League Leaders Boost Averages

(By United Press)

Leaders of the Pacific Coast league strengthened their holds on the first three places as Los Angeles, San Francisco and San Diego turned in another set of victories yesterday.

The league-leading Los Angeles squeezed past Hollywood, 2-1, in a daylight game, while San Francisco trounced Oakland, 9-4, and San Diego topped Seattle, 3-2, under the lights. Portland and Sacramento were again rained out, and will play a doubleheader tonight.

Cecil Garriott's circuit clout in the seventh inning broke a 1-1 tie and gave Angel Pitcher Pete Mallory a win over Twink Earl Escalante. Both pitched six-hit ball. It was Los Angeles' third straight win over the Stars and ninth in 11 starts.

Seals Hang On

San Francisco stayed 1½ games behind the Angels by taking their second straight from Oakland, pounding three Acorn hurlers for 15 hits as Ray Harrell was issuing but six. French Uhalt and Gus Suhr each got three for four to lead the Seal attack, while Jake Caufield poled a home run for the Oaks.

Seattle Pitcher Frank Tincup walked in the winning San Diego run in the 12th inning to lose an overtime hurling duel to Frankie Dasso, Padre fireballer. The Rainiers took a two-run lead in the third, but San Diego tied it up in the fourth, and won when Tincup walked Dasso with the bases full. The victory first for the Padres against two for Seattle, left San Diego two games behind the Angels.

Yanks, Senators Ready or Clash

New York, April 21 (U.P.)—The New York Yankees and the Washington Senators, rated as the outstanding contenders for the American league pennant, meet for the first time this season today with the world champions playing host as the major leagues stage their second opening day.

While the Yanks were idle yesterday, the Senators closed their opening home stand with a 5-0 victory over the Philadelphia Athletics.

In the only other junior circuit game, the St. Louis Browns continued in first place with their third consecutive triumph over the Detroit Tigers. Vern Stephens, batting in three runs and scoring a couple himself, was the big margin in the 8-5 decision, the first major league victory for the 31-year-old Rookie Rigmund Hakucki.

Giants on Top

Blasting three home runs off two Boston Brave hurlers, the New York Giants remained on top of the National league with an unblemished record in three starts. The New Yorkers, however, needed their circuit clouts to gain a 10-8 nod in a slugfest.

The Brooklyn Dodgers won their first series of the year from the Philadelphia Phillies, two games to one, notching the second yesterday in an 8-2 shellacking.

Ray Mueller's single in the ninth with a mate on third gave Cincinnati a 2-1 edge over the Chicago Cubs.

Mort Cooper, the National league champion St. Louis Cardinals' star hurler, was driven from the mound by a Pittsburgh Pirate uprising in the seventh, but the Cards managed to quench the rally and do a little scoring of their own to gain a 5-3 win.

Pep Makes Plans For Ortiz Fight

New Haven, Conn., April 21 (U.P.)—Featherweight Champion Willie Pep, convinced that he can again make the featherweight 127-pound limit, pointed today toward a fight with Manuel Ortiz, NBA champion, after winning his second straight fight since being discharged from the navy two months ago.

Weighing 129, Pep won every round of a 10-round bout here last night against Snooks Lacey, 127, of New Haven, and displayed much of his old ring craft which carried him to 63 straight ring victories prior to his induction into the navy.

Lightweight Title Battle Proposed

Washington, April 21 (U.P.)—Abe J. Green, president of the National Boxing association, today urged a quick match between Juan Zurita and Bob Montgomery to clear up the lightweight championship dispute.

Qurita of Mexico City is recognized as titleholder by the NBA; and Montgomery, Philadelphia Negro, is regarded as champion in New York and affiliated states.

Green's plea was made as a preamble to the NBA's quarterly ratings of fighters, issued today.

Two championships changed hands since the last quarterly ratings. Zurita replaced Sammy Angott as lightweight king; and Sal Bartolo of Boston succeeded Phil Terranova as featherweight ruler.

Here are the quarterly rating with divisional champions listed first, followed by "logical contenders:"

Heavyweight—Joe Louis, Billy Conn, Jimmy Bivins.

Contenders Listed

Light heavyweight—Gus Lesnevich, Freddie Mills, Lloyd Marshall.

Middleweight—Tony Zale, Georgia Amrams, Jake Lamotta, Holman Williams, Tony Martin, Coley Welch, Hose Basora.

Welterweight — Freddie Cochrane, Ray Robinson, Jackie Wilson, Henry Armstrong.

Lightweight — Juan Zurita, Sammy Angott, Bob Montgomery, Beau Jack, Bobby Ruffin.

Featherweight — Sal Bortolo, Willie Pep, Chalky Wright, Phil Terranova.

Bantamweight—Manuel Ortiz, Rush Dalma, Ernesto Aguilar, Little Dado, Kui Kong Yong.

Flyweight—Jackie Patterson, Peter Kane, Alex Murphy.

March 16 was apple day at the Kansas State Teachers college at Pittsburgh, Kan., when the faculty gave its annual treat to the students in commemoration of the founding of the state in 1907.

Bear Trackmen To Move South

Fourteen trackmen will leave this evening and tomorrow morning for Klamath Falls to participate in the annual southern Oregon-northern California meet. In this, their first meet, the Bears will find some of their stiffest competition of the year. According to reports from Klamath Falls, a fine list of entries has already been received, headed by Medford, Ashland, Grants Pass, Lakeview, Yreka and many others. Main Bear hopes lie in pole vault, hurdles, 440, broad jump and relay, with the distances a question mark and little strength in the weights.

Boys making the trip follow:

Blakley, mile; Brogan, javelin and shot; Clark, 440, 220, relay and broad jump; Edwards, mile; Halligan, hurdles, 100, broad jump and relay; Hawes, broad jump and high jump; Higgins, 880, high jump and shot; James, 440 and 220; Lammers, 880; Maudlin, 880 and mile; Rasmussen, pole vault, high jump and hurdles; Smith, 400 and 100; Sullivan, hurdles and relay, and Wirtz, high jump, pole vault and relay.

Accompanying the team will be Coach Claude Cook and Manager Leonard Peoples, "Doc" Mason of the athletic department and Albert Westfall, instructor at Bend high.

The sprinters and hurdlers will leave tonight in order to be on hand for the preliminaries to be run in those events in the morning. The other boys will leave tomorrow morning.

Oregon Battler To Face Blevins

Portland, April 21 (U.P.)—Farmer Boy Joe Kahut of Woodburn, Ore., will undergo his severest test in his short but meteoric boxing career tonight when he meets Bob Blevins of Marysville, Cal., for 1 rounds.

It will be the 18th fight for Kahut, all of them victorious and most of them knockouts. However, Kahut has been out of action since March 17, when he kayoed Pancho Roderiguez of Mexico in four rounds.

Blevins, too, holds an impressive string of victories, after having been Golden Gloves winner at San Francisco two years ago. At 195 pounds, he wil have about 10 pounds advantage over Kahut.

Whitney Horses Get Spotlight

New York, April 21 (U.P.)—Racing is expected to have its first $3,000,000 betting day at Jamaica tomorrow when the rival Whitney horses, Stir Up and Pukka Gin—favorites for the Kentucky Derby—match speed and stamina in the $25,000 Wood Memorial.

More than 50,000 fans, a new Jamaica record, are likely to witness this outstanding eastern derby trial in which a field of more than 13 three-year-olds should start. This field includes all the "name" derby eligibles now in the east.

Bend Rink Floor Gets New Surface

Sanding of the 4,888 square feet comprising the spring floor of the Bend Roller rink had been completed today, Manager Claire Fuller has announced, and the big rink, one of the few spring floor type in the country, will be back in operation Sunday, following a dance on the newly surfaced floor Saturday night.

The floor of the local rink is of white maple. Sanding of the expansive surface took more than three days. After the Saturday night dance, a special preparation will be put on the renovated floor.

W. B. Hamby was in charge of the sanding job.
