

Annual Concert To Be Presented By Band Tonight

Last-minute preparations were being made today for Bend high school's annual spring band concert to be held this evening at 8 o'clock in the high school gymnasium. The concert, one of the two main musical events sponsored each year by the school, will present the concert band and the girls' choir, under the direction of C. Dale Robbins, music instructor. Assisting with arrangements for the program are Albert Westfall, Pherrin Moody, and Delles Hince, who will handle the staging; Dorothy Byrd, decorator; and Jarrell Thompson and Leonard Peoples, in charge of lighting.

Because of wartime restrictions, the district competition in Spokane, Wash., has been discontinued, and visiting judges will assign district ratings to the band and choir on the basis of tonight's performance. Because the concert is presented at an assembly at the high school this morning, few students are expected to attend the evening performance. Tickets to the affair will be sold at the door.

Selections Listed

Tonight's program will include these selections by the band: "Invercargill", Lithgow; "Sequoia", a tone painting, LaGassey; "Stratosphere", Franklins; "American Patrol", Meacham; "Smoke Gets in Your Eyes", Jerome Kern; "La Rougelette", Bennett; "Saint Louis Blues", Handy; "Stormy Weather", Koehler & Arlen; "United Nations Rhapsody", Bennett.

The girls' choir will present "The Years at the Spring", Cain; "The Sleep That Flits on Baby's Eyes", Carpenter; "A Song in the Night", Loughborough; "This Is My Country", Jacobs; "Begin the

Cordon Requests Fire Aid Funds

Portland, April 21 (UP)—U. S. Sen. Guy Cordon, (R), Ore., appearing before the senate appropriations committee, urged an immediate increase in federal funds for cooperative use with the states in forest fire protection. It was learned today.

Cordon asked an increase of $2,500,000 annually. "The government has called for an increase in lumber production, particularly for crating war material," he told the committee. "Should Oregon have a dry summer resulting in widespread fires, the diversion of manpower to firefighting would necessitate mills shutting down and seriously curtail lumber production vital to needed for crating offshore war shipments."

Fifty-seven veneer plants in North Carolina annually cut 110 million board feet of logs.

Delinquencies in Taxes Reduced

Salem, April 21 (UP)—Tax delinquencies in Oregon have been reduced by more than $26,000,000 in the past nine years according to a compilation just completed by Charles V. Galloway, chairman of the state tax commission. The property tax delinquency in this state which hit a peak of $46,510,000 on December 31, 1935, had been reduced to $20,222,912.22 on August 15, 1943, Galloway said. The delinquency figures represent 3.64 per cent of the total tax levied during the period covered. Every county in the state has shown a substantial improvement in the condition of its tax collections, Galloway said.
