

HONKERS WIN BY ONE POINT

Bend Loses First of Series, 28-27

Four Men Each Score 8 Points to Tie for Honors

Lakeview's Honkers proved one point too tough for Bend high school's basketball team last night, beating the Bears 28 to 27 on the local floor in the first of a two-game series.

It was three and a half minutes after the start of the game that Eby scored a field goal to give Bend an opening lead of two points. Field goals by Murphy and Douglas and a foul shot by Ferneau extended the lead to 7-1 during the first quarter.

The Honkers sank a barrage of shots during the second quarter that netted them 11 points, while field goals by Eby and Mosen raised Bend's score only four points. Halftime found the Lakeview team leading 12-11.

In the third period the southern team boosted its lead to 21 to 17. Eby and Douglas opened the fourth period with a field goal apiece that tied the score at 21 to 21. Lovenberg broke the tie with a foul shot, putting Lakeview in the lead again. Eby came back to put Bend in the lead for the first time since the start of the game, 23 to 22. J. Barry sank a field goal and the lead changed again, followed by a howitzer by Ferneau from far out on the floor which put the Bears ahead, 25 to 24.

Lovenberg and D. Barry sank two field goals in rapid order to give Lakeview a three-point advantage, 28-25. Douglas made a pivot shot from the keyhole to cut the Honkers' lead to 28-27, with less than a minute to play.

The last minute found Lakeview protecting its lead by passing the ball around the back court while the clock rolled away the final seconds. Twice Bend men fouled in lunging for the ball, but both times Lakeview chose to keep possession of the ball rather than risk a foul shot and possible loss of possession when a long Bend shot might switch the lead again.

Four men were tied for scoring honors. Lovenberg and Price of Lakeview each ran up eight points, while Eby and Douglas did the same for Bend. Price, diminutive Lakeview guard, proved the star for his team, hawking the ball from Bend men a dozen or more times.

The two teams will meet again tonight at 8 o'clock.

In the preliminary game the Bend junior high team swamped the Sisters youngsters 18 to 0.

WHY MOTHERS GET GRAY

By J. R. Williams

McLemore's Sport Parade

(United Press Staff Correspondent)

By Henry McLemore
 Los Angeles, Dec. 21 (AP)—Which should a man hold more dear, a sheepskin or a pigskin?

Is cap and gown more sacred than a double-breasted business suit?

Where does loyalty leave off and earning a living begin?

If you know the answer to these questions please contact Bernie Masterson at the Riviera Country Club, Santa Monica, Calif., because he is wrestling with this problem, night and day.

Here, in brief, is the story of Bernie:

In the years 1931, 1932 and 1933 he was a star football player for the University of Nebraska, and from the moment he stuck on his freshman cap until the day he tore off his football helmet after the final game, he was a loyal, devoted son of Nebraska.

Upon graduation he joined with the Chicago Bears of the National Football League as a quarterback. He is still with them, and in his head carries more information about the T formation of offense than any man.

Early last spring Clark Shaughnessy, deciding to install the T formation at Stanford, employed Masterson to journey to Palo Alto and help instruct the Indians in the intricacies of the T rigamarole. Bernie worked long and hard with the Stanfords. Just as he had labored with Sid Luckman, young Bears' quarterback, so did he work with Frankie Albert, the Stanford signal caller. He taught so thoroughly that Stanford went the season without a defeat and was automatically chosen to represent the west in the Rose Bowl. The bewildering T formation was credited with the success of the Indians.

Then Nebraska, Bernie's alma mater, was selected to oppose Stanford in the Rose Bowl.

Now Bernie, here for the Bears' game tomorrow, sits sadly on the porch of the Riviera club and bemoans the fate of a man caught in the middle. On one side of him is the team of the school he loves, and the other is the team he is proud of, as a master is proud of a prize pupil.

If Stanford licks Nebraska the T formation he helped teach the Indians will be largely responsible. If Nebraska defeats Stanford he will feel as if there were something wrong with his instruction.

He is hoping for a scoreless tie, or a tie of some sort.

He told me so himself.

"This is the devil of a predicament," he explained. "A fellow

Zivic-Jenkins Fight To Draw at New York

New York, Dec. 21 (AP)—Maybe it was just the spirit of Christmas, but last evening for the first time in the memory of man everybody left Madison Square Garden happy.

Nobody lost a bet.

Nobody lost the fight.

The 16,948 customers were convinced they had got their money's worth.

Promoter Mike Jacobs clacked his store teeth in glee as $51,019 clicked into the till.

Welterweight Champion Fritz Zivic and Lightweight Champion Lew Jenkins, who fought a rough, tough 10-round draw, picked up nice purses.

None of the three officials—two judges and the referee—scored the fight the same way. This war correspondent after a careful audit of blows struck and received, decided that Jenkins won five rounds, Zivic four and one was even.

Zivic was smarter and Jenkins hit harder. There were no knock-downs and neither man ever was in serious trouble although Jenkins gave out quite a plastering in the sixth when he stepped back and fired away with his right.

O. S. C. in Finals at Denver Tournament

Denver, Dec. 21 (AP)—Oregon State's basketball team required an overtime period last night to subdue an expected inferior Colorado college team, 42-36, in the feature game of the second session of a three-day collegiate basketball tournament.

Colorado college trailed all the way, but Worth Stimits and his teammates staged a great second-half rally to tie the score at 36-36 at the end of the regular playing time.

John Mandic, O. S. C. center, and Clayton Shaw dropped in the three overtime field goals to clinch Oregon State's second straight victory in the tournament.

Mandic scored 14 points for high honors, and Stimits had nine.

Oregon State and Denver, only two undefeated teams of the six entered in the round-robin event, played the feature game of the concluding show tonight.

TITLE GRID SQUAD GUESTS AT DANCE

Bend's 1940 high school football champions of Oregon, last night were paid another tribute for their sportsmanship and prowess when they were guests of the Pilot Butte Inn at an informal program dance in the spacious inn.

The young champions and their invited guests, including Coaches Joe Houston and Hank Nilsen, danced to the music of an eight-piece orchestra, that of Bud Russell and his "swingsters," partook of refreshments and joined in eating a huge "championship cake."

Across the big cake, in candel letters, were the compliments of the Pilot Butte Inn to the state champions. It was Coach Huston who was called on to cut the cake, and this he did first by slicing the appetizing rectangle into a gridiron, carefully marked off in five and ten-yard stripes. This primary cutting completed, Coach Huston cut the cake into squares. A smorgasbord was prepared by the management, and fruit juice punch was served.

Intermingling with the high school students were a group of "olders" of the community, including a number who in another generation had danced to the strains of "Red Wing" and the "Missouri Waltz." These adults had some difficulties in attempting the steps of the new generation, but "a good time was had by all."

Every member of the 1940 championship squad but one, Glen Isham, were present for the championship dance. The big dance hall was comfortably filled by the gridmen and their guests.

Players present were Bill Eby, Willard Ferneau, Sherman Nicar, Jim Byers, George Chambers, Pat Metke, Jack Chambers, John Anderson, Dick Cooper Erwin Morley, Ted Meland, Bill Murphy, Anton Klobas, Lowell Wing, Jack Fuls, Robert Powell, Gene Gillis, Lawrence Valley and Harry Peterson. Not only did the boys have their "best girls" out for the dance, but in a number of instances the grid stars brought their parents.

Autograph hunters had a fine evening, securing the names of members of the state championship team. These were written on programs.

Funeral Arrangements For Dead Airmen Made

March Field, Cal., Dec. 21 (AP)—High mass was held at Riverside today for First Lieutenant Donald T. Ward, one of the six victims of the crash of an army flying fortress bomber on Marion mountain last Wednesday.

The remains of First Lieut. Vernon McCauley will be sent to The Dalles, Ore., for funeral services and interment. First Lieutenant J. H. Turner's body will be sent to his home in Corning, Ia., for services and burial, and Corporal Frank J. Jirak's body will be sent to Astoria, Ore.

Other arrangements for the two other occupants to the ill-fated bomber, Staff Sergeant Thomas F. Sweet and Private James C. Sessions, have not yet been completed.

SHOE SHINING TAUGHT

Cleveland, O., (AP)—Members of the Brush and Buffers club of the Cleveland Y. M. C. A. go through a "study course" in the art of shoe shining, and then set out to earn their Y. M. C. A. membership fees, summer camp expenses or candy and motion picture money.

Phelan Hired Again To Coach Washington

Seattle, Dec. 21 (AP)—Coach Jimmy Phelan of the University of Washington, has been appointed to his 12th season as head football coach, Ray L. Eckmann, director of athletics, said today.

Phelan, who is not under contract, will serve until March, 1942. Salary terms were not announced. The Washington team won seven of nine games the past season, losing only to Minnesota and Stanford.
