

Organized and Operated In the Interests of CENTRAL OREGON

The Bank of Bend was organized nearly three years ago by Central Oregon business men. It is a 100% local institution, always interested in any beneficial promotion of Central Oregon.

We Salute the Farm Industry

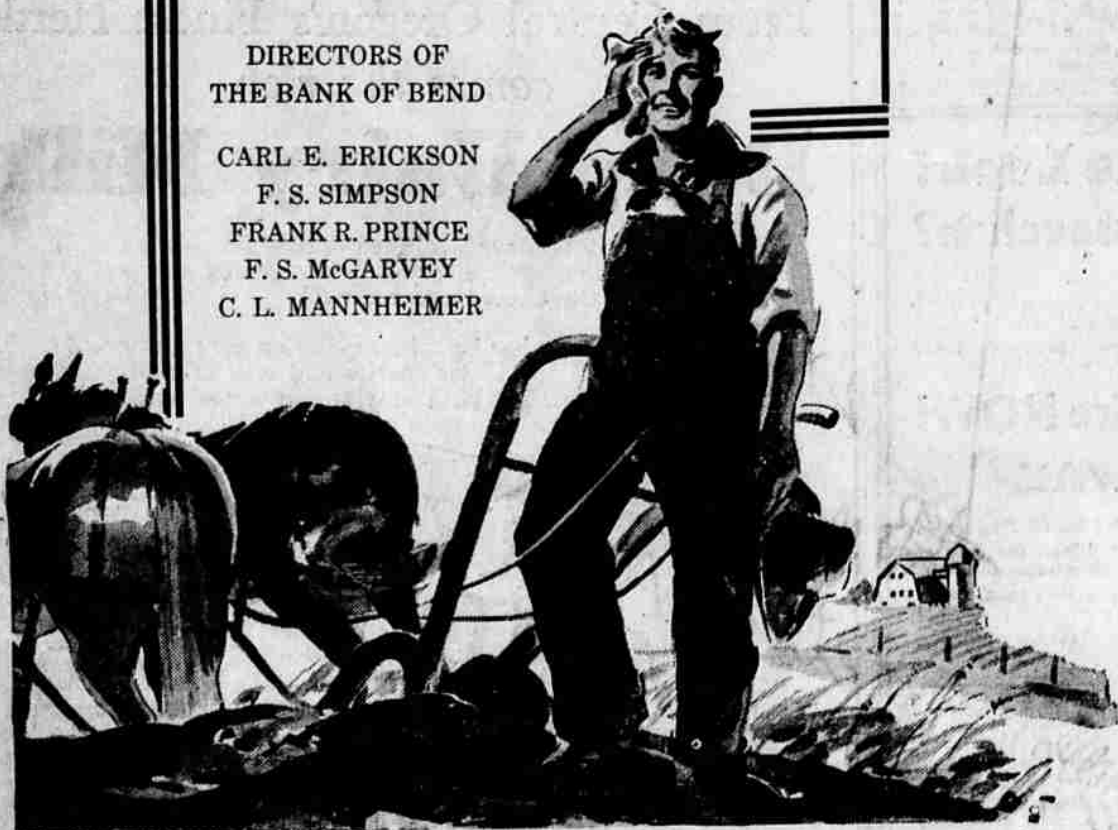

With a value of approximately three million dollars annually, farming in Central Oregon is one of our major industries.

Central Oregon farmers use modern methods in the production of their crops. The quality of their products is unsurpassed and it is to the welfare of every Central Oregonian to boost and use these local farm products.

We believe that this community's prosperity is in direct ratio to the farmer's purse . . . that the purchasing power of thousands of Central Oregonians rests in the final analysis, on farm income.
