

CITY AWAITING PARKING SIGNS

Extension of One-Hour Zone to Be Made

Metal Markers Delayed by Congestion at Factories

Bend's one-hour parking zones will be extended the latter part of this month, just as soon as metal signs, ordered many weeks ago, reach here, it was announced from the office of C. G. Reiter, city manager, today. Receipts of the metal signs has been delayed, due to the inability of factories, rushed with defense orders, to handle small special orders.

Reiter this week received a letter from the firm that finally accepted the order stating that the signs should be here by May 25.

First extensions of the one-hour zones to be marked will be Wall street from Franklin south to Louisiana and Wall north from the Greenwood intersection east the Pilot Butte Inn and Eddie's Sales and Service plant to the Bond street junction. It has been indicated that other streets will later be designated and signed if it is decided that additional space is required.

In recent weeks, officers have been making a close check on parking in Bend, studying areas of congestion. Officers point out that even on rush days there is still plenty of space available in the free parking lots. However, it has been noticed by officers that there has been an increasing use of these lots.

It is anticipated that the placing of that part of Wall street south past the postoffice in the one hour zone will result in a greatly increased use of the two parking lots south of Franklin, one at the rear of the police station and the other just south of the Hippodrome.

Officers report that their routine check of cars at various times yesterday resulted in only two tickets for local motorists.

Maternity Bill Is Paid With Too Many Nickels

Reading, Pa. (AP)—When Charles Weber went to St. Joseph's hospital to see his wife and their new baby, he first walked to the cashier's window and plunked a bag full of change on the counter.

"There's $40 there," he told Sister Beatrice Gerard. Then he went upstairs to see his wife.

For half an hour attendants counted the nickels and found that there was one too many. When Weber returned for his receipt, the sister called it to his attention. "You were one nickel over," she said.

"Thank you," said Weber, pocketing the coin.

Hudson Motor Strike Reported Near End Snyder Is Speaker at Silver Lake Exercises

(By United Press) The Hudson Motor Co. and the United Automobile Workers union (CIO) accepted a proposal today ending a six-day strike, but machinists who halted production at 11 west coast shipyards rejected a formula to settle their wage dispute.

At Detroit, Federal Conciliator James F. Dewey, announced an agreement had been reached by Hudson and the UAW but withheld its provisions pending union ratification. It was believed the 6500 strikers may return to work tomorrow. Hudson has $30,000,000 in defense contracts.

The Pacific coast shipyard workers defied a "back to work" movement in rejecting the proposal submitted to them.

Telephone Convention Is Shifted to Portland

Redmond, May 21—The annual convention of the Oregon Independent Telephone association, originally slated for Redmond will be held in Portland instead, according to T. J. Wells, manager of the Northwest Telephone company. Date for the convention, June 16, remains unchanged.

Wells said that because of the rush of national defense work prominent speakers scheduled to address the convention had found it difficult to make the Redmond trip.

Wanta Bomb Shelter? $100 for This One

The West Coast's first commercially produced air raid shelter is this steeply pitched concrete affair being produced by a North Hollywood, Calif., concern. It sells for about $100, goes up in 48 hours and can readily be adapted for mass production.

College Student Dies In Fall While Talking

San Jose, Cal., May 21 (AP)—Robert M. Luger, Seattle, a student at the Alma Jesuit college, fainted and fell against a radiator while making a speech last night, suffering a fractured skull from which he died almost instantly. He was 27.

Luger was addressing fellow students at the college near here when he collapsed. The coroner's office reported that he suffered a skull fracture and broke two vertebrae when his head struck the radiator.

The body was taken to the Place undertaking parlor, Los Gatos.

Old Caesar Rodney Farm To Be Sold at Auction

Byfields, Del. (AP)—A section of the once great plantation of Caesar Rodney, signer of the Declaration of Independence from Delaware, is to be sold at public auction in accordance with the will of the owner.

The present farm of 106 acres, includes the birthplace of the revolutionary figure, but according to records, the original home was torn down and a frame farmhouse erected in later years.

It was there that Rodney spent his boyhood before going to Philadelphia in 1776, and he was buried on the family plot. Later burial was at Christ church graveyard, Dover.

ALWAYS IN GOOD COMPANY

Some products are so highly thought of that everywhere you go you see them—and always in good company.

Olympia Beer is like that. This mild, flavorful beer is popular everywhere throughout the West, Alaska and Hawaii—in homes, cafes, dining cars, clubs and at authorized Olympia Draft Dispensers.

Many things account for the public's very high esteem for Olympia. Its rare flavor and mild quality come from use of premium quality ingredients, and perfection in the brewing art attained with the waters from our subterranean wells. Olympia commends itself as a light beer for temperate enjoyment. Buy it by the case.
