. Hartwig yielded 10 safeties to DeMaggio and his mates.

Jim Olesby, Los Angeles batter-welder, hit in his 42nd consecutive game as the Angels dropped an 8 to 6 decision to Oakland. The Oaks overwhelmed the Angels in the first inning, scoring six runs. A three-run rally in the seventh was insufficient for Los Angeles, which used Ward, Ballou, Miller and Sittler in a vain effort to halt the Oaks. Mike Salinas went the distance for Oakland.

Portland tallied its third straight victory over the Mission club by a 5 to 2 score. The Reds were able to get eight scattered hits from Rudy Kallio, leading league twirler. Pillette and Osborne were in the box for the Missions.

Frank Shellenback, Hollywood pitcher, won a ball game from Seattle with a startling pinch hit in the ninth. With the Indians leading, 3 to 1, and Jacobs, Page and Arbelbide on bases, Shellenback stepped up and slapped the first pitched ball for a home run, giving Hollywood a 5 to 3 win.

BRITAIN SWEEPS DAVIS CUP PLAY

Vines and Perry Beaten in Singles Matches

Roland Garros Stadium, Auteuil, France, July 21.—(UP)—England made a clean sweep of today's opening matches of the Anglo-American Davis cup battle.

Ellsworth Vines, U. S. national champion, proved no match for Henry Wilfred (Bunny) Austin, the Englishman winning in straight sets, 6-1, 6-1, 6-4. Vines was able to score only single points in four successive games, the last three of the first set, and the first game of the second set.

Frederick J. Perry won the second match, defeating Wilmer Allison of Texas, 6-1, 7-5, 6-4.

The result in the first match was a stunning surprise to most of the gallery of 8,000 which expected to see Vines win, or at least to play on more nearly even terms with the British player.

Vines was hopelessly outclassed from the start, was guilty of repeated double faults, and almost continually drove returns into the net.

Vines was plainly worried after dropping the first set, and he could not bring his famous cannonball service into proper condition. Austin meantime was playing coolly, and was making the lanky American run all over the court.

Austin scored repeatedly with blistering drives to the baseline, but the British player, clad in white shorts and half hose, won more points on Vines' faults than on his own placements.

American hopes to beat England and thus gain the right to meet France in the challenge round rested upon Wilmer Allison of Austin, Tex., who played Frederick J. Perry in today's second match.

The crowd of 8,000 which was stunned by Vines' lack of form was fully as surprised by the straight-set defeat of Allison.

American's chances to win the right to meet France in the challenge round were scarcely "100 to 1", as one expert put it. The Americans would have to win tomorrow's doubles match and the two singles matches Sunday in order to enter the challenge round.

This seemed an all but impossible task, for Austin displayed enough tennis class today as to give Allison a terrific assignment, and unless Vines displays an about face from the form shown in losing his Wimbledon crown to Jack Crawford of Australia, and in bowing in straight sets today, he will prove no match for Perry on Sunday.

No sound explanation of the rout of the Americans was forthcoming. Partly their defeat seemed due to stage fright, but it was difficult to understand how such veterans of crowded galleries as Vines and Allison could have been affected by the crowd of 8,000, mainly French tennis fans with no essentially patriotic interest in the outcome.

It was recalled that England in 1931 scored a similar surprise, eliminating the Americans who were believed destined to reach the challenge round.

Lions Nose Out Leedys In Kitten Ball Contest

The Lions broke into the win column of the Harmon playfield kitten ball league yesterday evening at the expense of the Leedy players, but the victory was far from impressive — 11 to 10 in favor of the clubmen.

The Lions were able to muster only five players at game time, but the Leedy team generously waived the seven player rule and permitted the Lions to recruit enough men for a team. This recruiting work was so effective that the clubmen won.

Lineup of the Lions: Marshall, c; Gillis, p; Grahman, 1b; Redington, 2b; Sawyer, 3b; Shiek, 1b; Saters, cf; Branfield; Seflors, rf; Benson, 3b.

Leedy's: Jannis, rs; Douglass, 1b; well.

CENTURY DRIVE OPEN
The Century drive was open today over its entire length, with temporary repairs made to the Soda creek bridge, adjacent to Sparks lake. Opening of the road this week was made possible through the efforts of Allen Willcox of the Elk lake resort. Barriers of snow, still sticking to north slopes, had to be trenched in several places between Elk lake and Sparks lake.

This is the latest opening of the mountain road in many years.
