Bridal Couple Returns From Wedding Trip

Mr. and Mrs. Wilbur Lee Sholes (Irene Eleanor Vaughn) have returned from a honeymoon trip to Oregon and Washington points, and will make their home on Columbia street. They were married August 16 at 2 p. m., in the St. Francis Catholic rectory, with Rev. Edmund Hyland officiating.

Only relatives and close friends of the couple witnessed the informal double-ring ceremony, which was followed by a reception for about 60 guests, in the Catholic parish hall.

The bride wore a cutaway suit in light blue, with white accessories and a white carnation corsage. She carried a white Bible which had been her grandmother's. Her only attendant was Miss Johanne Goodwin, who wore a grey dressmaker suit, with black accessories and a corsage of red roses. Wayne Saunders acted as best man. S. T. Vaughn gave his daughter in marriage.

At the reception which followed the ceremony, Mrs. H. Smart and Mary H. Marple, aunts of the bride, and Miss Jane Stuber, a cousin, all from Portland, assisted with the serving, as did Mrs. A. R. Cothrell, of Bend. The bride's table was centered with the beautifully-decorated wedding cake, encircled with a wreath-like arrangement of gladioli, in shades of pink and fuchsia. Candelabra held white tapers, and large mixed bouquets were placed about the room. Other guests from out-of-town included the bride's uncle, William Vaughn, of Libby, Mont.; her cousins, Mr. and Mrs. R. McCollum, of Libby, and Mr. and
