

Oklahoma Quint Wins in Denver; Hellships Victors

Denver, March 21 (AP)—Keener competition was the keynote today as the national AAU basketball tournament moved into the third day of play.

Play last night was featured by the successful debut of the defending champion Phillips "66" Oilers. The Bartlesville, Okla., five appeared to have difficulty in getting started early in their game with St. Louis City, Ia., but after warming up had no trouble in taking the contest, 65-43.

Scores in yesterday's play ran high for the most part, as in the opening day games. One other featured game on yesterday's program was that of Denver's Ambrose-Legion and the American Gear squad of Chicago. The Legion won by 47-37.

Seeded teams to see action today are 20th Century Fox, Dow Chemical, Fort Warren, Wyo., Boeing Bombers and Alpine Dairy. Scores yesterday include:

- First Round
Boyd Harness, Des Moines, Ia., 54, Laramie, Wyo., Cleaners 37.
Fort Logan 63, Camp Cooke, Calif., 36.
Esso, Baton Rouge, La., 65, Omaha University 42.
- Second Round
Logan, Utah, Collegians 46, Fort Leavenworth, Kans., 42.
Albina Hellships, Portland, Ore., 50, Nut House, Lincoln, Nebr., 31.
Cessna Bobcats, Wichita, Kans., 96, Central Coast all-Service 26.
Allen-Bradley, Milwaukee, 71, Colorado College 43.
Ambrose-Legion 47, American Gear, Chicago, 37.
Phillips "66" 65, Old Hobe Bread, Sioux City, Ia., 43.
Eramex Cavemen, Stanton, Mo., 40, Colorado U. Medics 38.
- Today's Schedule Included
Alpine Dairy vs. Fort Logan.
Boeing Bombers vs. Chapel of Oaks, Oakland, Calif.
Bellingham, Wash., vs. Caterpillar Tractor, Peoria, Ill.

Kentucky Victor Over Utah Quint

New York, March 21 (AP)—Two teams with strikingly contrasting styles—the U. of Kentucky Wildcats and the Aggies of Oklahoma A. & M.—were in the semi-finals of the national invitation basketball tournament today, having triumphed with comparative ease in the second quarter final round last night.

Kentucky defeated a hard fighting U. of Utah five, 46-38 with a slam-bang, run-shoot-run offensive while the methodical, orthodox Aggies, playing no harder than necessary, outclassed a game Canisius quintet, 43-29.

Oklahoma A. & M. meets the favored DePaul team tomorrow night, and Kentucky plays St. John's of Brooklyn for the right to meet in the final.

Out Our Way

Coasting Along in Sport World

He outlined his scheme to Gail Robinson, 1924 Olympic team member and one-time national indoor high jump champion; Freddie Steele, former welterweight boxing champion, and actor Pat O'Brien on the set of "Pileback" at Columbia studios.

Thorpe now intersperses motion picture acting with lectures on his theory that athletics is the best antidote for juvenile delinquency. "There is no doubt that clean, strong bodies and clean minds go together."

Otherwise, contends the husky, 55-year-old Indian who still holds two unofficial Olympic games records set at Stockholm in 1912, the boys will have nothing to keep their competitive spirit alive, and resumption of the Olympics after the war might see the end of American supremacy.

Here's what he recommends: Events for boys of all ages, with competitive divisions based upon age, weight or school year.

Local tryouts, followed by state-wide competition to select entrants for the national junior Olympics "somewhere in the middle west."

"Everyone realizes that juvenile delinquency increases in war time. With summer and school vacations coming, I believe we can give the kids a healthy, clean method of occupying their time by putting the junior Olympics plan in motion now."

"A boy who goes into training with the idea that someday he may become one of the world's greatest athletes will have little time to get into mischief. He will be thinking too much about building up that valuable body of his," Thorpe said.

Hank Armstrong Defeats Willis

Washington, March 21 (AP)—Henry Armstrong brought his comeback record to seven straight victories today, achieving the latest triumph last night in a 10-round decision over Frankie Willis of Washington, a ranking welterweight.

Willis, fighting a defensive bout, stalled Armstrong's two-listed attack by clinching and jabbing, keeping a left fist in the Negro's face most of the time.

Armstrong, who weighed 142 pounds, used his right to good advantage and appeared strong at the finish. It was the first time he had been required to go the distance in his comeback tour, the six previous triumphs having come by knockouts. Willis weighed 146.

Baseball Briefs

Wallingford, Conn., March 21 (AP)—Spring training "Connecticut style" found the Boston Braves surrounded by snow, but it didn't hamper their workouts in the big indoor cage at the Choate school.

Frederick, Md., March 21 (AP)—Another sleigh ride was in prospect today for the Philadelphia Athletics, who were forced to divide their big squad and go into separate indoor training sessions at the local armory and the Young Men's Christian association. Manager Connie Mack hired an old fashioned sleigh with a team of horses to transport the players from their headquarters. Outfielder Rip Radcliff notified Mack he would take his pre-induction physical examination, March 27.

Medford, Mass., March 21 (AP)—Manager Joe Cronin, short on pitchers, was pleased today with the work of George Woods, big right-hander who won five and lost eight for the Boston Red Sox in 1943.

Lakewood, N. J., March 21 (AP)—Although there was no official announcement, it was generally believed today that veteran Coaches Adolfo Luque and Clarence (Bubba) Honrad will take over the reins of the team if Manager Mel Ott of the New York Giants goes into the army. Ott was in long consultation with both of them throughout the indoor drill yesterday.

Atlantic City, N. J., March 21 (AP)—If the New York Yankees have many more days of indoor training, manager Joe McCarthy is fearful that there won't be a window left in the armory where they work out. Several players became "glass-busters" yesterday with lousy cuts that produced long high fly balls.

Wilmington, Del., March 21 (AP)—Pitcher Bill Lee obtained from the Chicago Cubs last season, indicated to the Philadelphia Blue Jays management today that he expects to take his draft physical soon and that he hadn't made up his mind what to do until then.

Dayton Aviators Beat Collegians

Chicago, March 21 (AP)—The second set of elimination games was scheduled for tonight in the world's professional basketball tournament with teams from Dayton, O., Brooklyn, N. Y., and New York City already advanced into Friday's semi-finals.

The Dayton Aviators scored a one-sided 52 to 38 victory over the Akron, O., collegians in the opening game of the program, with Tidrick, the Aviator's center, leading the scoring with 20 points.

The Brooklyn Eagles captured the second contest from Camp Campbell, 55 to 41, and the New Yorkers eliminated Detroit, 39 to 33, in the closing game.

PAYS $10 BET TO DARTMOUTH
Ithaca, N. Y. (AP)—A bet between three shipmates serving in the Pacific has enriched Dartmouth college's 1944 alumni fund by $10. A letter and check, have reached the Hanover, N. H., school from C. C. Joys, III, a Cornell university graduate, who explained that he lost a bet on the Dartmouth-Cornell football game last November to L. T. Merriam, Jr., and A. S. Eisman, Jr., both Dartmouth men. They had agreed to pay the bet to the winning college's alumni fund.

Harrison Favored To Take Tourney

Charlotte, N. C., March 21 (AP)—Sgt. Ed (Dutch) Harrison, former Little Rock, Ark., pro, 14 under par for 54 holes and four strokes ahead of Harold (Jug) McSpaden of Philadelphia, was the choice today to win the $7,500 Charlotte golf open.

Harrison, who made a hole-in-one in the second day of the meet Saturday, continued his near-flawless golf yesterday and played the 18 holes in six under par for a 54 hole total of 202.

McSpaden, with 206, was four strokes ahead of Sammy Byrd, Detroit, both of whom had four under par 68's, yesterday. Craig Wood of Mamaroneck, N. Y., had a 68 which gave him fourth place with 211, Jimmy Hines of Great Neck, N. Y., was fifth with 212, Byron Nelson, Toledo, O., had 213, Thurman Edwards, Winston-Salem, N. C., 214; Bob Hamilton of Evansville, Ind., the winner of the north and south open, 216.

Crook Goes Over Red Cross Quota

Prineville, March 21 (Special)—Crook county went over the top Monday in the Red Cross war fund campaign. G. S. Vergeer, county chairman in the war fund campaign, announced at noon yesterday that contributions had reached $6185.88. The Crook county quota is $5800.

Volunteer committees in all parts of the county co-operated in the drive. Block leaders canvassed residential sections here, neighborhood leaders and farmers' groups worked in the rural areas and the Prineville Lions club made a store to store drive in the business section of Prineville.

CONVERT STORES TO HOUSES

San Francisco (AP)—A city-federal program to provide war housing in converted stores is under way in San Francisco. Robert C. Newell, director of the city's war housing center, reported a family of six was quartered in the first converted store. He said approximately 100 vacant store owners had asked permission to convert.

The cores used in manufacturing self-sealing fuel tanks—indispensable equipment for fighting planes—are made from processed paper.

It's simple arithmetic

If you have 10 onions—or potatoes, or cabbages—and Uncle Sam takes half, that's five onions for the boys in uniform. But if there are 12 onions to divide, the boys get six.

That makes it as clear as 2-and-2-are-4 why everybody with a place for a Victory garden should be starting a Victory garden. Plain arithmetic says your garden actually will help feed our fighting men.

We all want our service men to have plenty of the best. To that end—as with meat and gasoline—as with the rest of us often go short. Only seldom—as with nylon—do our soldiers, sailors, and marines get all.

Instead, Uncle Sam usually divides up the supply—that much for the fighters, that much for the home folks. The bigger the supply, the more there is for both the home front and the fighting front.

Because this is clearly true with food, Standard of California would like, in support of Uncle Sam's current Victory garden campaign, to remind you why Victory gardens are so important to the war effort.

Perhaps you don't realize it, but last year Victory gardeners almost doubled the vegetable supply Uncle Sam had to divide up. In 20 million gardens, they grew 40 per cent of the total.

This year the need is for 22 million gardens. The assignment to Victory gardeners is to boost their share of the total supply of vegetable foodstuffs by 10 per cent. Eleven gardens are needed where 10 grew before.

It calls for recruits and replacements—all that can be had. So reach for that spade. Pick up your hoe, madam. The more you raise, the more there'll be—for all.
