

Madras

Madras, March 20 (Special)—Judge and Mrs. W. R. Cook were business visitors in Portland last Friday and Saturday.

Bob Wood, son of Floyd A. Wood, and Tom Brownhill, son of Mr. and Mrs. William Brownhill, arrived home Friday to spend the spring vacation with their parents. They are freshmen at the University of Oregon and made the trip from Eugene by way of the North Santiam highway.

Kenneth Conroy and Houston Hanno went to Eugene last Friday. They were accompanied home by Leonard Conroy, son of Mr. and Mrs. John Conroy, and Gerald Thomas, son of Mr. and Mrs. Nick Thomas, freshman at the University of Oregon, who plan to remain at home until the opening of the fall term before returning to school.

Frank Strangland and C. F. Klann were Redmond visitors Wednesday. The Rev. and Mrs. Ben Davis returned to Madras last week from Bakersfield, Cal., where Davis was recuperating from a severe illness. He is much improved in health and expects to carry on the work of his pastorate in the Madras and Metolius Methodist churches from now on, having conducted the services on Sunday.

The Rt. Rev. William P. Remington, bishop of Eastern Oregon, residing in Pendleton, assisted by Rev. G. R. V. Bolster of Bend, conducted services of confirmation and holy communion at St. Peter's Cross Keys Sunday afternoon. Bishop Remington delivered an inspiring sermon. Special music was a vocal solo, "The Palm," by Mrs. Oswald Quale. Easter services will be held next Sunday afternoon at 3:15 by the Rev. Bolster.

Homer Thomas, son of Mr. and Mrs. H. M. Thomas, freshman at the University of Oregon, arrived home Sunday to spend the spring vacation.

Students at Oregon State college home for spring vacation include Sybil Kennedy, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. C. M. Kennedy, and Bill Farrell, son of Mr. and Mrs. H. Ward Farrell. Those from Madras attending the district bridge given by Mrs. James Head of Culver last Monday included Mrs. H. A. Dussault, Mrs. Gladys Bone, Mrs. Carl Darrar, Mrs. W. H. Snook, and Mrs. Ralph Van Wert. From Gateway were Mrs. C. M. Kennedy and Mrs. J. W. Henry.

Students of the Madras union high school presented a half-hour program of solos, band and glee club numbers over radio station KBND Friday p. m. from 4 to 4:30. Norman Degner was master of ceremonies. Doris Lytle gave a short talk outlining the activities of the girls, and a summary of the boys' activities was given by Lynden Watts. Mrs. Lois Ward is girls' director and has charge of the girls' glee club. Leslie Carson directs the band.

"Spring Fever" is the three-act comedy selected for presentation by the senior class of the Madras high school, April 19. The cast includes Marian Disney, Ruth Mooring, Herbert Vibbert, Vernon Campbell, Albert Lierman, Elaine Percival, Nita Mae Wilson, Barbara Thomas, Doris Lytle and Verne Campbell.

Several cases of measles have been reported in Jefferson county during the past week. It is believed that the basketball team was exposed to the disease during the tournament in Prineville, as there were a number of cases in the Prineville school at that time.

Louis Ebert, theater operator of Portland, has purchased the lot lying immediately south of the First National bank building, and has begun the erection of a two-story, fire-proof building which is to be a modern theater. The Hart Building company of Redmond has the contract. Excavation of the basement is well under way, the work being done by Luelling brothers.

Bert W. Taylor of Moro has leased the community hall for a period of four weeks and operates a roller skating rink Thursday and Friday nights each week.

Kenneth W. Sawyer, county agent, and Mrs. C. M. Kennedy, 4-H club leader, went to Redmond Friday and Saturday to attend the 4-H club conference held for club leaders.

Arthur Sawyer, county agent of Harney county, spent Friday night visiting at the home of his brother, Kenneth W. Sawyer.

Mrs. Viola Gray was hostess to the Jefferson county garden club at her home last Wednesday afternoon. Mrs. W. R. Cook gave a talk on "Columbine and Its Growth."

Mrs. Bert Ware was hostess to the Ladies' Aid of the Methodist church at her home Friday afternoon. Mrs. Boyd Young of Lebanon visited her sister, Mrs. Bert Ware, on Tuesday and Thursday. Monday and Wednesday were spent in Redmond with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. W. E. Van Wert.

Mrs. Selma Trolan and son, Kenneth, were in Madras on business last Friday from their ranch in the Hay Creek section. The Wesleyan Service Guild met at the home of Mrs. Paul Jones Monday evening.

Mrs. Gladys Bone was hostess at a dinner party for 25 persons at the C. M. Kennedy home Wednesday evening. The dinner table was attractive with a centerpiece of pink roses in a crystal bowl with matching candlesticks and tall pink tapers. A group gathered about the piano before going home and enjoyed an hour's singing with Mrs. Truman Hofstetter at the piano. Present were Mr. and Mrs. H. A. Dussault, Mr. and Mrs. James Head, Mr. and Mrs. L. H. Irving, Mr. and Mrs. Ralph Van Wert, Mr. and Mrs. J. L. Shoythe, Mr. and Mrs. Truman Hofstetter, Mr. and Mrs. Fred Rodman, Mr. and Mrs. R. L. Vose, Mr. and Mrs. J. W. Henry, Mr. and Mrs. C. M. Kennedy, Mrs. Andrew Morrow, Mrs. W. H. Snook, Glen Whalen and Howard W. Turner.

Mrs. Bert Ware was hostess to the W. C. T. U. Wednesday afternoon.

North Redmond

North Redmond, March 20 (Special)—Mr. and Mrs. A. W. Barklow who have lived on the Down's place for the past two years have leased the Gus Bray place and moved to it.

Mrs. Laura Moore and Mrs. Ferguson went to Bend last Friday to see Mrs. Moore's daughter, Mrs. Paul Fox, who was in the Mayne nursing home.

Mr. and Mrs. W. F. Lady and Mr. and Mrs. C. K. Ferguson went to Prineville last Sunday to visit Glen Hutchinson who is in the Prineville hospital.

Victor Wiley, of Powell Butte, visited the Charles Wiley home Saturday afternoon.

J. L. Harrington repaired the C. J. Harrington home last week. Dorothy Wiley played over KBND at Bend Thursday in the girls' violin trio, which also included Carol Helmholz and Nadine Davenport. Shirley Harrington spent Saturday

Best Laid Plans of Boys

Also Go Astray, It Seems
Rockville, Conn. (AP)—The best laid plans of mice, men and little boys who don't obey their teacher oftentimes go astray.

Five youngsters who thought their teacher too stern, tried to "get even" by letting the air out of the tires on her auto. They were caught and turned over to their parents, who reported "appropriate" disposition of the cases.
