Gar Wood Stock Is Market Leader

New York, Aug. 26 (AP)—Strength in common and preferred stocks of Gar Wood Industries featured an otherwise irregular decline in the stock market today.

Buying came into Gar Wood issues on news that Edward F. Fisher—one of the famous Detroit Fisher brothers of General Motors—has plans to purchase a $1,500,000 block of convertible 5-year notes of the company. This news was interpreted as the first move by the brothers—who severed all official connections but one with the G-M several years ago—to return to the automotive field where they made history as founders of the Fisher Body company.

The common rose to 6 1/2, up 1 1/2, then receded to 5 1/2, while the preferred hit a high of 30 3/4, up 3 1/2. Pacific Telephone was another individual strong spot, recovering nearly 3 points after yesterday's break. The stock cracked Monday when it was announced that the next dividend would be omitted.
