

TITLE DEPENDS ON TWO GAMES

Burns Needs Only One Of Contests

Bend Must Win Both to Gain Right to Play Klamath Falls

Burns high school, victor over Prineville's Cowboys last weekend in two games, will come to Bend today for the first of two games that will determine the sub-district championship and determine the team that is to meet Klamath Falls in the district finals. Tonight's game between Bend and Burns will start at 8 o'clock. The contest tomorrow night will get under way at 8:30 p. m. There will be preliminaries both evenings.

Tonight's game and that of Saturday night are regularly scheduled games for the Bears, the last of the 1940-41 season. The games were advanced to the championship status by virtue of the Harney county team's double win over Prineville last week, at a time when it appeared that the Cowboys were headed down the trail for at least a district championship after having soundly whipped the Bears of Bend the previous week.

Burns won its first game from Prineville 30 to 28, in three overtime periods. The Harney boys won their second contest by a score of 19 to 15.

The Harney wins from the Cowboys make the Burns team a favorite over the Bears tonight and tomorrow night.

Burns needs only one win over Bend to clinch the sub-district championship. Bend must win tonight and tomorrow night to keep in the running.

Coach Hank Nilsen plans to start against Burns tonight the same team that made such a good showing against The Dalles last Saturday night. After being out maneuvered, outshot and otherwise outplayed last Friday night, the Bears on Saturday night came back to give The Dalles a great battle—one of the hardest played games seen on the Bend court this year.

Burns today will send to Bend a rather small team, with one exception, a big center named Mundy. Tonight at center, Mundy will face an old schoolmate at Hines, Sherman Ncar. These two boys played together in grade school.

Fenske Drops From A.A.U. Track Meet

New York, Feb. 21 (AP)—Withdrawal of Chuck Fenske, 1940 champion, from the mile in the national indoor A. A. U. track and field championships in Madison Square Garden Saturday night, put the spotlight on the three-mile division today.

Fenske, unable to win a mile start this season, dropped out with three laps to go in the N. Y. A. C. games last week, and wrote A. A. U. Secretary Dan Ferris that he would be unable to compete this week because of illness.

"Constant colds have gradually reduced my resistance until it now is at low ebb," Fenske wrote.

That leaves the three-mile affair with Greg Rice, pint-sized Notre Dame record-holder, and his perennial rival, Don Lash, Indiana state policeman and the chief entrants, as the outstanding event of the A. A. U. meet.

P.G.A. Golf Tourney Scheduled for Denver

Denver, Feb. 21 (AP)—Because the P.G.A. golf tournament features match play rather than medal play, Denver's Cherry Hills country club course probably won't be "toughened up" for the event, Ralph Arnold, club pro and association member, predicted today.

"The relative toughness of the course doesn't make nearly so much difference in the match play game," he said. "I don't think many changes—other than possibly 'roughing' up the rough a little more, will be made."

The 1941 P. G. A. tournament, awarded to Denver yesterday, will be held at Cherry Hills from July 7 to 13. Regional qualifying rounds will send about 130 competitors to the event.

By Henry McLemore

Los Angeles, Feb. 21 (AP)—If I had a three-cent stamp, and a mail box was at hand, I'd write a personal letter to James Joy (Boy Bandit) Johnston and tell him to keep his boy Bob Pastor at home.

But being stampless and mailboxless I'll have to trust that James Joy Johnston will see this in some paper and heed my warning. My warning to him is this: Do not sent Pastor out here to fight Albert (Turkey) Thompson. The match has been tentatively arranged, I understand. As I get it, a local promoter attempted to palm off Joe Louis and Pastor on the citizens of this area, only to have the California boxing commission, headed by Jerry Giesler, tell him something like this:

"That one we don't want. Louis has licked Pastor twice, and while Robert lasted 10 rounds and 11 rounds, respectively, he lasted only because he gave a one-man demonstration of a six-day bike race. We are not interested in seeing Louis lick Pastor a third time and gain permanent possession. At a matter of fact, we have a young colored boy in these parts named Turkey Thompson. He is our California heavyweight champion. Let Pastor fight him with the stipulation that the winner is to meet Louis."

The promoter took this advice to heart and called Jimmy Johnston in New York. In his retreat just beneath the clock in the Paramount building, Johnston accepted. Being a friend of Jimmy's, and knowing that Pastor is his principal meal ticket, and that he depends a great deal on this cut of what Pastor makes to keep him in Chinese tea and walnut walking cases, I want to tell him to turn down the match.

I have seen Turkey Thompson fight. Thompson gets his nickname, incidentally from his eating prowess. He is a great right and left eater. He once was locked in a grocery store and ate his way out, starting in the canned corn department and continuing through the delicatessen department. He wound up eating three boiled turkeys that stood in his path.

But he fights better than he eats. As good as his left is with a fork in it, it is better with a glove on it. As deadly as his right is with a knife in it, it is more formidable when swung from the floor and covered with padding.

There was a time when Pastor could have beaten Thompson, because Turkey still is green and a bit shy when faced by a ranking opponent, but Pastor proved in the Billy Conn bout that he was through as the tandem pogo stick.

JUNIORS LOSE TO FACULTY QUINTET

Teachers Have Trouble in Controlling Pupils

A new constellation of basketball luminaries appeared in the Bend sports firmament yesterday at the high school gymnasium. The "Faculty Flashes," under the masterful tutelage of Coach Howard "The Brain" George, established themselves as a team to be reckoned with before any mythical "state championship" is claimed, by defeating the high school juniors, champions of the intramural tournament, 40 to 36.

Only one did the juniors threaten, and that was in the last quarter, when they snatched a 34-32 lead from the faculty's second team. Coach George immediately sent in his starting lineup, who recovered command of the play.

Oliver "Twist" Raikko, former Monmouth normal star, led the faculty with 20 points, followed by James "Busher" Bushong, with 11. Bushong spent most of the game lurking under the opposing team's basket, and caging baskets when the ball was heaved the length of the floor to him by one of his teammates. This play was only one of several unorthodox innovations made by Coach George.

It was only when the first team of Raikko, Bushong, "Honest Paul" Cammack, "Hurricane Henry" Nilsen, and "Little Joe" Huston was yanked that the juniors could make a showing. Then they piled up 14 points to none for the faculty against the doubtful opposition of "What Price" Burlingame, the invisible man, "Half-Bear Homer" Waltz, George "Lemon" Peal, Seaton "Snatch" Smith, and Eugene Clarke.

Having hurdled their first obstacle, the Faculty Flashes now challenge any high school faculty of Central Oregon to a duel of baskets. The lineups for yesterday's game follow:

Faculty (40) (36) Juniors
Nilsen (6) F (12) Kibbas
Raikko (20) F (6) Brentano
Bushong (11) C (6) Wing
Cammack (2) G (3) M-Land
Huston (1) G (6) Dyck

Substitutions for the faculty, Waltz, Burlingame, Smith, Clarke, and Peal; for the juniors, Anderson.

Webb and Tucker to Seek Conn's Crown

New York, Feb. 21 (AP)—Jimmy Webb of St. Louis and Tommy Tucker of New York, outstanding young light heavyweights, battle 15 rounds tonight at Madison Square Garden in the opening of an elimination to determine champion Billy Conn's successor.

Price-maker Eddie Borden quoted Webb the 11-to-10 favorite in surprisingly heavy betting. Conn soon will give up his 175-pound crown, in accordance with the New York commission's rule, because he is matched for a heavyweight title tilt with Joe Louis in June—probably at Yankee stadium.

Tonight's winner will meet the victor of a bout between Anton Christoforidis of Greece and Gas Lesnevich of New Jersey, slated for the garden May 2. Christoforidis is recognized as titleholder by the National Boxing association. The ultimate survivor will be recognized as undisputed world champion.

Bearded Aces Defeat Two Prineville Teams

Prineville, Feb. 21 (Special)—The Bearded Aces basketball team scored over the Pine Products and McClain's Maidrite teams by a score of 37 to 28 Wednesday evening at the Prineville gymnasium.

The first half of the game the Aces played against the Pine Products players with the score at the half 23 to 9 in the bearded men's favor. The second half of the game McClain's Maidrite boys finished the battle.

BUCKS LEAVE CELLAR

Portland, Feb. 21 (AP)—The Portland ice hockey team came out of the cellar to knock off the Seattle Olympics in a Pacific coast ice hockey league game last night, 8-6, before 2,000 fans.
