

Only 22 Records Tied or Broken in League Play

By Glen Perkins
(United Press Staff Correspondent)

New York, Dec. 30 (UP)—The American league, while supplying its most thrilling pennant race in history, was a trifle lax in the record breaking department this season, official figures released today revealed.

Only 22 records were tied or broken and none were significant. The circuit broke or tied 30 standards during the 1943 season.

Lou Boudreau, manager of the Cleveland Indians, was the leader among the individual record assaulters, cracking one major and one American league mark.

The circuit broke eight major league records and tied six while cracking six and tying three of its own marks.

Boudreau Stars

Boudreau, the American league batting champion, proved himself something of a fancy Dan afield too, participating in 134 double plays to break a major league mark for shortstops. He recorded a fielding average of .978 in 149 games to ring up the highest percentage ever made by an American league shortstop.

The New York Yankees, who have established squatter's rights on home run leadership, cracked a major league standard which they set a year ago when they led that department for the 25th consecutive year.

Rudy York established another new major mark. The Detroit first baseman participated in 163 double plays, the most ever recorded for his position.

The league, for the fifth time in history, had no unplayed games—that is, every club in the circuit played its complete schedule—another big league mark.

Hayes Hard Worker

Frankie Hayes, Philadelphia catcher, played in the most consecutive games by a catcher in a season and also caught the most consecutive games, 155 in each instance, each a new record and one also established this season by Ray Mueller of the National league's Cincinnati club.

Three successive errors by a third baseman in one inning, Oscar Grimes of New York, set another new major league mark.

Major league records tied included the batting of George Myatt and Stan Spence, both of the Washington Senators, each of whom got six hits in six times at bat; Johnny Lindell of New York, who got four doubles in one game; the St. Louis Browns' get-away record of winning nine consecutive games at the start of the season; hitting for the cycle in one game, Bobby Doerr and Bob Johnson, both of Boston, and most double plays for shortstop in one game, John Sullivan of Washington.

Records Reviewed

American league records broken included most games appeared in by a pitcher without completing a single game, 63, by Joe Heving of Cleveland; most double plays by a first baseman in a single game, 5, George McQuinn of St. Louis; most double plays at second base in one game, 5, Don Guttridge of St. Louis; fewest times grounding into double plays for a team, St. Louis, 93, and Boudreau's fielding mark.

American league records tied were the five runs in one game by George Metkovich of Boston; most players used in one game by two teams, 35, (Cleveland 16, Detroit 19), and most errors by a shortstop in one inning, 3, by Edgar Busch, Philadelphia.

A team major league record was broken by St. Louis when they won the league title with the lowest percentage of games won, .578.

John Lane Wins Wings of Gunner

John E. Lane son of Mr. and Mrs. Timothy Lane, Route 1, Box 392, Bend, Oregon, was given his silver runner's wings and promoted to the grade of corporal when he completed the flexible gunnery course for radio men at the Yuma army air field this week. Prior to his training in flexible gunnery, Corporal Lane graduated from the radio operators and mechanics school, Sioux Falls, South Dakota. He is a graduate of Bend high school.

Joseph H. Morris Now in Marines

A recent entrant into the marine corps from Bend is Joseph Herman Morris. Prior to his enlistment in the marines, the 17-year-old leatherneck was employed by the Ninth Service command of the U. S. army.

Private Morris will go to San Diego, California, for his recruit training.

HUSKIES GET REVENGE

Spokane, Wash., Dec. 30 (UP)—The University of Washington Huskies last night avenged last year's 76 to 39 defeat at the hands of tiny Gonzaga university of Spokane by defeating the Gonzaga Bulldogs 59 to 48.

East-West Teams Ready for Battle

Girl Wins Title As Biggest Liar Of Present Year

San Francisco, Dec. 30 (UP)—Heavy work for the East and West Shrine teams was completed today and the squads will concentrate during the next 48 hours on light drills and black-board instructions as they prepare for their New Year's day clash before 65,000 fans at Kezar stadium.

While the odds remained at 3-1 in favor of the East on the betting marts, newsmen covering the workouts of the two squads were inclined to rate the tussle as strictly a toss-up, with whatever edge there was going to the West.

Team Includes Stars

However, the big names on the Eastern squad, such as Les Horvath and Bill Hackett, the Ohio State all-Americans, and Frank Danczewicz and Bob Kelly of Notre Dame seemed to influence the betting gentry. The weather forecast was "cold" which raised hopes that the game would be played in dry weather.

Coaching headquarters on both sides refused to pick starting line-ups but the chances were they would come out something like this:

East— Ends, Jack Mead, Wisconsin, and Jim Harrison, North Carolina; tackles, Rudy Sikich, Minnesota, and George Savitsky, Pennsylvania; guards, Ralph Serpico, Illinois, and Bill Hackett, Ohio State; center, Frank Szymanski, Notre Dame; backs, Bob Kelly and Frank Danczewicz, Notre Dame; Les Horvath, Ohio State, and either Dick Flanagan, Ohio State, or Vic Kulbitski, Minnesota.

Players Listed

West— Ends, John Westrum, San Francisco Coast Guard, and Clarence Howell, Texas A. & M.; tackles, Monte Moncrief, Texas A. & M., and Bob McClure, Nevada; guards, Jim Kekeris, Missouri, and Al Ratto, Alameda Coast Guard; center, Roger Harding, California; backs, Bob Waterfield, UCLA, Forrest Hall, March Field, Bob Kennedy, Washington State, and either Harold Fischer, Texas, or Walter Heap, San Francisco Coast Guard.

The East named Szymanski as defensive captain and Horvath and Danczewicz as offensive co-captains.

Burlington, Wis., Dec. 30 (UP)—C. Hulet, president of the Burlington Liars' club, admitted today that judges of the club's annual New Year's contest to choose the world's champion liar had been hoodwinked by a girl, but said they would award her the title regardless.

The winner was Wac Capt. Hope Harrin who signed her name as "Capt. Hope Harrin" and convinced the judges she was a GI wolf who had a recipe for air mailing dehydrated blondes to the boys overseas.

The lie was chosen the biggest whopper of 1944 and marked the first time since 1936 a woman has won the championship.

"We've been hoodwinked," Hulet admitted, "but we'll stick by our decision and award the title to her anyway."

Capt. Harrin, a former Conway, Ark., school teacher now assigned to the quartermaster corps of the European theater of operations, won the judges nod on a recipe for producing a dehydrated blonde to add a feminine touch to GI iron rations, a project on which some of the most active GI minds have been concentrating hopelessly ever since the war began.

Air Base Officer Wins New Rank

Portland, Ore., Dec. 30 (UP)—Promotion of Harley C. Vaughn, of Sappa, Oklahoma, to the rank of Lt. Colonel in the army air corps was announced here today by headquarters Portland army air base.

Colonel Vaughn, who is now assigned to the Portland army air base in the capacity of director of operations, has been decorated 16 times in this war for his exploits and achievements in aerial combat over Africa, Sicily and Italy. He has been awarded the distinguished flying cross with one oak-leaf cluster and the air medal with 13 oak-leaf clusters. Col. Vaughn has flown in excess of 200 combat hours and has participated in 50 fighter missions which earned him credit for seven confirmed aerial victories and two probables.

Turner and Pease Card Completed

Portland, Ore., Dec. 30 (UP)—Chief interest in Portland's New Year's fight card is centered on Leo Turner and Mickey Pease who meet for the state middle-weight title in the main event brawl, but several other bouts bid fair to supply much action.

Semi-final opponents will be John L. Sullivan, youthful Portland war plant fighter, and Jerry Brown, an experienced campaigner from Denver. They fought recently to a nice six round draw and the two light heavyweights are out to win by a knockout.

Other bouts listed are: Dave Johnston and Steve Stralick, heavyweights in a six rounder; Lil' Abner and Joel Boone, welterweights, in a four-rounder; Johnny Pancho and Johnny Suarez, lightweights in a four-round opener.

Oregon Quintet Defeats Hanford

Hanford, Wash., Dec. 30 (UP)—University of Oregon, sparked by forward Wilkins, picked up speed in the final quarter of a basketball game against the Hanford all-stars here last night to grab an easy 52-33 victory.

The teams fought within four points of one another for three quarters, then Wilkins found the range to run up a total of nine baskets plus a free throw. Half-time score saw Oregon with a 23-19 lead.

Bob Hamilton, Oregon guard, scored 11 points, while forward Abrams led the All-stars with 11 points.

Resolution for 1945:

Let us resolve to make the year ahead "count" in every way; to live more efficiently and work more joyously; to spend more time doing the things that are important, and eliminate those that are worthless; and above all, to buckle down to produce for Victory and to buy Bonds for Victory.

Let's protect what we have, and work for what we want!

Today's Sport Parade

By Jack Cuddy
(United Press Staff Correspondent)

New York, Dec. 30 (UP)—Anyone down Miami beach who wishes promoter Mike Jacobs a Happy New Year today probably will get belted on the lug.

Jacobs, the Mahatma of maul, who sought the sanctuary of Florida's wave-dimpled strands to escape the bustle of his own "beach" in midtown New York, must be near the "berling pernt" today, after being awakened thrice by post-midnight long-distance calls from Manhattan characters who were distraught over the $100,000 fresh-air feud.

These characters were: (1) Nate Wolfson, manager of Joe Baki, the social-climbing heavyweight from the coal mines of Kulpmont, Pa.; (2) Tex Sullivan, manager of Lee Oma, the sleek, shik heavyweights from Detroit's hot spots; and (3) Nat Rogers, matchmaker for Jacobs' 20th century club.

Rogers is trying to sign Messrs. Baki and Oma for a 10-round bout at Madison Square Garden on Jan. 26—a bout that is virtually certain to attract a gate of more than $100,000. But Baki and Oma are in the midst of one of the balmiest, bitterest feuds to scorch Mayhem avenue in many a day. They are so mad at each other that they won't fight.

Generally speaking, when two guys get blind-mad at each other they seek satisfaction by making with the matules on the beezier; but not in the polite circles of punch plaza. No indeed! In the screeball world of wallop, the ultimate in vengeance is obtained by hauling off—and leaving the other guy to his self.

Beavers Wallop Portland Team

Portland, Ore., Dec. 30 (UP)—Oregon State's Beavers lashed out in revenge last night to score the first victory a collegiate team has won this year over Peo's Music Makers, powerful Portland independent basketball team, 40 to 25.

The Music Makers were definitely off form, while the Oregon Staters increasingly looked like the team to beat in the coming northern division race.

Taking a first quarter 17-7 lead, the Beavers expanded their advantage to 22-11 at the halftime. At the third quarter mark, the collegians were out in front, 31-20 and in the last quarter turned on the heat to win by 15 points.

High point honors for the game went to Dick Strait, Beaver forward, who made 10 points. He was followed by John Moore, guard, with nine points. Bus Rayley of Peo's was high pointer for his team with eight.

Oregon State plays again tonight in Portland against the Oregon Medical school five. This will be the team's last appearance in Portland this season.

Ban on All Races Still Unchanged

Washington, Dec. 30 (UP)—War Mobilization Director James F. Byrnes today rejected requests that he modify his call for the closing of all horse and dog tracks by Jan. 3.

Byrnes said it was unfortunate that more advance notice could not have been given to track operators. He added in a statement issued by the White House, however, that "the changing requirements of war, which are now most pressing do not always permit advance notice."

Yeager, Moran Battle to Draw

Hollywood, Dec. 30 (UP)—Bobby Yeager, 140, Los Angeles, today was even up with Nick Moran, 139, Mexico City, after a close split decision awarded to him last night at Legion stadium, scene of Moran's surprise one-round knock-out over Yeager last month.

The rugged "51,000 beauty," so-called because Gus Wilson, "international man" of the arena, picked him up for that sum a few months ago, did not have it last night as Yeager beat him to the punch in the fast and furious infighting.

Trojans to Lose Service of Star

By William C. Payette
(United Press Staff Correspondent)

Pasadena, Calif., Dec. 30 (UP)—The navy stepped in today to smash George Callanan's brief hope of being a two-twine Rose bowl hero.

Given his choice of sitting on the bench or playing at the risk of permanently injuring his bad knee, the tricky Southern California halfback had notified Coach Jeff Cravath he was taking the chance.

The navy heard of it and told Seaman 2/c Callanan that his commanding officers didn't think it was advisable. Callanan decided he didn't either, what with only two weeks to go before graduation.

Plans Not Upset

Cravath said that was the way he had felt about it all along and that since he hadn't figured Callanan as a starter, it wouldn't interfere with his plans to slaughter Tennessee on New Year's day.

"The Trojans go out to the Rose bowl today to test the turf in their final workout before the game. The Volunteers will follow the Trojans and then hole up in their hotel until game time. Cravath will let his boys sleep at home."

"The fellows sleep better in their own beds," he said. "When they go to a hotel all they do is sit up at night playing dominoes and stuff."
