

Last Quarter Pass Wins for Albany Football Team Friday Night

Lava Bears Lose To Valley Squad Penalties Are Costly to Bend Players

Albany, Oct. 21 (Special)—A touchdown pass in the final minutes of play, Flak to Wilson, earned Albany a 6 to 0 victory over Bend here last night in a game played on a dew drenched field, before a large crowd. The touchdown pass came at a time when it appeared that the two powerful eleven-men teams would end their night battle in a scoreless tie.

As the ball was shot to Flak for the pass, the Albany back fumbled the ball, recovered, ran back, then hurled the ball to Wilson, who trotted over the goal line untouched.

Earlier, the Bulldogs battled close to the Bend goal and shot a pass meant for a touchdown, but it was intercepted by Bend.

Several times during the game, Bend was well into Albany territory, but always suffered penalties that threw the Bears back toward mid-field. Bend was penalized a total of 90 yards, and 75 yards of this was for clipping and roughness. Albany's loss consisted of an offside penalty.

Bend gained 78 yards from scrimmage and was thrown for a loss of nine, according to official figures. Albany gained 208 and was thrown for a loss of 51. Bend was credited with three first downs to 11 for Albany.

Bend fans who saw the game in Albany last night were bitter in their criticism of the numerous penalties imposed against the over-eager Bears, but generally agreed that the Albany team was by far the most powerful met by Bend so far this season.

Next weekend in Medford, the Bears will meet the Tigers, a team that last night held Klamath Falls to a scoreless tie.

Sport Tabloids

Manila, P. I., Oct. 21 (UP)—Promoter Jess Cortes today boasted an ironclad contract for a 15-round title bout here between middleweight Champion Cefirino Garcia and Challenger Glen Lee of Nebraska.

Indianapolis, Oct. 21 (UP)—Oral Hildebrand, right-handed pitcher for the world champion New York Yankees, nursed a cut on his pitching hand today.

Hildebrand's automobile collided head-on with another last night. Six Indianapolis school teachers, passengers in the other automobile, were injured, one seriously.

New York, Oct. 21 (UP)—Carl Hubbell's signed contract for 1940 was on file in the New York Giants' office today.

President Horace Stoneham announced Hubbell, veteran of 13 years with the Giants, had signed at his own figure—cutting his own salary, reportedly from $22,500 to $15,000. He won 11 and lost nine last year.

Seattle, Oct. 21 (UP)—The man who works like a windmill, Henry Armstrong of Los Angeles, retained his world's welterweight boxing crown today by virtue of a technical knock-out over Ritchie Fountaine of Missoula, Mont.

Armstrong left little doubt of his superiority in battering the plucky Fountaine into a pulp in the three rounds their scheduled 15-round fight lasted last night.

The Dalles, Or., Oct. 21 (UP)—Oregon State Rooks, after being stymied for three quarters by a fighting Portland university freshman team, marched 80 yards to a touchdown in the closing minutes of the fray at Amotan field here last night. Harold Fox, line-shattering rook full-back, smashed through from the five-yard stripe for the score after Bill Sealey placed the ball deep in Portland's territory on a Cleverly-executed reverse.

GERMANS PLAN TRADE TREATY

Agreement With Soviet-Government Near

Hitler Sees Von Papen As Turkish Treaty Aftermath

Moscow, Oct. 21 (UP)—A new Soviet-German trade agreement will be announced soon, it was said today as members of a trade delegation which has been negotiating in Moscow prepared to return to Berlin tomorrow. It was said that an agreement in principle already has been reached.

Berlin, Oct. 21 (UP)—Fuehrer Adolf Hitler resumed conferences today with Baron Franz von Papen, his ambassador to Turkey, on German procedure to be followed as result of Turkey's action in signing a pact of mutual assistance with France and Britain.

It was expected that after another conference with Hitler Papen would return to Ankara with fresh instructions governing Germany's future relations with Turkey. Hitler, it was said, intends to consult Italy's Premier Benito Mussolini on the Ankara treaty as soon as he has completed an analysis of it.

Nothing has been revealed regarding Hitler's meetings with Papen, who returned to Berlin last night to report personally to the Fuehrer. Newspapers have not mentioned Papen's presence in Berlin.

May Delay Action

Reports were circulated that German-Italian consultations, handled by Hitler and Mussolini personally, would be started tomorrow. But it was believed that Hitler intended to study reports of his ambassadors at Rome, Moscow, and Ankara, Turkey, before he initiated formal negotiations with Mussolini.

Whatever else may happen, nazis said, it was certain that both Germany and Italy would press Turkey for a clarification of her attitude.

Hitler conferred for several hours yesterday with Baron Franz von Papen, his ambassador to Turkey, who hurried home as soon as it was made known that the three-power pact would be signed.

It was expected that Papen would start back to Turkey within a few days, with a number of specific questions drafted by Hitler for the Turkish government regarding its attitude toward Germany.

Hans Georg von Mackensen, ambassador to Rome, was expected to come here to report to Hitler, and it was believed that Count Friedrich von der Schulenburg might come from Moscow.

Exchange Views

Nazis disclosed, however, that intensive diplomatic exchanges already were being conducted with Italy and Russia on the potentialities of the Turkish-British-French pact.

Whatever the eventual effects of the pact, it had certainly angered nazis thoroughly. Responsible informants used such phrases as Turkey is "playing with fire" and Turkey is "abandoning neutrality."

Curiously, however, the same sources that showed frankly their resentment at the treaty, continued today to try to minimize its importance to the allies.

The authoritative diplomatic and political correspondence said that the western powers would gain nothing from the pact except the possibility of spreading war to the near east.

The well informed Hamburger Fremdenblatt argued that the treaty was really directed against Italy and Russia.

IN THIS CORNER WE HAVE . . .

. . . a fighting Lava Bear football team that dropped a battle last night to Albany, 6 to 0. Until the closing minutes of the game it seemed that the eleven-men would go, a pass was completed for approximately 30 yards, with the additional ten or twelve yards without a Bend obstacle, the Albany receiver easily stepped over for the necessary points to win the game. We predict a more determined Bend team will meet Medford next week . . . so lookout Medford!

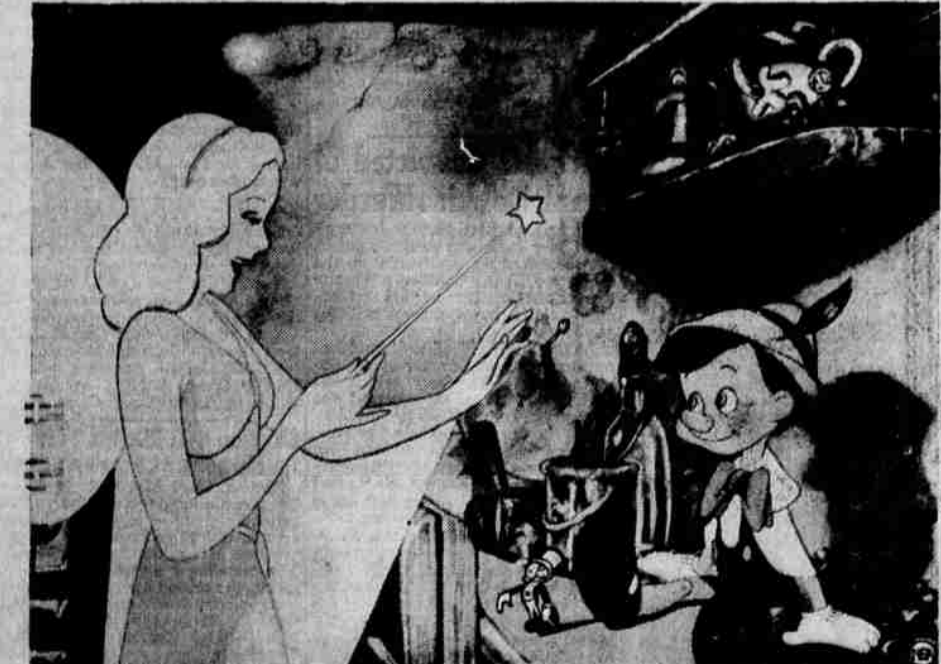

Who will be left in town tomorrow? Tom, Dick and Harry . . . and even Bill . . . are headed for their share of migratory fowl. Well, good luck fellows!
