

LEFTY GROVE FAILS BOSTON

Red Sox Drop Tilt to Detroit Tigers

Cleveland Knocks Yanks Back Into Cellar By 10-2 Score

New York, May 21 (U.P.)—Ol' Mose hasn't got it any more. No matter how much lead the Boston Red Sox give Lefty Grove, he can't hold it. That's happened five times in succession now.

Grove's swan song may well have been that 2-hitter he pitched against Washington on opening day. It's doubtful if he'll ever go another 9-innings in one game.

Yesterday he had a 2-0 lead and a 6-3 lead over the Tigers but couldn't protect it.

When Grove left the game in the seventh the Red Sox led 7-6 and Ol' Mose has yet to be credited with a defeat. With Pinky Higgins going berserk at bat with three homers, the Tigers plastered a 10-7 licking on the Red Sox. Higgins drove in seven runs with his three homers, the last one winning the game. Jimmy Foxx hit homer No. 10 with the bases loaded.

Cleveland knocked the Yanks back into the cellar by thumping the world's champions, 10-2, enabling the Tribe to move within a game and a half of the league-leading Red Sox. Lefty Al Smith held the Yanks to one hit until the ninth when the Yanks escaped a shut-out as a result of Dickey's double which drove in two runs. Smith's 3-hitter was his second straight victory over the Yanks and his third win of the season.

In the other two American league games the Athletics trounced the Browns, 8-4, and moved into fourth place, while the White Sox left the cellar by defeating the Senators, 5-4. Frank Hayes hit two homers for the A's.

Cincinnati's pitching folded up and the usually feeble Reds slugged out a 13-4 victory over the Reds.

The Cubs, playing with a makeshift infield beat the Dodgers again, 6-4. It was Brooklyn's third straight loss.

Harry Danning hit a triple and homer and drove in five runs as the Giants beat the Cardinals, 6-4.

Scoring seven runs in the ninth, the Phils came from way back to beat the Pirates, 8-7.

Newby Wins Places in Pacific Track Meet

Jack Newby, son of Mr. and Mrs. John Newby of Bend and graduate from the Bend high school, won two first places for his school, Pacific university, at the Northwestern conference track and field meet in Walla Walla, Wash., last week-end. It has been learned here, Newby, competing against star athletes from nearly half a dozen northwestern colleges, placed first in the high hurdles and first in the high jump.

Another Bend boy, Herbert Francis, son of Mr. and Mrs. H. F. Francis of this city, took second in the 220-yard dash and third in the 100-yard dash. Only a split second separated Francis from the winner of the 220-yard dash and from the high point man in the century dash.

O. S. C. Wins Division Baseball Championship

Seattle, May 21 (U.P.)—Oregon State college clinched the baseball championship of the northern division, Pacific Coast conference, yesterday in edging out the University of Washington, 2-1.

Pitcher Glen Elliot of O.S.C. won his own game by clouting a triple in the eighth inning and scoring on an outfield fly.

With ten victories and only three defeats so far this season, the Beavers can't be caught. Even if they lose their two remaining games, the Beavers would still finish a game or two ahead of the University of Oregon or Washington State college, granting them victories in their next games.

Big Trout Prize Is Won by H. F. Francis

A four-pound, 12-ounce eastern brook trout caught by H. F. Francis in Big Lava lake won first prize in the first week of the Evans Fly company big fish contest, it was announced here today. The first week of the contest, to extend over the entire season, ended Sunday at midnight. Francis is to receive an all-steel tackle box. He will also be credited with points toward the season's grand prize.

Winner of second award this past week was Jackie Gulliford, who weighed in a four-pound, three-ounce eastern brook, caught in East lake. His prize is a trolling spoon, and also points toward the grand prize.

Keen interest was shown by anglers as the big trout contest opened and there were many entries.

Powell Butte Team Beats Shevlin, 12-8

The Powell Butte baseball team defeated Shevlin 12 to 8 in a game played Sunday on the Shevlin diamond as the loggers from the Lapine woods contributed 15 errors, believed to be a record for any Central Oregon team so far this season. Sleasman of Powell Butte was the hitting star of the game. He got four safe hits in five times up. Sleasman was also credited with five runs and five stolen bases. R. Gumpert and Strand of the loggers each got three hits in four times up. R. H. E. Powell Butte 12 11 15 Shevlin 8 12 15

McLemore's Sport Parade

(United Press Staff Correspondent)

By Henry McLemore
New York, May 21 (U.P.)—Charles S. Howard has at last learned that no man can keep on throwing sevens forever.

Into every life some snake eyes and box cars must fall. This time a year ago Howard was Midas in a tweed suit. Everything he touched around a race track brought him gold. Old line stables had been trying for years to win such races as the Santa Anita handicap, the Brooklyn, the Suburban, the Pimlico Special and other classic stakes. They couldn't believe that any one man—without so much as even a breeding farm of his own—could come up with three such horses as Seabiscuit, Kayak II and Sorteado.

Then, three months ago, when he added Mioland to his string for a paltry $15,000 and won $10,000 of the first week of the Evans Fly company big fish contest, it was announced here today. The first week of the contest, to extend over the entire season, ended Sunday at midnight. Francis is to receive an all-steel tackle box. He will also be credited with points toward the season's grand prize.

Winner of second award this past week was Jackie Gulliford, who weighed in a four-pound, three-ounce eastern brook, caught in East lake. His prize is a trolling spoon, and also points toward the grand prize.

Keen interest was shown by anglers as the big trout contest opened and there were many entries.

McLemore's Sport Parade

But things happen fast in racing and now Howard, who must have wondered why these things hadn't happened before, can realize the feeling of Alfred Vanderbilt when Adolphus was killed in a fall; how William Ziegler, Jr., was affected when El Chico stumbled and had to be destroyed; how J. H. Louchain grieved when Pompon died suddenly of a rare intestinal ailment, and how J. A. Manfuso suffered when his Kentucky was burned to death in a fire in Kentucky a month ago.

Howard first felt the bad fortunes of racing luck when his Argentine Amber, Sorteado, broke a suspensory ligament in New York just a week after he had run to a new American record for a mile and a half.

But when Seabiscuit was sent into retirement after winning the last Santa Anita, Howard still had a double-barreled threat in Kayak II and Mioland. The former, four-year-old champion of 1939, had been entered for almost every outstanding stake in the east and the west this season, and despite his defeat by Challeon last November he looked like a good bid for the title of "horse of the year."

Today Kayak is sick and ailing in a barn at Pimlico and he won't run for at least two more months, if then. He developed a sudden cough and fever, and Howard was forced to declare him from such races as the Brooklyn and suburban handicaps.

With Kayak's sickness the once invincible stable was cut to a single horse—Mioland, who had won the San Juan Capistrano, run fourth in the Kentucky Derby and second in the Preakness before ever reaching his top form. Today he is gone, too, at least until 1941.

Howard sadly announced that yesterday. He said the stretch-running son of an imported German sire had bolted while working out at Pimlico, thrown his exercise boy and then stumbled on a concrete walk. Howard did not detail the colt's injuries, but he did say that "he was badly hurt and can not be sent to the post again this season."

Now the San Franciscan hasn't a single top flight horse in a year when any good thoroughbred could make a lot of money and a lasting reputation. Bismelch has been beaten twice—both times by horses not rated the equal of Mioland. Challeon won't be back to the races in the handicap division until late summer at least and Kayak's only opposition there would be Eight Thirty.

So the man who walks up to a mutual window isn't the only gambler in racing, after all.

Dog Collector Extends Work, Even to Skunks

Lackawanna, N. Y. (U.P.)—Ferdinand Catzwa may be the official dog catcher of this city, but his annual report, filed recently, proves that he isn't particular as long as his quarry has four feet.

His report credits him with "collecting" 217 cats, one goat, three pigs, one fox, nine skunks, five rabbits, in addition to 423 dogs.

COAST LEAGUE TEAMS ON MOVE

San Diego to Meet Seals, Hollywood at Portland

(By United Press)
The San Diego Padres, fighting to retain their half-game leadership in the Pacific Coast league, run into a bit of luck this week when the schedule pits them against the skidding San Francisco Seals, while the second-place Oakland club goes to Seattle to face the Rainiers, just two and a half games out of first place.

Hollywood, which squeezed into fourth place by taking the Seals for a sleigh ride last week, goes to Portland to face the last place Beavers while Sacramento and Los Angeles, in sixth and seventh place respectively, meet in the Angel city.

Johnny Moore, of Los Angeles, with an average of .420, moved into first place among the league's hitters, closely followed by Mike Christoff of Oakland, who is batting .414.

Dick Newsome of San Diego tops the regular pitchers with seven victories and one defeat, followed by Dick Barrett, Seattle, with five wins and one beating.

Branding Day Held at Ranch Near Deschutes

Sixty-four thoroughbred horses were branded Sunday at a branding day on the Faye and Kay ranch near Deschutes, during which more than 20 Bend horsemen assisted in range and corral operations.

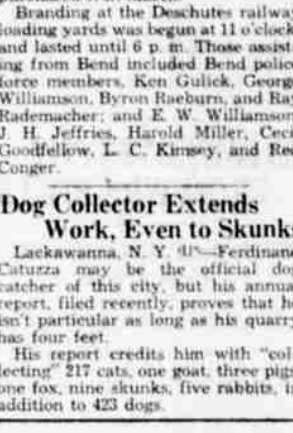

The horses, most of them three-quarter hot blood and one-quarter pinto, make up most of the herd of 76 horses with which Faye and Kay Hubbard have stocked their Deschutes ranch, known as the O'Donnell ranch before the eastern couple purchased it in March.
