

7 Year Old Girl Project Winner

Seven-year-old Valerie Nelson, who will enter the third grade this fall, was awarded $2.50 in war stamps this afternoon at the public library for leading in the girl's division of the first reading project, which ended Saturday. Valerie read 35 books in the three weeks, and Beverly Christenson, runner-up, was awarded a special prize of $1 by Miss Edith Brown, children's librarian, for reading 32 books.

In the boys' division, two are tied for first place with 11 books each—Larry Wolfe and Walter Prichard; Miss Eleanor Brown, county librarian, and Miss Edith Brown has announced that a special project this week will play off the tie to decide the winner. The first prizes were donated by the Consumers' Gas company.

Following are the children who are eligible to attend the party in Drake park to be held at the conclusion of the next contest, which starts Monday: Elsie Acree, Cecil and Donald Bland, Beverly Christenson, June and Lois Clark, Barbara Cobban, Priscilla Dahlman, Beverly Elkstead, Norma Jean Hilliard, Darlene and Louis Hince, Judith Hustad, Diane Heiser, Larry Kribs, Joleen Motley, Valeria Nelson, Gloria Norcott, Sara Officer, Walter Prichard, Barbara Revell, Edri Sweat, Marilyn Walter and Larry Wolfe.

There were nearly 90 young readers entered in the first contest, and it is hoped that many of them will join those who plan to register for the second contest through this week. Miss Brown stated that some arrangement will be made so that no tie for first place will occur in the coming contest.

Mrs. Robert Fox Taken by Death

Mrs. Anna E. Fox, 71, wife of Postmaster Robert H. Fox, died Saturday evening in St. Charles hospital following an illness of a little over a week.

Mrs. Fox was taken to the hospital a week ago Friday and remained in a coma until the time of her death.

She was born in Modum, Norway, April 22, 1872, and came to Wisconsin when she was 18 years old. In 1899 she went to Alaska. She was married to Fox on December 12, 1905, in Candle, Alaska. They came to Bend in November, 1912, and made their home here since that time.

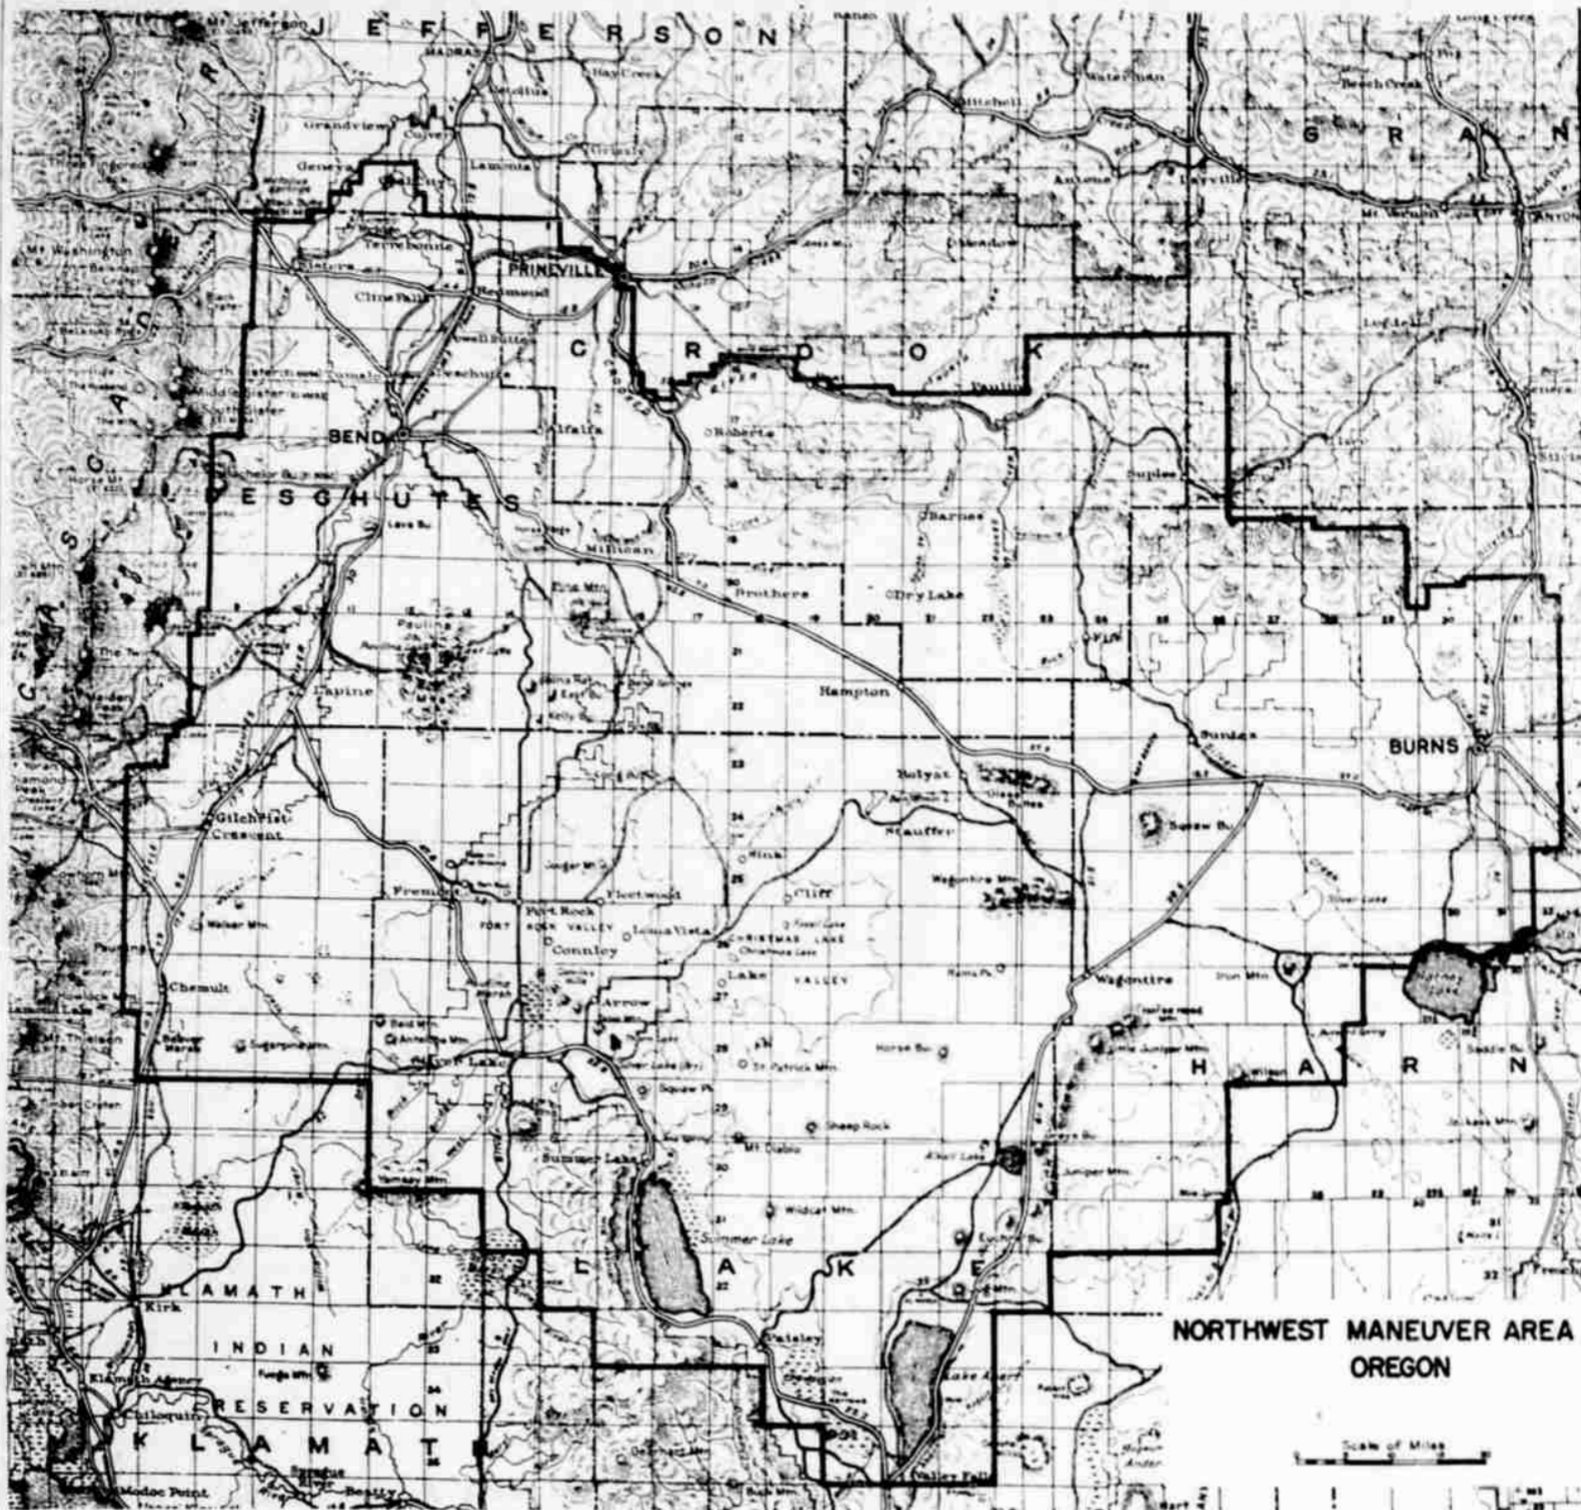

Children Survive
In addition to her husband, Mrs. Fox is survived by a son, Sgt. Robert Fox, Jr., who is stationed with the air force in Central America, and a daughter, Mrs. Edna Roats, of Bend. Surviving brothers and sisters are: Antone Fossen, Bend; John Fossen, Wau-pin, Wis.; Chris Fossen, South Pasadena; Mrs. Olga Rude, Minneapolis, and Mrs. Gena Kausrud, Los Angeles.

Mrs. Fox was a member of the Lutheran church.

Funeral services will be held at 2 o'clock Tuesday from the Niswonger and Winslow chapel with Rev. Morris Thompson in charge. Burial will be in Pilot Butte cemetery.

In addition to the two pairs of shoes issued every American soldier on entering the service, three extra pairs must be available in reserve, and two more pairs in process of manufacture.

Scene of War-Time Maneuvers by Northwest Forces This Year

The heavy black line on the above map marks the boundary of a maneuver area of approximately 10,000 sq. miles now being set up by the army for use beginning July 1. It has been announced that more than 5,000 troops will take part in maneuvers this year. Land from Deschutes, Jefferson, Crook, Lake, Harney, Grant and Klamath counties is included.

Nazis Say Subs 'Mushrooming'

As the Allies announced that we're sinking enemy submarines faster than ever, Germany attempted to bolster some morale by publishing this photo of the launching of a new U-boat. The Nazi caption on the picture compared production of their undersea craft to "mushrooms" sprouting from the earth as result of mass production technique. Photo received through neutral source and radioed blockhouse-New York.

DAV Elects Bend Couple to State Offices

Moving of Japanese in internment camps from the three western states and placing the Japanese under army guard instead of civilian guard was asked in a resolution at the annual convention of Disabled American Veterans at Portland Friday, according to Bend veterans, who attended. The convention was cut to one day this year.

Included in the program was a dinner for life members. Wheaton W. Huntley of Bend was installed as junior vice commander and Mrs. Huntley was installed as senior vice commander of the auxiliary.

Attending from Bend were William Baer, Dr. and Mrs. Roy Reynolds, Mrs. Eva Axtell and Mr. and Mrs. Huntley.

Fred Vance, Wife, Buy Allen's Cafe

Mr. and Mrs. Fred Vance of Longview, Wash., have purchased Allen's cafe from Mrs. Charles S. Allen who, with the late Mr. Allen, operated the eating establishment for the past ten years. Mr. and Mrs. Vance, connected with the restaurant business for some time in Longview, said this morning that they plan to continue the "same, high quality service established by the Allens, and we welcome both old and new patronage."

The restaurant will continue to be known as Allen's cafe, and the same staff has been retained by the new owners. The former schedule, 5:30 a.m. to midnight every day except Monday, will also be continued. Consideration for the sale was $16,000.

Pounding Pantelleria

Sweeping down on Pantelleria, two Boston bombers of the South African air force drop another basket of deadly eggs on that pummeled Mediterranean island. Black smoke spots two oil fires set by the bombs, while other smoke obscures the landing field. Below planes are entrances to two of Pantelleria's famed underground hangars.

Here's How We Landed at Attu

Plenty of troops, ships and landing barges were needed for the U. S. attack on Attu. On the troop-jammed decks of a vessel in the Aleutian convoy, left, the landing barges are lined up for a quick offensive. After destination is reached, the barges are slung overside through the protecting blanket of fog. Then troops board them via net-ladders and head for the beach. (U. S. Navy Photo From NEA)

WAR-WORKING WOMEN MUST RELY ON THEIR NEWSPAPERS

Women at work in the war have no time to throw away. Longer hours in office or factory ... or days devoted to voluntary war work ... mean less time for housekeeping, less time for shopping. Buying has to be planned far more carefully. That's why today, as never before, women are relying on their newspapers as a daily buying guide ... shopping from the ads ... yours and your manufacturers'.
