PACIFIC COAST LEAGUE

(By United Press)

The leading Portland club lost a full game in the Pacific Coast baseball league when it was nosed out, 4 to 3 in the last inning by San Francisco last night.

The deciding marker was a homer by Brooks Holder. Stutz pitched for San Francisco while Darrow and Radonits worked for the losers.

San Diego picked up a game on Portland and moved into possession of second place, two games behind the pacesetter, with a 4 to 2 victory over Oakland. Ward was the winning hurler. Van Fleet and Pyle tossed for Oakland.

Hollywood was knocked out of a tie for second place when it lost to Sacramento. The score was 6 to 5 and Walker for the Solons gave up only six hits while Tost was being touched for 12.

Gregory threw five-hit ball in pacing Seattle to a 7 to 3 win over Los Angeles. Berry and Seal of the Angels were nicked for 12 hits.

Games today:

San Diego at Oakland, 2:30 p. m.

Sacramento at Hollywood, 2:15 p. m.

San Francisco at Portland, 2:45 p. m.

Los Angeles at Seattle, 2:15 p. m.

Brooks Captures Pesky

A player well known to Bend fans, John Pesky, will be much in evidence on the Elks' field tomorrow as the Oregon State league season opens here, but he will not be in Bend uniform. Pesky will come here as captain of the newly organized Portland Babes, managed by Ray Brooks. The manager of the Babes is shown above with Pesky, outstanding hitter of the state league last season. League officials generally concede that in securing Pesky, Brooks signed the prize "catch" of the 1938 season.

Sport Parade

New York, May 21 (LP)—Professor Bill McCarney, recently returned from abroad, held one of his delightful salons in a back booth at Hymie Caplin's sixth avenue pub yesterday, and charmed his listeners, both by tales from the continent and by picking up the check.

Professor McCarney, who has been looking at fights and fighters since 1888, took Steve Dudas to Hamburg for that young man's fight with Max Schmeling. You have the word of the professor that Schmiling, but butchered Dudas for six rounds, is in the best shape of his life and will knock out Joe Louis, when they meet in June, in six rounds or less. You might listen to the professor, because he knows Schmeling; was his co-manager, in fact, from 1928 to 1933.

During the course of the afternoon someone asked Professor McCarney if he thought Schmeling would ever defend his title if he licked Louis in June. In answer, McCarney had these rather interesting and enlightening words to say:

"Yes, but not for the reason you would think. He won't defend it for money, but because it will give him another shot at Max Baer, and that's the fellow the German wants to beat. I hadn't been in Germany long this time before I learned that the one thing that keeps Schmeling from being a hundred per cent hero is the fact that Baer knocked him out. Neither the officials nor the German fans have forgiven him for losing to Baer—a fellow they believe is Jewish. Of course, Baer isn't Jewish at all."

This last remark was sharply questioned by one of the professor's listeners, who pointed out that much of the hallyhoo before the Schmeling-Baer fight was devoted to Bear's Jewish blood.

"I know that," Professor McCarney chuckled. "You see, I was the one who thought that up. Tickets weren't selling any too well when Baer got in town, so I suggested that we spruce it up a bit by concocting the German-Jewish angle. Too, it is New York's great Jewish population that provides the bulk of the fight crowd. It worked mighty fine—so fine that Germany still is demanding that Schmeling avenge himself on his 'non Aryan' conqueror."

Asked why he was so positive Schmeling would whip Louis, Professor McCarney said:

"Brains. The German has got it upstairs, and plenty. He is twice as smart as any fighter I ever knew, and I have known 'em all since John L.'s time. If you think Tunney's smart, you oughta stay around that German a while. He knows all there is to know about fighting. Throw him in there with a fellow with a great left jab and he'll figure out a way to lick him. Match him with a murderous right-hand hitter and he'll dope out a system to take care of that. He even figured out a way to beat Paulino, back in the days when he was a kid and no one was licking Paulino. You know what he did? Just beat on Paulino's arms without stopping for six rounds. By that time Paulino couldn't hold them up to make a shell for his head. And soon as his head came into view, Max let him have it. I never saw him fight two fights alike. He'll murder Louis."

What did the professor think about Armstrong and Ross?

"Ross. In 15 rounds, and after the devil of a fight. Ross is too smart for him. Barney knows more about boxing than any light fellow since Leonard. And could Benny handle those tough, wild-swinging boys."

The professor picked up the check and we went out into the crisp soot and bracing roar and rumble of Sixth avenue.

Sport Tabloids

Pullman, Wash.—Washington State college won its way to within one game of the leadership of the northern division, Pacific coast baseball conference, yesterday by blanking the first-place Oregon State college nine, 4 o 0. Al Brannsfors scattered five hits over as many innings in pitching the shutout for the Cougars. Takami, OSC pitcher, allowed six hits and struck out six men, but the Cougars bunched all their blows in three innings for scores.

Walla Walla—Whitman college had to win only one game today to hold undisputed possession of the northwest conference baseball championship. The Missionaries beat Linfield 11 to 1, last night after Willamette went wild in the afternoon and beat Linfield, 12 to 8, in the round robin tournament being played to decide the title. Whitman, which has beaten both teams, plays Willamette and Linfield this afternoon. Whitman holds the eastern division championship and Linfield and Willamette tied for the western title.

Seattle—Thanks to Bellingham and their own victory, the Yakima Pippins increased their lead in the Western International baseball league today to two games over Tacoma. Yakima beat Wenatchee, 4 to 2, while Bellingham downed the second-place Tacoma Tigers, 8 to 6, last night. Spokane came to life for the second night in a row and rapped out 12 hits to beat Vancouver, 5 to 1.

MAJOR LEAGUES

New York, May 21 (LP)—Licked for the third straight time yesterday, the New York Giants, who a scant week ago had a record of 18 triumphs in 21 games, have cracked wide open. They've lost four out of their last five games, and their big lead has been chopped to 3½ games. Cincinnati beat them 4-0 yesterday.

The Chicago Cubs slashed out 22 hits to beat the Phillies, 16-7, and move closer to the Giants.

Brooklyn triumphed over Pittsburgh, 7-5. Van Mungo won his second game with a bit of relief help from Forest Pressnell.

The leading Cleveland Indians of the American league, slugged Emil Leonard off the mound in the second inning and beat Washington, 6-3.

The Boston Red Sox kept pace with the Indians by hammering out a 16-2 victory over the St. Louis Browns. Lefty Grove held the Browns to eight hits to win his seventh straight game, first to accomplish that feat.

Rudy York's error on a liner to left field and three eighth inning doubles by rookies Siebert, Chapman and Lodigiani spoiled Schoolboy Rowe's attempted comeback as they won from Detroit, 5-2.

The other two games were postponed beause of rain.

SAYS WAR SAVED LIVES

Pasadena, Cal. (LP)—General P. J. H. Farrell, retired, believes that the Spanish-American war saved 600,000 American lives. It furnished the impetus necessary to find the solution for malaria and typhoid.

Mr. Ray "Loud Speaker" Brooks complacently contemplating dream victories his Portland Babes are scheduled (according to Mr. Brooks) to lay in his ample lap. His "Infants" are undefeated! They haven't played a game yet! Wear the crown while you may Mr. Brooks!

The Bend Elks (Mr. Brooks calls them wolves) tangle with the Babes tomorrow afternoon at O'Donnel field. Mr. Brooks will think "Wolves" when the "pack" in the bleachers and grandstand start to howl . . . I hope, I hope, I hope! Note—All Bend fans will be searched for concealed weapons (over-ripe hen fruit and vegetables) on entering the field.

Mr. Brooks requested that some prize be given the visitors. We offer a cigar to the manager of the losing team in tomorrow's game just to make sure that Mr. Brooks leaves Bend with something besides a headache.

By the way Mr. Brooks seems to have signed a young chap by the name of Johnny Pesky. Bend fans may have a faint recollection that he played for the Elks last year.

The annual Bend Elks Baseball Benefit Dance is scheduled for tonight at the Elks hall. All proceeds go to the team.
