

Local News

Mannheimer is a sister of the late Clarence L. Mannheimer.

Miss Yvonne Zeek returned from Prineville this morning where she spent the last few days with friends.

Mrs. Maren Gribskov returned yesterday from Junction City where she spent the holidays with relatives.

James Hennings, now employed in Portland, spent the holidays here with Mrs. Hennings and their two-year-old son, James, Jr.

Mrs. Robert Bowman returned yesterday from Boise, Ida., where she spent Christmas with her husband and two daughters.

Pfc. Frank E. Bockman, Jr., son of Mr. and Mrs. F. E. Bockman, 34 Allen road, Bend, is attending electronics maintenance school with the marine air detachment at the Ward Island, Corpus Christi, Texas, naval air technical training center. His wife is the former Wilma K. Sellers.

Cpl. and Mrs. Denis A. Reilly were the guests of Mr. and Mrs. Patrick Kiernan, of Bend, over the Christmas holidays. Mrs. Reilly is the former Miss Marguerite A. Kiernan.

Mr. and Mrs. N. J. Morson and three-year-old son, Michael, arrived yesterday from Richland, Wash., to visit Mr. and Mrs. John Pengilly, 325 Delaware. Mrs. Pengilly has not seen Mrs. Morson, who is her niece, since she was six years old. The Morsons recently moved to Richland from St. Paul, Minn.

Pfc. Theodore W. Coulter, who has just returned from the south Pacific after 32 months of active duty there, spent Christmas here with Mr. and Mrs. Joseph F. Egg. He is Mrs. Egg's son. Mr. and Mrs. George Haggin, of Portland, also spent the holidays at the Egg home. Seven-year-old Jerry Haggin, who has been living with Mr. and Mrs. Egg while attending St. Francis school, returned to Portland with his parents.

Mrs. Joseph F. Egg left for Portland today to visit her son, Ashley O. Coulter, seaman 1/c, who is spending leave with his wife in Portland after overseas duty.

Pvt. Walt Munkres, former manager of Scotty's Market here, is home on furlough from Camp Roberts, Cal., visiting his brother, City Commissioner Melvin Munkres, and other relatives. He is due to report back at his post Jan. 5.

The Modern Woodmen of America will not meet tomorrow night, as originally announced by officers, but will meet on Friday, Jan. 5. Officers say there was a mistake in the earlier announcement due to the fact that there are five Fridays in the present month.

Sue Frazier of Burns, last night was a guest at the Pilot Butte Inn. The Bend Rifle club will meet Friday at 8 p. m. at the club's indoor range, on West 14th street and Elgin, to elect officers and transact other business, it was announced today by T. W. Buxton, secretary.

Mr. and Mrs. H. E. Lawson and son, John, of Portland, and Mr. and Mrs. Frank J. Noakes and son, Norman, of Vancouver, Wash., today had returned to their homes after spending the Christmas holidays with Mr. and Mrs. J. J. Loehr, 821 Columbia street, and Mr. and Mrs. Frank Loehr, 824 Portland avenue.

Mr. and Mrs. R. E. Moe of the Terminal hotel, had as their guests over the Christmas holidays, Miss Selma Moe of Portland, and Mr. and Mrs. George Mick of Bremerton, Wash.

H. C. Kerron, manager of the Pacific Telephone & Telegraph company in Bend, today was in Prineville and Madras on business.

Mrs. Lester L. Barclay returned yesterday from Seattle where she visited relatives.

Mr. and Mrs. Wilbur Carlin, former Bend residents, now living in Richland, Wash., are visiting relatives here.

S/Sgt. Bob Clark, who spent the past month in Bend after 32 months Pacific duty with the 41st division, left today for Santa Barbara, Calif., where he will report for duty. He is a son of Mrs. John Taylor.

Mr. and Mrs. Charles W. Sullivan, small daughter, Sharron, and Mrs. Viola Wiles left yesterday for Portland after spending the holidays with Mrs. Edna Isham.

Mr. and Mrs. Harry Behn, former Bend residents now living in Portland, are visiting relatives here.

J. W. Koontz of Yakima, Wash., is in Bend on business.

Mr. and Mrs. Glen W. Thompson and son, Glen, Jr., returned yesterday from Seattle where they spent the holidays with relatives.

Marshall Hunt left for Burns today.

Mr. and Mrs. Ray Hamby, Vancouver, Wash., Mrs. Ed Watson and Mrs. Roger F. White, both of Portland, spent the holidays here with Mr. and Mrs. R. I. Hamby. Mrs. White's husband, a lieutenant in the navy, who spent leave here recently, is now on active duty aboard a destroyer in the Pacific.

Dance at Eastern Star Grange hall Saturday night. Marshall's orchestra. Modern and old time music. No minors allowed without chaperon.

Tumalo

Tumalo, Dec. 27 (Special) — Mr. and Mrs. Hubert Scoggin and son, Fayet, spent Christmas at Shevlin visiting at the home of their relatives, Mr. and Mrs. Sam Burgess.

Mr. and Mrs. Tom Fair had as their guests over the Christmas holidays, Mrs. Fair's mother, Mrs. Cone, of Eugene, and her brother-in-law and sister, Mr. and Mrs. Ted Tyler, of Portland.

Tumalo grange hall was filled to capacity Thursday evening when the grade school presented its Christmas program. The four primary grades gave "Hazel and Gretel" and the upper rooms each gave a Christmas play. Irene Morris and Donald Hart gave readings. Fruit and nuts were passed out following the program.

Tumalo Community Sunday school presented a Christmas program Sunday afternoon, which was arranged by Mrs. Arnold Sandwick. Rev. Prentice gave out boxes of candy following the services.

Mr. and Mrs. C. J. Dunlap spent Christmas day at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Fred Shepard.

Mrs. Ben Gedney and daughter, Susan, left Friday by bus for Grants Pass where they were to spend Christmas with relatives.

Mr. and Mrs. Harry Windom entertained members of their family at dinner Christmas day.

Mr. and Mrs. George Franks are expecting their son, Lowell, who is with a paratroop division, home within a few days for a short leave. Lowell will be to graduate at Fort Benning, Ga., last week. Frank's older son, Don, is in Leyte.

Harvey Blackstone is employed at Erickson's grocery in Bend.

Tillicum Study club members are to entertain their husbands with a New Year eve's party Sunday at the T. W. Vandever ranch.

Neal Davis, Lloyd Thompson and Lee Putnam were among the draftees who went to Portland last Thursday to take their physical examinations.

Mr. and Mrs. Clarence Tackett spent Christmas day at the home of Mrs. Tackett's son-in-law and daughter, Mr. and Mrs. Dewey Crum.

Vivian Hanneman and Edna Marie Andrew are spending a couple of weeks home over the holidays from Portland where they are attending a business college.

Mr. and Mrs. Frank Jennings and children and Lee Lesman of Goldendale, Wash., were Christmas day guests at the E. T. Hanneman home.

Bill Jennings is confined to a navy hospital in New Orleans, La., suffering from jaundice.

Mrs. Ruth Cork of Redmond spent Christmas with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. J. A. Blackstone.

Mr. and Mrs. Harold Claus of Eagle Point spent Christmas with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Lloyd Lindsey.

NEWS OF SOCIETY

(All society items should be reported to The Bulletin not later than 10 a. m. on the days of publication, Tuesdays, Thursdays and Saturdays.)

Miss Kiernan Wed at Fort Lewis Chapel

Miss Marguerite A. Kiernan, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Patrick Kiernan, became the bride of Cpl. Denis A. Reilly, son of Mr. and Mrs. Patrick J. Reilly, Philadelphia Pa., at a double-ring ceremony in the post chapel, Fort Lewis, Wash., at 8:00 p. m. Friday, December 15. Father Camille J. Chasse, O. F. M. performed the ceremony. Miss Lollita F. Freeman, Culver, was bridesmaid, while Sgt. Carl J. Micucci was best man.

The bride was attired in a powder-blue, dressmaker suit with brown accessories. Her corsage was of gardenias.

Miss Freeman wore a navy-blue frock with white accessories and a corsage of pink carnations. The bride's mother wore a navy-blue tailored suit with a corsage of violets.

The couple will reside in Olympia, Wash. Cpl. Reilly is stationed with the engineers at north Fort Lewis. The bride is secretary to the director of personnel for that section.

DINNER PARTY HELD — A dinner party was given by Mrs. Ann Hachtel, 6 Lava road, last Wednesday in honor of her son, Rudolph, who left on Thursday to enter the armed forces.

Those present were Mrs. M. M. Kutz, Rudolph's grandmother; his sister, Bonnie; Mr. and Mrs. F. M. Kutz and Cpl. James Sullivan, home on furlough from the south Pacific.

Evergreen Circle Has Party — A turkey dinner for 21 members was given by the Evergreen Circle at 1 p. m. on Dec. 21 in Norway hall. A program and gift exchange followed and secret friends were made known.

Pinochle Club Postpones Dinner — The Christmas dinner planned by the Social Pinochle club has been postponed indefinitely, it was announced today. A potluck dinner will be held at the home of Mrs. Charles E. Soderstrom, 826 Ogden, on Sunday evening.

Card Party Slated — The Town and Country club will hold a card party at 8 p. m. Saturday at the home of Mr. and Mrs. H. B. Dyer on Butler road.

Schueler said, "No citizen of this county will like to see it listed among those that fell down on the job. Let's buy 'E' bonds—all of us—and make up that $43,000 that stands between failure and success."

Bonds may be purchased at post-offices, banks and at the Deschutes Federal Savings and Loan association.

Several Central Oregon members of the Veterans of Foreign Wars participated in the institution of a new post on Dec. 21, at Springfield, Ore. It was reported today, Francis G. Gates, Bend, junior vice department commander of Oregon, instituted the new post.

Mrs. Gates accompanied Gates to Springfield for the ceremony, as did Mr. and Mrs. Vern Eldridge, commander and president of the Prineville post and auxiliary.

Harry Allen was installed as commander of the new Springfield post, and George A. Sargent, who recently lost an arm in a hunting accident near Bend and who recently was discharged from the navy, was selected as senior vice commander.

Besides Springfield, three new posts have been recently established at Molalla, Tigard and Vanport City.

Bruce A. Pummill, 19, Prineville youth and ex-convict from the Oregon state penitentiary, today was held in the Deschutes county jail in default of $2,000 bond on a charge of stealing an automobile. Pummill, who was released from prison Dec. 11, where he was serving five years for forgery committed in Bend, was arrested Tuesday morning by city and state police.

Raymond Orville Petrie, 18, of Shevlin, who was taken into custody with Pummill, was arraigned before Justice of the Peace Wilson George and pleaded guilty to a charge of stealing gasoline from cars. He was released with the understanding that he join the armed forces at once.

SHERIFF ALSO SKIDS — Portland, Ore., Dec. 28 (AP)—Four bus passengers were injured and 19 escaped injury today when a shipyard bus skidded on icy pavement and crashed into a power pole. Deputy Sheriff R. G. Davis, answering the accident call, also skidded into a pole and lurch hiked to the first accident.

SOCIAL CALENDAR

6:30 p.m.—Westway club dinner party with Mrs. Ray Allen, 955 Ogden.

8 p.m.—Moira Andros sorority with Barbara Devereaux.

8 p.m.—Eagles auxiliary, Moose hall.

8 p.m.—USO junior hostesses meeting in Trinity parish hall.

1:30 p.m.—Emera club at Masonic temple.

8 p.m.—Town & Country club card party. H. B. Dyer home.

7:30 p.m.—Trinity Episcopal choir practice.

USO Jr. Hostesses Will Meet Tonight

All junior hostesses of the USO have been asked to meet at 8 p.m. tonight in the club rooms at Trinity parish hall to plan activities for service men over the New Year's holiday, it was announced today.

Co-chairmen of tonight's meeting will be the Misses Barbara Fossen and Elizabeth Boeckl.

Wetles Entertain At Dinner Party

A Santa Claus, Christmas tree, gift exchange and community singing were highlights of the annual dinner party given by the Wetles store for its staff last night at the Pine Tavern.

Twenty-seven persons attended the party, which is usually held before Christmas but was postponed this year earlier as reservations were not available. John L. Wetle acted as master of ceremonies.

Evergreen Circle Has Party

A turkey dinner for 21 members was given by the Evergreen Circle at 1 p. m. on Dec. 21 in Norway hall. A program and gift exchange followed and secret friends were made known.

Pinochle Club Postpones Dinner

The Christmas dinner planned by the Social Pinochle club has been postponed indefinitely, it was announced today. A potluck dinner will be held at the home of Mrs. Charles E. Soderstrom, 826 Ogden, on Sunday evening.

Card Party Slated

The Town and Country club will hold a card party at 8 p. m. Saturday at the home of Mr. and Mrs. H. B. Dyer on Butler road.

Advertisement for BRANDIS Thirt-Wise Drug featuring 'A New Year filled with Good Health' and 'Good Health is too priceless a thing to be taken for granted.'

Advertisement for BRANDIS Thirt-Wise Drug listing various products like ANACIN, IODENT, GLOVES AND MITTS, VICKS VAPORUB, and WHEATAMIN TABLETS.

BRANDIS THIRT-WISE DRUG

Advertisement for CAPITOL featuring 'NOW COME DOWN AND LAUGH!' and 'IT'S THE HILARIOUS "MORGAN'S CREEK" TEAM AGAIN!' with a photo of Eddie Bracken and Ella Raines.

Advertisement for TOWER featuring '3 BIG DAYS, STARTING TONIGHT' and 'EVERYBODY'S FAVORITES!' with photos of Gene Autry and Mexicanali Rose.

Only 2 Days Left To Buy 'E' Bonds

With only two days left to buy "E" bonds that will count in the sixth war loan drive, A. L. O. Schueler, chairman of the Deschutes county war finance committee, issued a plea today that everyone who can buy an E bond do so—and put Deschutes county over the top. "E" sales for the county now stand at 90 per cent of the $43,000 quota.

Deschutes Men, With 91st, Take Part in Bologna Fight

During the night of July 17 the 363rd, as the infantry element of a task force attached to the 34th division, moved into position southeast of Leghorn. The next morning the 363rd shifted its strength to the northeast corner of the seaport, maneuvering with support of tanks and tank destroyers. That night one of the infantry regiment's battalions fought its way through the northern districts of the city itself to be the first American troops to enter the city.

Springfield Gets New V.F.W. Post

Several Central Oregon members of the Veterans of Foreign Wars participated in the institution of a new post on Dec. 21, at Springfield, Ore. It was reported today, Francis G. Gates, Bend, junior vice department commander of Oregon, instituted the new post.

Prineville Youth Held Under Bond

Bruce A. Pummill, 19, Prineville youth and ex-convict from the Oregon state penitentiary, today was held in the Deschutes county jail in default of $2,000 bond on a charge of stealing an automobile.

Ration Calendar

Processed Foods—Book 4—Blue stamps X5 through Z5, and A2, B2, valid indefinitely. Blue stamps C2 through G2 valid Monday, January 1.

Dresses for Party Fun for the First of the Year

Charming little two-piece dresses, sizes 10 to 16, with gay embroidery trim—just the thing for informal parties. Choice of red, green, blue or brown.

Advertisement for RATH'S dresses featuring 'First of the Year' and 'Bright Prints' with a photo of a woman in a dress.