

Sub-Par Rounds Feature Pacific Northwest Golf Play in Portland

Don Moe Leads Field With 69

Texas Girl Has 75 To Set Course Record

Portland, Ore., June 21 (AP)—The Pacific Northwest Golf association men's tournament entered its second 18-hole qualifying round and women started their first round of match play today after opening rounds yesterday that established Donald K. Moe of Portland and Betty Jameson of San Antonio, Tex., as the leaders.

Moe, a former Walker cup player who has yet to win his first northwest crown, toured the Waverley Country club course yesterday in a brilliant 69, three under par, to lead 120 entries. Miss Jameson shot a 75 at the Portland Golf club to tie the course record and lead the field by three strokes.

Harry Givan of Seattle, seeking his third title in as many years, was second to Moe with a 70. Dr. O. F. Willing, Oregon state champion, carded an even par 72. At 73 was Dr. Cliff Baker of Portland, while Jack Westland, Seattle, and Malcolm MacNaughton, San Francisco, were tied at 74.

Bracketed at 75 were Charles Hunter, Tacoma; Sidney Milligan, Eugene, Ore., and George Will, Portland. Three scored 76's—Roy Wiggins, Ed Labbe, and Don Thompson, all of Portland. Eleven others finished under 80—Richard Werschul, Eugene; Rudie Wilhelm, Portland; and Leland Clark, Medford, 77; Fred Lyman, Forrest Watson, and Sidney Allen, all of Seattle, 78; Bob Lee, Seattle; Clifton Smith, Eugene; Dale LaFord, Portland; Alan Taylor, Victoria, B. C.; and Harold Salvador, Portland, 79.

Patsy McKenna of Portland was closest to Miss Jameson with a 78, even women's par. Marian McDougall, Portland's defending champion, tied for fifth place with 85. Mrs. B. E. Eva, Oregon state champion, finished in 80 strokes for third medalist honors. Barbara Winn of Seattle was fourth at 83. Murie Veatch of Portland, Mrs. Mary Moore Wagner of LaGrande, and Mrs. Mac Wilkins of Portland were bunched at 87.

Mrs. J. K. Priebe and Mrs. J. E. Beck of Seattle were tied at 85 to qualify for the match play, for which 83 or better was necessary.

Sport Parade

By Henry McLemore
(United Press Staff Correspondent)

New York, June 21 (AP)—Joe Louis is champion of the world, and one is supposed to string along with a champion until he falls.

Therefore I pick Max Schmeling to win.

Joe Louis is younger, and they say youth must be served. Therefore I name Max Schmeling to win by a knockout.

Joe Louis hits harder, and providence is supposed to be on the side with the heaviest artillery. Therefore I say Schmeling will finish off his man inside ten rounds.

No former heavyweight champion has ever regained the title. Therefore I say Schmeling will.

Joe Louis is an American, is partly owned by the promoter of the fight, will have his own gloves, and a referee he likes. In short, he doesn't figure to get any the worst of it. Therefore I pick Schmeling, a German, fighting in a town where his race is unpopular, to triumph.

The betting odds, calculated by the shrewdest boxing critics of them all, have made Joe Louis a 1 to 2 favorite. Therefore I choose Schmeling.

Why? That's just what I want to know—why?

This refusal of mine to follow the dictates of common sense so troubled me that yesterday I visited the tent of an internationally renowned phrenologist and submitted my head to a clinical survey. For three hours the doctor explored my noggin to the accompaniment of many "whews" and "land sakes alives," and "my, my, mys!"

But at the finish he had to admit failure. He had found bumps which explained why I liked doberman pinchers better than French poodles, preferred shrimps croele to visiting a friend confined with chicken pox, and refused to remove my hat in the presence of Indian potentates whose middle initial was "L." But for the life of him he couldn't find a bump which would explain why I liked Schmeling over Louis or why, after liking the German, I insisted on putting my choice down in black and white for all to see.

The best the doctor could do was to advise that I wear a pith helmet lined with wet leaves for the remainder of the summer, and avoid strenuous sessions at the purchase board.

PACIFIC COAST LEAGUE
(By United Press)

Sacramento, leading the Pacific Coast league by four full games, came to Oakland today for a series with the cellarite Oaks.

Winning the series from San Diego last week, five games to two, Sacramento staved off a bid from the fast budding San Francisco club, which bogged down against Hollywood in the final games, although winning the series, four to three. Los Angeles kept pace with Sacramento, beating Oakland, five to two, and Seattle took four out of six against Portland.

Among the pitchers, only Lou Balou of San Francisco retained his perfect record of five wins and no defeats. Manny Salvo of San Diego has won 12 out of 15 games and Henry Phippen has won 13 of 17.

Marvin Gudat of Los Angeles leads the league's batsmen with an average of .374. Brooks Holder, San Francisco, is hitting .353 and Johnny Frederick,

Out Our Way

YES, I CAN USE YOU BOYS DURIN' THE SUMMER VACATION... YOU FIRST TWO FELLOWS I CAN USE IN THE OFFICE... THE OTHER TWO I CAN USE IN THE FOUNDRY, SHOVELIN' SAND

"WHERE THE TRAIL DIVIDES"

By Williams

THERE YOU GO... EVEN OUR LOOKS IS AGAINST US!! HE PICKS THEM TWO FER LIGHT OFFICE WORK, AND ME AN' YOU FER HARD LABOR... WHAT CAN YOU DO WHEN EVEN YOUR LOOKS IS AGAINST YOU?

"WHERE THE TRAIL DIVIDES"

Ex-Champions Lean to Louis

Jack Johnson Is Alone Naming Schmeling

(Copyright, 1938, by United Press)

New York, June 21 (AP)—The ten living former heavyweight champions were asked today to pick the winner of tomorrow's fight and only one—Jack Johnson, only negro ever to hold the title before Joe Louis came along—favored Max Schmeling.

Johnson, who was laughed at when he picked Schmeling to beat Louis in their first fight in June, 1936, said he thought Schmeling's "cunning and strategy will win over Louis' poor craftsmanship."

Tommy Burns, Gene Tunney, Maxie Baer, Primo Carnera, and Jimmy Braddock all picked Louis to win. Jack Dempsey and Jack Sharkey refused to make flat predictions but they leaned toward Louis. Jess Willard and Jim Jeffries had no opinions either way.

Here's what Jeffries, the ex-champion from 1899 to 1906, speaking from Los Angeles said: "I haven't followed either of them closely. I don't have any selection to make."

Tommy Burns, 1905-1908, Vancouver, B. C.: "Louis will retain the title. I know Schmeling and would like to see him win. But if I were betting money, it would have to go on Louis. There is no doubt that his Louis wasn't in good shape for his first contest with Schmeling."

Jack Johnson, 1908-15, New York: "I pick Schmeling to beat Louis. Schmeling has the technique, and technique in fighting is more important than strength or punching ability. I was the first man ever to point out flaws in Louis' ring tactics before he was knocked out by Schmeling. Max, at 32, should be right at his peak. I was at my peak at 32 when I beat Jeffries in Reno. And I fought a good many fights after that."

Jess Willard, 1915-19, Lawrence, Kan.: "In a heavyweight championship fight, I would say that 80 per cent depends upon the condition of the fighters. I have not seen either Schmeling or Louis at work; therefore I would rather not attempt to pick a winner."

Jack Dempsey, 1919-26, New York: "I'm not picking anybody in this fight because it's such a close contest and can go either way. However, I favor Louis because of his youth, strength and punching ability."

Gene Tunney, 1926-28, New York: "I have watched both men in training, and I give Louis a slight edge in the battle. He should win because of his youth and harder punching and speed foot. I believe if Louis forces Schmeling into exchanges, the exchanges will be uneven because Joe punches harder and faster with both hands than the challenger. However, Louis will be in constant danger because Maxie has the best educated right in the business."

Jack Sharkey, 1932-33, Boston: "I'm not picking the winner, but I like Louis. If he is like most fighters, he'll remember what happened to him last time and be a lot smarter. Joe has had plenty of experience since Schmeling knocked him out before."

Primo Carnera, 1933-34, Udine, Italy: "Joe Louis will be an easy winner. Although Schmeling is an excellent boxer, I believe Louis cannot lose this time. My opinion is that he will score a knockout in an early round."

Max Baer, 1934-35, New York: "I'm stringing along with Louis. Two years ago I bet on Schmeling, but Louis is a much improved fighter now and Schmeling is two years older."

James J. Braddock, 1935-37, New York: "I pick Louis to win by a kayo before the eighth round. Louis will fight a different kind of fight this time. His methods in training have convinced me that he will be more aggressive, spearing Max with lefts and smashing him with hard rights and never giving the challenger a chance to play his usual waiting game. I think Louis during the past

Portland, 348. Other leading hitters are Gabrielson, Seattle, 339; Stutz, Hollywood, 339, and Carey, Hollywood, 338.

Los Angeles will entertain the San Francisco Seals this week. Hollywood plays at Portland and San Diego travels to Seattle.

Anthropologist Studies Central Oregon Caverns

Dr. L. S. Cressman, University of Oregon anthropologist who has been studying traces of ancient man in the south central part of the state for several years, passed through Bend yesterday evening, headed for the caves of Catlow valley. Later, Dr. Cressman and his party will spend some time in the Summer lake valley and will do some collecting in the Fossil lake area. Their third camp will be in the Fort Rock valley of northern Lake county, where there is definite evidence that Indians once occupied shores of lakes that have long since disappeared.

With Dr. Cressman will be William Matisler, cook, and the following University of Oregon students: A. D. Kriger, Robin Drews, Carl Huffaker, Allen Murphy, Kenneth Leatherman, W. N. Saver, Dale Shuey, David French, R. L. Stevenson and Jerry Wolf. The section of the field party was to pass through Bend today. When they arrive in Catlow valley tonight they will find camp set up and their leader, Dr. Cressman, on the job.

The studies of south-central Oregon are being made through a grant from the Carnegie Institution of Washington, D. C., and the University of Oregon research council.

MAJOR LEAGUE FINALS (By United Press)

AMERICAN
(First game.) R. H. E.
Boston 001 003 031—8 12 1
Detroit 100 000 200—3 7 2
Wilson, Ostermuller (2) and Desautels; Bridges and York.
(Second game.) R. H. E.
Boston 002 00 —
Detroit 203 00 —
Wagner, McKain (3) and Peacock; Lawson and York.

R. H. E.
Washington 020 022 001—7 10 0
Chicago 000 000 000—0 5 0
Kelley and R. Ferrell; Lee, Rigney (6) and Schlueter.

R. H. E.
New York 003 000 200—5 7 1
Cleveland 200 000 60x—10 14 2
Ruffing, Andrews (7) and McKay; Feller and Hensley.

(Six innings.) R. H. E.
Philadelphia 000 000 —
St. Louis 011 210 —
Ross, E. Smith (5) and Hayes; Hildebrand and Heath.

NATIONAL
Cincinnati 060 300 200—6 8 2
New York 100 100 000—2 4 0
Weaver, Walters (7) and Lombardi; Hubbell, Brown (8) and Danning, Mancuso.

R. H. E.
St. Louis 000 001 000—1 5 4
Boston 003 000 00x—3 6 0
McGee, Harrell (7) and Owen; Turner and Mueller.

R. H. E.
Chicago 001 201 000—4 8 3
Philadelphia 000 002 100—3 7 1
Epperly, Root (6) and Hartnett; Passeau, Lamaster (9) and W. Davis; Pittsburgh at Brooklyn, night game.

MAJOR LEAGUES

New York, June 21 (AP)—Cincinnati Reds cut the Giants' margin to 2½ games yesterday when they beat the Boston Bees 3-1 in 13 innings. For the first nine innings Ray (Peaches) Davis of the Reds and Lou Fette of

Paint Your Home Now
NOTHING DOWN
12 to 36 months to pay

NO RED TAPE—Details arranged at your home. Only responsible painters and decorators do your job.

Call Mr. Christensen Today!
COPELAND YARDS
318 Greenwood Phone 110

State Labor Session Renews Grange Pact

(Continued from page one)

inspection for food handlers, with the cost to be borne by the state, and opposed the issuance of tax-exempt securities. The convention defeated a resolution to endorse the Townsend plan.

Among resolutions introduced was one by the Post Office Clerks union which seeks an amendment to the Wagner act giving federal and state civil service employees the right to organize for collective bargaining.

VENERABLE EDUCATOR

HORIZONTAL
1. 8 Pictured American educator
14 Drug from the poppy.
15 To be indubted.
17 Witch
18 Work of skill.
19 Wedge-shaped piece of wood.
21 Noise.
22 Form of 'be'
23 Opposed to cold.
24 Rodent.
26 Sesame.
28 Musical note.
29 Chum.
30 Soft food.
32 North America.
33 Sums of money
35 Pertaining to a branch.
37 Hearkened.
39 Since.
41 Prosaic
43 Night birds.
44 Stains.

Answer to Previous Puzzle
ISADORA DUNCAN
OVULO AIR AUNES
LOLL AND GIRT U
FROLIT TALE BC
AY GEM MESS TIC
C ERG REAP WANE
TADE C FIR S
OTIC ISADORA HOOT PS
RE I HEART TO
H HA DUNCAN RT CAWL
TAIN S SLD
GAR ATOM ROPED
SIMPLIFIED BARE

45 Tree.
46 Thing.
47 Southeast.
48 To sin.
50 To absolve.
52 Examination.
53 Bone.
55 Social insect.
56 Sun god.
57 Therefore
59 Chinese food staple
60 Onager
62 He is the president of Harvard
63 He is an ardent worker
64 To depart
65 To decay
66 Ear parts
68 Pitchers
69 To depart
70 Classifies.
74 Dog
77 Ago
78 Steel string
79 Wagon track
81 Type standard
82 Young horse
83 Female sheep
89 Oil (suffix)
89 Poem
89 Railroad
91 Soft mass
92 To eject.
93 South America

1 Behold.
2 Aside.
3 Steel string
4 Wagon track
5 Type standard
6 Young horse
7 Female sheep
89 Oil (suffix)
89 Poem
89 Railroad
91 Soft mass
92 To eject.
93 South America

11 To peat.
13 Untrue
14 To undermine
15 To decay
16 Ear parts
18 Pitchers
19 To depart
20 Classifies.
24 Dog
27 Ago
28 Steel string
29 Wagon track
31 Type standard
32 Young horse
33 Female sheep
39 Oil (suffix)
39 Poem
39 Railroad
41 Soft mass
42 To eject.
43 South America

COPELAND YARDS
318 Greenwood Phone 110

State Labor Session Renews Grange Pact

(Continued from page one)

inspection for food handlers, with the cost to be borne by the state, and opposed the issuance of tax-exempt securities. The convention defeated a resolution to endorse the Townsend plan.

Among resolutions introduced was one by the Post Office Clerks union which seeks an amendment to the Wagner act giving federal and state civil service employees the right to organize for collective bargaining.

VENERABLE EDUCATOR

HORIZONTAL
1. 8 Pictured American educator
14 Drug from the poppy.
15 To be indubted.
17 Witch
18 Work of skill.
19 Wedge-shaped piece of wood.
21 Noise.
22 Form of 'be'
23 Opposed to cold.
24 Rodent.
26 Sesame.
28 Musical note.
29 Chum.
30 Soft food.
32 North America.
33 Sums of money
35 Pertaining to a branch.
37 Hearkened.
39 Since.
41 Prosaic
43 Night birds.
44 Stains.

Answer to Previous Puzzle
ISADORA DUNCAN
OVULO AIR AUNES
LOLL AND GIRT U
FROLIT TALE BC
AY GEM MESS TIC
C ERG REAP WANE
TADE C FIR S
OTIC ISADORA HOOT PS
RE I HEART TO
H HA DUNCAN RT CAWL
TAIN S SLD
GAR ATOM ROPED
SIMPLIFIED BARE

45 Tree.
46 Thing.
47 Southeast.
48 To sin.
50 To absolve.
52 Examination.
53 Bone.
55 Social insect.
56 Sun god.
57 Therefore
59 Chinese food staple
60 Onager
62 He is the president of Harvard
63 He is an ardent worker
64 To depart
65 To decay
66 Ear parts
68 Pitchers
69 To depart
70 Classifies.
74 Dog
77 Ago
78 Steel string
79 Wagon track
81 Type standard
82 Young horse
83 Female sheep
89 Oil (suffix)
89 Poem
89 Railroad
91 Soft mass
92 To eject.
93 South America

1 Behold.
2 Aside.
3 Steel string
4 Wagon track
5 Type standard
6 Young horse
7 Female sheep
89 Oil (suffix)
89 Poem
89 Railroad
91 Soft mass
92 To eject.
93 South America

11 To peat.
13 Untrue
14 To undermine
15 To decay
16 Ear parts
18 Pitchers
19 To depart
20 Classifies.
24 Dog
27 Ago
28 Steel string
29 Wagon track
31 Type standard
32 Young horse
33 Female sheep
39 Oil (suffix)
39 Poem
39 Railroad
41 Soft mass
42 To eject.
43 South America

COPELAND YARDS
318 Greenwood Phone 110

Ex-Champions Lean to Louis

Jack Johnson Is Alone Naming Schmeling

(Copyright, 1938, by United Press)

New York, June 21 (AP)—The ten living former heavyweight champions were asked today to pick the winner of tomorrow's fight and only one—Jack Johnson, only negro ever to hold the title before Joe Louis came along—favored Max Schmeling.

Johnson, who was laughed at when he picked Schmeling to beat Louis in their first fight in June, 1936, said he thought Schmeling's "cunning and strategy will win over Louis' poor craftsmanship."

Tommy Burns, Gene Tunney, Maxie Baer, Primo Carnera, and Jimmy Braddock all picked Louis to win. Jack Dempsey and Jack Sharkey refused to make flat predictions but they leaned toward Louis. Jess Willard and Jim Jeffries had no opinions either way.

Here's what Jeffries, the ex-champion from 1899 to 1906, speaking from Los Angeles said: "I haven't followed either of them closely. I don't have any selection to make."

Tommy Burns, 1905-1908, Vancouver, B. C.: "Louis will retain the title. I know Schmeling and would like to see him win. But if I were betting money, it would have to go on Louis. There is no doubt that his Louis wasn't in good shape for his first contest with Schmeling."

Jack Johnson, 1908-15, New York: "I pick Schmeling to beat Louis. Schmeling has the technique, and technique in fighting is more important than strength or punching ability. I was the first man ever to point out flaws in Louis' ring tactics before he was knocked out by Schmeling. Max, at 32, should be right at his peak. I was at my peak at 32 when I beat Jeffries in Reno. And I fought a good many fights after that."

Jess Willard, 1915-19, Lawrence, Kan.: "In a heavyweight championship fight, I would say that 80 per cent depends upon the condition of the fighters. I have not seen either Schmeling or Louis at work; therefore I would rather not attempt to pick a winner."

Jack Dempsey, 1919-26, New York: "I'm not picking anybody in this fight because it's such a close contest and can go either way. However, I favor Louis because of his youth, strength and punching ability."

Gene Tunney, 1926-28, New York: "I have watched both men in training, and I give Louis a slight edge in the battle. He should win because of his youth and harder punching and speed foot. I believe if Louis forces Schmeling into exchanges, the exchanges will be uneven because Joe punches harder and faster with both hands than the challenger. However, Louis will be in constant danger because Maxie has the best educated right in the business."

Jack Sharkey, 1932-33, Boston: "I'm not picking the winner, but I like Louis. If he is like most fighters, he'll remember what happened to him last time and be a lot smarter. Joe has had plenty of experience since Schmeling knocked him out before."

Primo Carnera, 1933-34, Udine, Italy: "Joe Louis will be an easy winner. Although Schmeling is an excellent boxer, I believe Louis cannot lose this time. My opinion is that he will score a knockout in an early round."

Max Baer, 1934-35, New York: "I'm stringing along with Louis. Two years ago I bet on Schmeling, but Louis is a much improved fighter now and Schmeling is two years older."

James J. Braddock, 1935-37, New York: "I pick Louis to win by a kayo before the eighth round. Louis will fight a different kind of fight this time. His methods in training have convinced me that he will be more aggressive, spearing Max with lefts and smashing him with hard rights and never giving the challenger a chance to play his usual waiting game. I think Louis during the past

Ex-Champions Lean to Louis

Jack Johnson Is Alone Naming Schmeling

(Copyright, 1938, by United Press)

New York, June 21 (AP)—The ten living former heavyweight champions were asked today to pick the winner of tomorrow's fight and only one—Jack Johnson, only negro ever to hold the title before Joe Louis came along—favored Max Schmeling.

Johnson, who was laughed at when he picked Schmeling to beat Louis in their first fight in June, 1936, said he thought Schmeling's "cunning and strategy will win over Louis' poor craftsmanship."

Tommy Burns, Gene Tunney, Maxie Baer, Primo Carnera, and Jimmy Braddock all picked Louis to win. Jack Dempsey and Jack Sharkey refused to make flat predictions but they leaned toward Louis. Jess Willard and Jim Jeffries had no opinions either way.

Here's what Jeffries, the ex-champion from 1899 to 1906, speaking from Los Angeles said: "I haven't followed either of them closely. I don't have any selection to make."

Tommy Burns, 1905-1908, Vancouver, B. C.: "Louis will retain the title. I know Schmeling and would like to see him win. But if I were betting money, it would have to go on Louis. There is no doubt that his Louis wasn't in good shape for his first contest with Schmeling."

Jack Johnson, 1908-15, New York: "I pick Schmeling to beat Louis. Schmeling has the technique, and technique in fighting is more important than strength or punching ability. I was the first man ever to point out flaws in Louis' ring tactics before he was knocked out by Schmeling. Max, at 32, should be right at his peak. I was at my peak at 32 when I beat Jeffries in Reno. And I fought a good many fights after that."

Jess Willard, 1915-19, Lawrence, Kan.: "In a heavyweight championship fight, I would say that 80 per cent depends upon the condition of the fighters. I have not seen either Schmeling or Louis at work; therefore I would rather not attempt to pick a winner."

Jack Dempsey, 1919-26, New York: "I'm not picking anybody in this fight because it's such a close contest and can go either way. However, I favor Louis because of his youth, strength and punching ability."

Gene Tunney, 1926-28, New York: "I have watched both men in training, and I give Louis a slight edge in the battle. He should win because of his youth and harder punching and speed foot. I believe if Louis forces Schmeling into exchanges, the exchanges will be uneven because Joe punches harder and faster with both hands than the challenger. However, Louis will be in constant danger because Maxie has the best educated right in the business."

Jack Sharkey, 1932-33, Boston: "I'm not picking the winner, but I like Louis. If he is like most fighters, he'll remember what happened to him last time and be a lot smarter. Joe has had plenty of experience since Schmeling knocked him out before."

Primo Carnera, 1933-34, Udine, Italy: "Joe Louis will be an easy winner. Although Schmeling is an excellent boxer, I believe Louis cannot lose this time. My opinion is that he will score a knockout in an early round."

Max Baer, 1934-35, New York: "I'm stringing along with Louis. Two years ago I bet on Schmeling, but Louis is a much improved fighter now and Schmeling is two years older."

James J. Braddock, 1935-37, New York: "I pick Louis to win by a kayo before the eighth round. Louis will fight a different kind of fight this time. His methods in training have convinced me that he will be more aggressive, spearing Max with lefts and smashing him with hard rights and never giving the challenger a chance to play his usual waiting game. I think Louis during the past

Spy Investigation to Be Pushed, Expanded

(Continued from page one)

The German espionage ring, 18 of whose members were indicted yesterday, announced today he had mailed his resignation to J. Edgar Hoover, chief of the FBI in Washington.

Turron, highest paid FBI agent in the country with the top rung of "premier," said he was resigning for reasons of health. For the last three and a half months he has been working on the spy case an average of 16½ hours a day, and was near exhaustion when the federal grand jury indictments were announced yesterday.

Turron, 42, joined the FBI April 1, 1928. He was one of three agents who found the Lindbergh baby ransom money in the home of Bruno Richard Hauptmann and induced Hauptmann to give the handwriting samples which helped to convict Hauptmann of the kidnap-murder.

Turron's work on the spy case, which presented ramifications leading from Dundee, Scotland, to Havana and from Germany to Long Island, was described by U. S. Attorney Lamar Hardy as "an extraordinary any piece of investigation."

Berlin, June 21 (AP)—An official spokesman of the German government denied today that German officers had anything to do with the American espionage case in which 18 persons were indicted by a New York grand jury.

The statement was the first official comment here on the case. It said: "In connection with a spy case, the United States and foreign press had named several German officers, members of the war ministry, who supposedly prepared a plot for obtaining military secrets, together with others, who were arrested in the United States."

"Well-informed quarters say that is out of the question that any officer in the German armed forces can be connected with espionage plots in the United States."

The newspapers made no mention of the case. It was impossible.

CHANGE BALL SCHEDULE
A change in this week's schedule of the Bend Softball league, switching the Tuesday and Wednesday games, was announced this morning. Tonight the Shelvin-Hixon team will play the Knights of Pythias. Tomorrow's game will be Fremont vs. Shamrocks.

SPORT TABLOIDS
Salt Lake City—Al Zimmermann, bespectacled Portland pro, today held the Utah state open golf championship for the second year in a row. Zimmermann yesterday engaged in a play-off with Charley Shepherd, San Francisco pro, and Tree Branca, Salt Lake Country club pro. The three tied Sunday at the end of 72 holes with aggregate scores of 282 apiece. Shepherd led during most of the 18-hole play-off, but a 30 foot putt for an eagle three on the 18th by Zimmermann gave the latter a 68, one stroke better than Shepherd's 69. Branca scored 74 in the play-off.

Wimbledon, Eng.—Kay Stammers, left-handed English star seeded No. 6, gained the third round of the all-England women's singles tennis championships today as the second day of play was devoted to cutting down the fields in the women's singles and men's doubles.

Miss Stammers scored a 6-3, 6-2 victory over Mrs. Peggy Mitchell of England in the second round. Both drew first round byes.

Helen Jacobs of Berkeley, Cal., the 1936 winner, gained the second round with a 6-0, 6-1 victory over Mary Whitmarsh, England.

Portland, Or.—Bill Kenna, Eugene, and Jack Lipscomb teamed up last night to down George Wagner and Al Szasz at wrestling. George Becker, New York, and Pete Sherman, Indiana, grappled to a draw. Johnny Gudiski, Russia, tossed Elton Owen.

Portland, Or.—Aaron M. Frank, president of the Oregon Amateur Athletic union, said today two University of Oregon track stars, Sprinter Mack Robinson and Pole Vaulter George Varoff will compete in the national A. A. U. meet at Buffalo July 3-4. Varoff, world's indoor pole vault champion, will compete in that event, and Robinson will enter the broad jump, 100 and 200-meter dashes. The negro flash won the 220-yard dash in the national collegiate championships at Minneapolis last Saturday. Frank said expense money had been sent direct to the athletes, now at Chicago, by the national A. A. U. track and field committee. Varoff and Robinson will leave for Buffalo later in the week.

Nickel silver, sometimes known as German silver, was first made in China.

WHEN NEEDING GARBAGE OR CLEAN-UP SERVICE CALL CITY GARBAGE CONTRACTORS
GEO. PADDOCK, Mgr.
Phone 66-W

One of Oregon's Finest BOWLING ALLEYS BOWLING
Enjoy this favorite of all