Trading Volume Best Since March 30

Industrial Average Tops All Market Levels Since March

MARKETS AT A GLANCE
 Stocks strong in active trade. Bonds higher and moderately active.

Curb stocks higher. Foreign exchange easy. Cotton up about 20 cents a bale. Wheat off 3/4 to 1 1/2 cents; corn off 1/2 to 3/4.

Rubber up about 1/4 cent a pound.

New York, June 21 (UP)—The stock market extended its gains today and the industrial average reached its highest level since March 17. Volume was the largest since March 30, the million share mark being crossed before the end of the fourth hour.

The rise in the industrial average amounted to more than 3 points. The railroad division joined the upturn. Utilities were the poorest performers, the average rising only 39 10/100ths up to the end of the fourth hour.

Most commodities rose. Wheat, an exception, lost a cent a bushel in the July position. Small gains were noted in cotton, sugar, copper and tin. Rubber was up nearly a quarter of a cent. Bonds continued to gain.

Pittsburgh reported another rise in the price of scrap steel, indicating improved demand. Scrap copper rose 1/4 cent a pound and the export copper price crossed the domestic price of 9 cents a pound for the first time in several weeks. Copper and steel shares were active and higher.

Gold mining stocks were among the few issues that declined. Homestake Mining was down nearly 4 points and others of the group had smaller losses.

Most active issue was Loft, which reached 2 1/2 up 1/2 and a new high. International Telephone was active at a new high and large turnover was noted in Anaconda, U. S. Rubber, General Motors and U. S. Steel.

Thin markets in several higher-priced issues sent them up as much as 10 points in the case of Allied Chemical. Gains of 3 to more than 5 points were noted in Eastman, Inland Steel, Johns Manville, Republic Steel convertible preferred, Wheeling Steel preferred, Coca Cola and Goodyear preferred.

New highs were made by American Tobacco issues, National Biscuit and Corn Products. Bonding issues were strong on hopes for a pickup in home construction.

Sales approximated 1,460,000 shares, the largest for any full day since March 30, and compared with 1,090,000 yesterday. Curb stock sales approximated 191,000 shares, largest since May 11, against 141,000 yesterday.

Dow Jones closing averages: industrial, 121.34, up 2.73; rail, 21.51, up .081; utility, 19.60, up 0.24; 65 stocks, 39.33, up .059.

 est vote ever cast for constable in this county.

When the Disabled American Veterans organized their Lifers club yesterday afternoon, Captain Cicero F. Hogan, senior vice commander of the national department, was nominated as chaplain. "I accept," Captain Hogan quickly answered, adding: "It is going to take a lot of praying to keep some of you fellows out of hell. Earlier in the day, Captain Hogan told the convention that he could hardly speak because of a bad cold—then he delivered one of the finest talks heard since the convention opened. Last night, Captain Hogan and Dr. Roy Reynolds, Oregon department commander, joined with Pat Patterson, local musician, in singing "A Song at Twilight" over the hospital hall public address equipment.

At their opening session this morning, the Disabled American Veterans honored a gold star mother, Mrs. Mary Wycoff of Medford. Mrs. Wycoff was escorted to a seat near the presiding officer by Tom Kerrigan, officer of the day, as the veterans arose from their seats in a group. Mrs. Wycoff was later presented with a corsage by Dr. Roy Reynolds, department commander.

Major L. A. Milner, retired, was among guests of honor at the opening of the convention this morning. Major Milner served as a captain in the world war and was with the 91st division.

Veterans and auxiliary members prefer padded seats. This was evident at yesterday's opening session of the D.A.V. convention and was also much in evidence again this morning. As the delegates filed into the spacious B.P.O.E. hall, they occupied the padded seats, along the walls, but left the chairs vacant. It took an "executive order" by Officer of the Day Tom Kerrigan, to fill the vacant seats this morning, after Captain Cicero F. Hogan objected to "talking to a bunch of empty chairs."

Attendance at the Bend convention is the best of any D.A.V. conference in a number of years, department officers announced today.

Secretary of State Earl Snell appeared before the joint convention of the D.A.V. and auxiliary as a salesman of Central Oregon scenery. He described the majestic beauty of the midstate Cascades and added: "I certainly want to compliment you on selecting Bend as your convention city." Speaking as a Central Oregonian and a former resident of Redmond, Snell welcomed the visitors to the Bend country.

C. H. Anderson, a visitor at the opening of the D.A.V. convention this morning, brought greetings from the D.A.V. department of Idaho, and also from the American Legion of Idaho.

S. L. Hanson of Portland, department commander of the United Spanish War Veterans, was unable to attend the D.A.V. convention in Bend because of illness. However, he extended his greetings and those of his department in a letter read before the convention. O. E. "Moose" Palmateer, department commander of the American Legion in Oregon, and John R. Snellstrom, state commander of the Veterans of Foreign Wars, were here for the convention. Palmateer lives in Salem and Snellstrom in Eugene.

Dr. Paul I. Carter, manager of the United States veterans administration in Portland, Walter Keck and Dr. Fred A. Lieuallen returned from Paulina lake shortly before noon today with the report that their search for an convalescence hospital site in Newberry crater was most successful. "Dr. Carter and Keck both got their limits," Dr. Lieuallen said in referring to the hospital site quest.

American veterans who spent a portion of two years in France "didn't experience nothing," Frank Crozier of Salem might be quoted as saying—but he didn't say it. Crozier, member of a Canadian regiment, spent four years in France, and on one occasion was up on the front lines for more than 50 days in one stretch. He is here for the D. A. V. convention.

He had the choice of saving himself or trying to herd out his passengers, who had all retired for the night. He chose the latter course and got all his passengers out and even rescued some of their baggage. A second or two later the car went into the creek.

Denies Any Heroism
 "I can't see why anyone is making a fuss," Williams said. "I just carried out a few bags and told the passengers which door to leave from. I do that every time the train stops."

A number of Williams' passengers planned to recommend him for a Carnegie hero award.

In morgues here were 34 bodies, many still unidentified. Most of the victims were in night attire and the lack of identifying cards or belongings caused confusion.

There were 57 passengers and crew members injured but 22 of the injured left hospitals yesterday and some of them were among the 53 survivors who left on a special train for western destinations. Of those hospitalized only one, Lucille Strumley of Keldron, S. D., died.

The tourist sleeper, which fell in the deepest part of Custer creek, was the last car to be reached for bodies. Only two men, Dean Hanson of

VIOLENCE BANNED IN JEW CAMPAIGN

Nazis Plan to "Rebuke" Errant Members

By Edward W. Beattie Jr.
 (United Press Staff Correspondent)
 Berlin, June 21 (UP)—The highest Nazi party quarters, it was revealed authoritatively today, have given orders that violence in the campaign against Jews must cease.

The police checkup of passports and general Jewish activities as well as the steady Aryanzation of German business under the economic ministry will continue, it was stated, but will be held within "orderly and legal channels."

Best-informed Nazi quarters said the painting of Jewish shops and the smashing of windows was independent action by certain party elements and not inspired by police.

The violence got out of hand, it was declared, leading to strict orders for a halt. It was not expected that disciplinary action against the party members responsible would go beyond a mild reprimand "because of the difficulty of establishing who committed the acts."

Nazi quarters admitted that the violence made difficult the program of "orderly Aryanzation" of German business. It was estimated that 40 to 50 Jewish shops, restaurants and cafes in Berlin had closed under the pressure of anti-Semitic violence.

Oil mixed with some amelly substance was smeared around the country. Little of this stuff as quotations were firm at levels above bids. Known west end Jewish sales, resulting in their temporary closing.
