Chamber Holds Lunch Session

Redmond, Jan. 13.—The Redmon chamber of commerce held its luncheon meeting in the banquet room of the Redmond hotel, Tuesday noon. Twenty-nine members were in attendance at the meeting. This was the first meeting for the new year with the president, Marion Coyner in the chair as presiding officer. Mrs.
 Jay Shively, the newly elected secretary, announced that the club will meet each Tuesday noon in the banquet room, for luncheon and regular business meeting, as was the custom for many years and until the coffee shop was closed a number of months ago.

Other officers in the chamber of commerce for the new year are Lloyd V. Baker, first vice president and C. E. Weed, second vice president.

 two officers, members of the Bend Aerie, Fraternal Order of Eagles, are scheduled to meet tonight at their hall, W. M. Loy, worthy president, announced. William White was slated to be installed as vice president, and George Tickner as chaplain.

Besides Loy, other officers are Ray Curtis, worthy past president; Charles Giltner, conductor; Henry Crosswhite, inside guard; Rex Allingham, secretary; Dan Zelik, treasurer, and trustees Guy Millard, Harry O'Grady and Frank Fley.

In announcing the meeting for tonight, Loy also revealed that the local Eagles have been complimented by State President John Bennett for outstanding enlistment of members.

Immunization Clinic Date Set

Only children who are now receiving the immunization series will be admitted to the immunization clinic Saturday morning at the public health department offices, it was announced today.
 The clinic will be held at the usual hours, 9:30 to 11. No new immunization cases will be handled until a health officer is assigned here, it was pointed out by the staff.

Next Wednesday afternoon's child-health conference has been postponed, it was further reported, but Dr. Harold Erickson, assistant state health officer who took charge of yesterday's conference, will continue to schedule these clinics from time to time until a new officer arrives.
 Dr. Erickson will also handle the immunization program in the county outside of Bend, it was stated.

League to Hear Ruth Williams

MORE ABOUT Junior Jaycee

Immediately recognizing the group as an integral part of Bend's civic development, Judge C. L. Allen invited the junior chamber to name a representative to work with the post-war planning committee. Judge Allen is chairman of the Deschutes county after-the-war planning group.
 First meeting of the directors will be held next Wednesday night, with the first regular meeting of the membership slated for January 26.

Members Named
 Besides the guests, the 30 members of the new organization—first of its kind for Bend—who were present and became active members, are:

Bruce Gilbert, Les Schwab, Ken Dutt, Clint Palmer, Dick Brandis, Charles Weil, Gerry Horskotte, Myrl Ballantyne, George Thompson, John Plesch, Wayne Metz, Reider Rold, Herb Riley, Gail Pelker, Tom Larson, Ed Pease, Harry Embrey, Cleve Richardson, Mark Sanders, Ray Dahl, Ed Pi-land, Wilfred Jossy, Vern Larson, A. C. Smit, Charles Boardman, Milton Musgrave, Ken Roach, Earl Huff, Maury Sanders, B. B. Geddems and Jack Edmonds.

There was considerable debate as to the advisability of organizing a junior chamber of commerce in Bend at this time, owing to the possibility that the army and navy might make serious inroads on the membership. But the majority of those present took the attitude it was better to organize now and put in some telling liks for the benefit of Bend, before they had to take up arms against the enemy.

Concert Leaders Report Progress

Officers of the Community Concert association reported today that sales of memberships are going very well, with Redmond sales especially encouraging. The campaign will conclude Saturday, after which no memberships to a series of three concerts, or single admissions will be sold.

Students are reminded that if they fail to purchase members-ships through school music supervisors, they may obtain them at either downtown agency in the Pilot Butte Inn or Deschutes Federal Savings and Loan office.
