

Local News

TEMPERATURE
Maximum yesterday, 29 degrees.
Minimum last night, 15 degrees.

TODAY'S WEATHER
Temperature: 10 p.m., 22 degrees; 10 a.m., 24 degrees. Velocity of wind: 10 p.m., 2 miles; 10 a.m., 8 miles.

Mr. and Mrs. Maurice Lyons of Shevlin, were Christmas guests at the home of Mr. and Mrs. C. F. Lyons, 27 Lake place.

Mr. and Mrs. John Werner and family of Redmond, spent Christmas as guests at the L. V. Smith home, 28 Lake place.

Miss Gay Hamilton is in Bend from Fort Lewis, where she serves as secretary for Col. F. S. Besson, and is spending the holidays with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Ralph S. Hamilton.

Mrs. Pearl McCollum of Shevlin, visited Bend friends over the week-end.

2nd Lt. E. D. Tyler of the Redmond army air field, was a Bend caller yesterday.

Phoebe Hafstad, Seaman 1/c stationed at the Farragut, Idaho naval training station, is spending a week here at the home of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. R. J. Hafstad.

Mr. and Mrs. James L. Raeburn and daughter, Jean, of Portland, were holiday visitors at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Byron Raeburn in Bend.

Mr. and Mrs. Sam Braaten and daughter, Gladys, spent the Christmas holidays in Bend visiting relatives and friends.

Mr. and Mrs. S. E. Brown of Redmond, called on relatives and friends here over the week-end.

Mr. and Mrs. Athel Dudley of Redmond, were holiday guests of Mr. and Mrs. Earl Huff here.

Lt. C. N. Parker of the Redmond army air field, was a week-end guest at the Pilot Butte inn.

Byron Raeburn, seaman 1/c, today returned to Portland after spending the holidays with Mrs. Raeburn and two sons, in Bend.

Lt. E. D. Skidmore was a holiday visitor in Bend from the Redmond army air field.

Cpl. and Mrs. Edward Hall became the parents of a son, born in Chicago, on Dec. 21, Mr. and Mrs. Fred G. Hall have learned.

Cpl. Hall, recently promoted from private first class, was decorated in France for gallantry in action. He is now with Patton's Third Army. The child is a first grandchild for Mr. and Mrs. Fred Hall, who will celebrate their 35th wedding anniversary here in January.

Cpl. Ray Bills, of the army ordnance base at Stockton, Calif., is spending furlough here with his mother, Mrs. William Vestal. Mr. and Mrs. Vestal, with the corporal, spent Sunday and Monday in Redmond at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Roger Sanford.

Mr. and Mrs. Fred Vance spent the holidays in Portland.

Mr. and Mrs. Homer M. Thomas left yesterday for San Francisco, Calif., where they will visit with their son, Lt. Homer Thomas, Jr., and his wife.

Pfc. Pat Cashman spent the holidays in Bend from Camp Ball, Calif.

The D.A.V. and auxiliary will entertain their children at the home of Mr. and Mrs. W. J. Baer, 974 Riverside, Thursday evening from 7 to 10 o'clock, it was announced today.

Mr. and Mrs. O. L. Jorgenson of Gilchrist spent Saturday in Bend.

Cecil Randall was in Bend on Saturday from Sisters.

Mr. and Mrs. Olaf Olson of Shevlin shopped in Bend on Saturday.

Mr. and Mrs. Dewey Watkins and 8-year-old son, Kenneth, arrived today from Seattle for a visit with Mr. and Mrs. John Cuffin.

Mrs. Fannie Wright arrived today from Culver, where she spent Christmas with her son, B. Wright, to visit her daughter, Mrs. D. W. Entrikin and family. Mrs. Wright resides in Tulelake, Calif.

Miss Hilda Bautz, attached to the staff of the school for deaf at Salem, is spending the holidays here with her cousin, Mrs. G. W. Winslow.

Lt. Bill I. Murphy, son of Mr. and Mrs. H. F. Murphy, Route 1, is home on leave from the Columbus, Miss. army air field.

Ensign Gerry A. Horsikotte, is in Bend on leave, visiting members of his family at 463 Congress street.

Rev. and Mrs. Harold Oberg passed through Bend on Sunday enroute to Boise, Ida., to attend the wedding of their son, Rev. Oberg, formerly in charge of Seventh Day Adventist churches in Bend, Prineville and Redmond, is now a chaplain at the Portland sanitarium.

Mr. and Mrs. Aubrey Perry and son, Fred, spent Christmas eve in Redmond at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Henry Pelmulder.

Mrs. George Grunden and son Bobbie are here from Hillsboro to spend the holidays with Mr. and Mrs. P. B. Johnson.

Mr. and Mrs. James W. Thompson and small son, Douglas, are here from Lakeview, where Thompson is attached to the U. S. forest service, to spend the holidays with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. J. Alton Thompson.

Robert Isham, apprentice seaman, left today for Farragut after spending Christmas with his mother, Mrs. Edna Isham.

Roy Wiles left today for Portland after spending Christmas here with his sister, Mrs. Edna Isham.

Mrs. Jeannette Mulkins spent the holidays in Dufur with relatives.

Miss Phyllis McHenry left today for a vacation in San Francisco.

Thor Frydenlund returned today from Eugene where he spent the holidays with his family.

Mr. and Mrs. P. I. Gossard and son, Jack, spent Christmas here with Mr. and Mrs. Ed Sherlock.

The Grange Hall ladies aid will hold its annual party and gift exchange at 1:30 p. m. Thursday at the home of Mrs. C. L. Smith, 424 Kearney street, it was announced today.

DEER HIDES. I would appreciate it if you hunters who still have your deer hides in the cold storage plants would bring them in as I cannot pay the exorbitant price asked by the operators of those plants. Cecil C. Moore, 1132 Newport Ave., Bend, Oregon. Adv.

WAR-DURATION ORDINANCE
Chicago (U.P.)—Cincinnati recently adopted a war-duration ordinance authorizing the city manager to use regular employees during their vacation periods and holidays where there is a manpower shortage, according to the public administration clearing house. These employees will receive extra pay.

SERVICE REUNION
Sundance, Wyo. (U.P.)—A father and his son, both in the service, met in Sundance recently for the first time in six years. S/Sgt. Vic Pattison, the father, was on furlough from his station near Memphis, Tenn. He heard that his son, Seaman 1/c Jack Pattison, was arriving on leave, and obtained a five-day extension of his furlough so he might see his son.

'BIG' WINNINGS STOLEN
Chicago (U.P.)—Peter Parker, a painter, was robbed of 88 pennies while on his way home from a friendly poker game.

Phoenix, Ariz., Dec. 26 (U.P.)—The 25 prisoners of war who broke out of the Papago park internment camp near here Christmas eve escaped by way of a 200-foot rock tunnel, it was announced today by Col. William A. Holden, camp commanding officer.

Holden disclosed that the nazis, led by naval captain Juergens Watenberg, dug their way under the enclosure fence through solid rock, emerging near an irrigation canal.

Only six of the escapees have been recaptured so far.

Only six of the escapees have been recaptured so far.

Preliminary reports indicated the Germans—including 12 naval officers—scattered after leaving the desert camp. It was considered likely, however, they had a definite plan of action, calling for a flight to Mexico, about 150 miles due south through uninhabited desert.

It was believed the escapees were hiding by day in the desert mountains and traveling south at night.

Civil air patrol planes had joined the law enforcement officers and army patrols in the intensive search.

Col. Holden said the prisoners apparently were not armed and were without transportation.

NETTIE A. NANCE
Dies at Age of 72
Funeral services were held here this afternoon for Mrs. Nettie A. Nance, 72, who died in the St. Charles hospital last Friday, after a residence in Central Oregon for more than 21 years. The last year and a half of Mrs. Nance's life was spent in Bend. Rev. Kenneth Tobias officiated at the rites in the chapel of the Niswonger and Winslow funeral home, with burial following in the Greenwood cemetery.

Mrs. Nance is survived by three sons, Zonie and Mancel of Madras, and Sabe Nance of Bend; four daughters, Hattie M. Lowe, Castletown, Va.; Alma Barnett, Oakwood, N. C.; Topsy Moore, Wilksboro, N. C.; and Mazie Aikens of Bend. Twenty-six grand children and seven great grand children also survive.

U. S. to Pay Loss
To Midstate Roads
Damages to Central Oregon highways, estimated at $7,925 and incurred by military operations, will be paid to the state of Oregon by the federal public roads administration, according to word received here today from Washington, D. C.

WHITMORE FUNERAL SET
The funeral for Harry Whitmore, who died here Thursday, will be held at 2:30 p. m. next Thursday at the Niswonger & Winslow funeral chapel, with burial following in Greenwood cemetery, it was announced today. Rev. Robert McIlvanna will have charge.

New U. S. Ace
HORIZONTAL
1 Pictured ace, Captain
9 Pale
10 Operatic solo
11 Beverage
13 Tangle
14 Alternating current (ab.)
15 Toward
17 Perform
19 Donkey
20 Musical note
21 Erbium (symbol)
22 Golf device
23 And (Latin)
24 Electrical engineer (ab.)
26 Spirit
29 Distant
32 We 33 Upon
34 Plant part
36 Obtains
38 Bachelor of Arts (ab.)
40 Accomplish
41 Excitement
44 Bone
46 Therefore
47 Kitchen utensil
49 Male offspring
50 Near
51 Pint (ab.)
52 Be indebted
53 Greek letter
55 Particle
58 Vase
59 He shot down
30 German planes

NEWS OF SOCIETY

Canton Deschutes Auxiliary Elects Officers for '45
Officers of the ladies auxiliary of Canton Deschutes No. 19 were elected last Tuesday following the official visit of the state president, Mrs. Viola Spencer of Roseburg. Mrs. Spencer and other guests present were introduced by Mrs. A. E. Stevens, program committee chairman.

Mrs. Fred Burrows Guest of Honor at Christmas Party
Mrs. Ivan Pickett acted as hostess at a Christmas party of the Women's Benefit association, given Wednesday in honor of Mrs. Fred Burrows, who was presented with many gifts.

W. S. C. S. Plan Officers Day
The annual W. S. C. S. officers' day will be conducted at 2 p. m. Wednesday in the fireside parlor of the Methodist church by Mrs. M. B. Smith.

Executive Board Meets Tomorrow
The executive board of the Women of the Moose will meet at 1:30 p. m. tomorrow in Moose hall, it was announced today.

North End Club to Meet
Members of the North End club will meet Friday evening at the home of Mrs. C. F. Lyons, 27 Lake place, it was announced today.

Degree of Honor Party Tomorrow
The Degree of Honor will hold its annual party for juveniles in Norway hall at 8 p. m. tomorrow.

Pythian Sisters to Meet Tomorrow
The Pythian Sisters will meet at 8 p. m. tomorrow in Norway hall.

Yuletide Singers Bring Cheer to Boy in Hospital
Christmas carolers who visited the St. Charles hospital on Christmas eve, brought cheer to at least one small, suffering boy, it was revealed today.

He is the son of Mr. and Mrs. C. N. Renno, who wrote The Bulletin a letter asking that their thanks be conveyed to the singers who were unknown to them. Their note read in part: "We certainly wish to express our appreciation to the carol singers who came through St. Charles hospital Christmas eve. Our small son enjoyed them very much and wished to thank them."

Servicemen Are Entertained At Newly Opened Bend USO

"The most outstanding week-end I have ever spent in my life," is what one service man called his two-day Christmas holiday in Bend when he thanked USO officials for their help in making the weekend happy for him. The USO assisted some 75 other servicemen in having a good Christmas, it was announced today by Mrs. Craig Coyner, director.

A formal dance last night climaxed the weekend's festivities at the USO, now quartered in the parish hall of Trinity Episcopal church. College girls, army wives and some 15 visitors were present to add some 35 service men in enjoying themselves.

Highlights of the evening was a display of elaborate cakes made by many Bend women as memorials to their sons in all parts of the world.

Service men selected the cake they preferred through sampling and were later served generous portions. Several men asked for the recipe of the cake they liked best to send home. The recipes were furnished.

Every boy who wished to dine on Christmas day with a Bend family had his wish gratified. In fact, Mrs. Coyner stated today, the supply of dinners far exceeded the supply of men.

The USO was open on Christmas day from noon until midnight. The organization wishes to express its thanks to the following persons who assisted, Mrs. Coyner said today: Mrs. Anne Forbes, Mrs. Earl Huff, Mrs. Ray Brown, Mrs. Jere Gillis, Mrs. George St. Onge, Mrs. O. B. Sim-

Bend Is Quiet Over Holidays

In general, celebration of Christmas in Bend, was reasonably orderly, police reports indicated today, but one suspect made the mistake of appearing at the annual policemen's benefit ball in the roller rink in an asserted intoxicated condition. In jail today for this offense was Lemor S. Haner, 23, 230 1/2 East Irving avenue.

Pvt. Zapata, 23, of Redmond, was taken into custody for fighting and turned over to military police. Archie Anderson, 52, of 710 Colorado avenue, was held on a drunk charge.

Take Your Choice - - - Between Getting Enough Sleep - - - or wearing yourself out over a tub and ironing board

Those extra hours you spend washing and ironing actually cost you money—in your own time and health, aside from the materials you use. You'll find it more economical all ways to let us take over your laundry. You'll benefit in the way you feel; the time you have for other things; your satisfaction in the beauty of finely laundered belongings.

Bend-Troy Laundry

60 Kansas Phone 146

Women They Never Forget
In the drama of Army surgery, only doctors wield the scalpel. But YOU, as a Wac surgical technician in the Army Medical Department, can lend the woman's touch to care of wounded soldiers. You can perform important non-professional duties before and after the operations. Get more detailed information about your opportunities as a Wac in the Army Medical Department today!

U. S. ARMY RECRUITING STATION
Post Office, Eugene, Oregon
Please send me, without any obligation on my part, the new illustrated booklet about the Wac.
NAME
ADDRESS
CITY
ZONE
STATE
PHONE NO.

THIS IMPORTANT MESSAGE SPONSORED BY BROWN & HALEY, TACOMA
Creatam of Almond Roca, Mountain Bars and other fine confections. Today most Brown & Haley candy goes to servicemen and women overseas. We know you're glad to share it with them.

CAPITOL LAST CHANCE TONIGHT
And, Everyone's Saying Best Musical in Months
IT'S Colossal!
Two Girls and a Sailor
with JUNE ALLYSON, GLORIA DeHAVEN, VAN JOHNSON, JIMMY DURANTE, GRACIE ALLEN

TOWER TONIGHT TOMORROW
35c Any Seat BARGAIN NIGHTS 35c Any Seat
REALLY A SUPER-SWELL 2 HIT PROGRAM

HOT AS A FOREST FIRE!
"THE FOREST RANGERS"
with MURRAY GODDARD, HAYWARD
Directed by GEORGE MARSHALL - Screen Play by Harold Shurtle - From a story by Chester Straley
PLUS 2ND FULL LENGTH FEATURE

WARNER BAXTER
SHADOWS IN THE NIGHT

U. S. GUARANTEED LOANS TO (Discharged) Servicemen
To buy, build, or repair a home;
To purchase a farm or farm equipment; to repair farm buildings or machinery;
To purchase land, supplies, machinery, tools, etc., to go into any proper gainful occupation, etc., etc.
The Servicemen's Readjustment Act of 1944 was passed by Congress to help honorably discharged servicemen to help themselves in getting back into happy, profitable peacetime living, and to become solid, independent citizens of the democracy they fought to save.
If you are an eligible veteran, we shall be glad to have you apply for a loan under its liberal provisions. Come in for details and for the best cooperation we can give you.
BANK OF BEND
A Home-Owned State Bank