

Bears Victors Over Pelicans In Close Game

Bend and Klamath Falls, meeting in an inter-district game, battled point for point for three full quarters on the Bear court last night, but in the final quarter Bend, paced by Harold Smith, smooth-shooting guard, pulled ahead to win by a comfortable margin, 31 to 23. The two teams, old-time rivals, will play their second game of the series tonight, with Emil Piluso, one of the best-known referees on the coast to be the 11th man on the court.

Piluso handled last night's game and he had the situation well in hand for the four quarters, allowing the youngsters just a bit more leeway than other officials allowed them in former games played here this year. Playing a fast, aggressive game, the Pelicans suffered the most personal fouls, with 18 called. Bend came through the torrid contest with only nine personals, its lowest penalty score of the season.

One, two or three points separated the battling teams for three quarters. At the end of the first quarter, the Pelicans held a one point lead, 5 to 4, but the Bears came back at half time to take a 12 to 11 lead. At the end of the third quarter, it was the Pelicans who were out ahead, 18 to 17.

Smith Leads Attack

In the fourth quarter, the Bears started moving as Smith, playing in tournament form, started sinking shot from points well out in the floor. This threat to the Klamath defense, only to permit Wirtz and his sharp-shooting comrades to slip in for shots and points.

The Pelicans' aggressive brand of ball and speed put the Bears in the hole many times, as the young Klamaths snaked the ball out of their opponents' hands, broke up passing attacks and frequently tipped the ball into waiting hands. Unlike towering Pelican quintets of former years, and the 1945 Pelican squad is small, and gave way height to every starting Lava Bear.

Bend's ball-toting and basket shooting was greatly improved over that of the Eugene series. Smith's shooting last night more than pleased Coach Claude of the Bears, but it wasn't pleasing to Coach Marble Cook of the Pelicans. Smith rolled up 13 points, to win high honors of the evening. Palmer was high man for the Pelicans, with a total of eight points.

Cubs Beat Gilchrist

Bend Junior high school Cubs and the Gilchrist high school appeared in the curtain raiser and turned in a thriller, won by the Cubs 23 to 32. A wild fish that brought a roar from the packed gymnasium. The Cubs' victory was largely due to the shooting of Sheffield, who scored 14 points. The Cubs started Miles and Maudlin in the forward berths, Gillis at center and Sheffield and Maudlin at guard. Johnson was the only substitute. Gilchrist used Jessup and Jacobs at guard, Brufale at center and Ferguson and Van Tassel at guard, with Hauptman as a substitute.

Lineups for last night's main game follow:

Bend (31) (23) Klamath Falls Murphy (3) F (8) Palmer James (1) F (4) Pope Higgins C (7) Thorn Smith (13) C (1) White Wirtz (8) G (1) Perkins

Substitutions, Bend — Hawes (2), Brogan (1), Rasmussen (1), Plath, Moore (2), Klamath Falls — Zarosinski (1), Blehn (1), Redkey, Bussman, Referee, Emil Piluso, Portland.

Portland Eagles Take First Spot

Portland, Ore., Jan. 6 (AP)—The Portland Eagles went into first place in the northern division of the Pacific coast hockey league by defeating the San Francisco Shamrocks here last night by a 7 to 4 score.

During the rough game, high scoring Jim Planchie of the Eagles was banished from the contest with only four minutes to go, but not before he scored three goals plus one assist.

Before the game, Portland was tied for the lead with the Seattle Ironmen and the Seattle Stars.

Out Our Way

Today's Sport Parade

By Jack Cuddy
(United Press Staff Correspondent)

New York, Jan. 6 (AP)—"Rapsodies" in blue:

Our conservative friend, Ed Barrow of the Yankees, scorns suggestions that a national sports coordinator be appointed for the duration. The Yankee prexy fears it might involve baseball in politics. W-h-a-t baseball?—if no coordinator is named, is cousin Ed referring to baseball played by bloomer girls, with Winnie-the-Welder holding the hot corner for the Yanquees?

Some of the "mayhemfair" set are criticizing caustically Billy Arnold, the Philadelphia high school boy who suffered his first defeat last night, at the fists of veteran Fritz Zivic. They say that he was vastly over-rated, that he has no class and that he has no future. We recall similar criticisms and predictions after young Joe Louis was belted out by veteran Max Schmeling; but the wisemen had to eat their words later.

Sports writers voted swimmer Ann Curtis of San Francisco the outstanding amateur athlete of 1944, an unprecedented recognition of distaff prowess. But the Window Cleaners union (AFL), local 2, is trying to bar Mrs. Matilda Pashko of Brooklyn, who this week became the first professional woman window cleaner in the world.

Cpl. Fritzie Zivic Defeats Arnold

New York, Jan. 6 (AP)—Cpl. Fritzie Zivic, pugilism's old professor, drew upon his ring lore last night at Madison square garden to stump schoolboy Arnold—a quiz kid of Queensberry who didn't have the answers.

Zivic, 31 and ready to retire, upset the highly-touted 18-year-old Philadelphia negro by winning the eight-round decision before 16,323 fans. Pittsburgh Fritzie, former welterweight champion, had gone into the ring a 4-1 underdog.

The experts figured that button-nosed Fritzie, because of his age, would have no chance against the hammering high school boy who had knocked out 29 of 32 previous opponents and never been beaten. But Fritzie coupled his waning physical prowess with masterly ringcraft to achieve the first major sports upset of 1945.

Joe Dolan Wins From Canadian

Spokane, Wash., Jan. 6 (AP)—Spokane's Joe Dolan, in his farewell ring appearance before entering the navy next week, fashioned a decisive 10-round victory at the Spokane armory last night over Canada's bantamweight champion, Ken Lindsay of the Royal Canadian air force.

Dolan's flickering left, combined with a right cross which usually found its mark, kept Lindsay at bay for most of the 10 rounds.

Dolan, who is claimant to the Pacific coast featherweight title, gave Lindsay only one of the 10 rounds. The United Press score card recorded three draws, and the remaining six went to Dolan.

Dolan weighed 124½ and Lindsay, 124.

McSpaden, Byrd Leading Tourney

Los Angeles, Jan. 6 (AP)—The pressure today was on defending champion Harold (Jug) McSpaden, Philadelphia, and Sammy Byrd, the reformed baseball player whose one-under-par 70's in the opening round set the pace in the Los Angeles open golf tournament at the Riviera country club.

Eight linksmen were snapping at the heels of the Philadelphia McSpaden and Detroit's Byrd, as the $13,333 war bond tourney moved into the second round.

Favorites All Knotted

Knotted at 71 were the pre-tourney favorites, Byron Nelson, Toledo, Ohio, Slammie Sammy Sneed, White Sulphur Springs, Va., swarthy Johnny Revolta, Evanston, Ill., Chick Rutan, Birmingham, Mich., Tony Penna, Dayton, Ohio, Claude Harmon, Grosse Point Woods, Mich., the leading amateur localite Bruce McCormick, and Ray Mangrum, Los Angeles.

A stroke farther back were Leonard Dodson, Kansas City; George Schelmer, Salt Lake City; Jimmy Hines, Amsterdam, N. Y.; E. J. (Dutch) Harrison, Wright Field, Ohio; Frank Strazza, Greenwich, Conn.; and George Fazio, Pine Valley, N. J.

LIKES THINGS CLEAN

Kemmerer, Wyo. (AP)—A traveler passing through Kemmerer says he will vouch for cleanliness among the marines. He was traveling in a day coach on a train and debris of several days had accumulated. A marine on the train said he had been in the service five years and detested dirt, and fought with gut a broom and swept out the coach.

Veteran of Co. I Visitor in Bend

Mr. and Mrs. Frank L. Perry, former Bend residents now living in Klamath Falls, accompanied by their son, Lt. Chester Perry and his wife, the former Miss Edith Bayer of Bend, arrived yesterday to spend a few days visiting friends and relatives here. They plan to return to Klamath Falls tomorrow.

Lt. Perry, who went overseas with company I of the 41st division, was commissioned on a Black Island battlefield in August, 1944. He is with an infantry unit. Following leave—his first since the division left the states—he will report to the Santa Barbara, Cal., re-assignment center.

Mr. and Mrs. Perry have two other sons in the service. Sgt. Grant Perry is now with an infantry outfit in Georgia. Frank L. Perry, Jr., carpenter's mate 3, is in the Solomon Islands with a detachment of Seabees. The senior Perry was a building contractor in Bend for many years.

Huskies Defeat Oregon Beavers

(By United Press)

The freshman-dominated basketball race in the northern division of the Pacific Coast conference was off to its fourth wartime season today with the familiar sight of Washington and Oregon at the top of the standings with opening victories.

But both outfits had narrow squeaks, Washington edging the Oregon State Beavers at Seattle last night 48-45, and the Oregon Webfoots rallying in the last minute of play to defeat Idaho at Moscow 42-40.

The teams complete their first two-game series tonight and then Oregon moves over to Pullman to engage Washington State college Monday and Tuesday.

5,000 See Game

More than 5,000 fans saw Washington rally twice in the second half to spurt away from the crowd. The Beavers after the Huskies had fashioned a narrow 28-27 halftime lead. The visitors went ahead 33-29 after the rest period, but Husky Coach Hec Edmundson sparked the lineup by injecting young Bob Jorgensen and Washington was ahead 39-33 three minutes later.

Oregon State tied the count at 39-34 with five minutes to play, but sharpshooter Norm Carnovale entered the game and sank three long field goals in rapid succession to put the game away for Washington. Hal Puddy, Oregon State center, was high scorer with 12 points, with Don McMillan and Jorgensen tying at 11 for the Huskies.

Ken Hays Starts

At Moscow, Ken Hays, gangling 6 foot 7 inch sophomore from Watsburg, Wash., battled in a short shot in the final minute to overcome a one-point Idaho lead and put Oregon in front 41-40 after the Vandals had led virtually the entire game.

Idaho was ahead 20-18 at halftime. John Taylor, Idaho center, topped the scorers with 13 points, while Bob Hamilton, last year's No. 1 conference scorer, led the Oregonians with 12.

Farmers' Union Meeting Set

The annual meeting of the Oregon Farmers union will be held on the Oregon State college campus February 20 to 23, inclusive, according to Ammon Grieb, Salem, state president, who has completed preliminary arrangements with administrative and agricultural officials at the college.

H. D. Ralph, national vice-president, who is assisting President Grieb in making arrangements, says that Secretary of Agriculture Claude Wickard has agreed to appear on the program unless prevented by unforeseen developments.

The sessions will be held in the museum building on the college campus, with the auditorium of the men's gymnasium to be used for Secretary Wickard's address.

Bend Man Given 10 Year Sentence

Harold Wilder Williams, veteran Bend railway clerk who yesterday pleaded guilty in circuit court to immoral acts involving youths, today was held in the county jail awaiting transportation to the state penitentiary in Salem to serve a 10-year sentence. The sentence was imposed by Judge R. S. Hamilton after Williams entered his plea. The accused man was not represented by counsel at his own request.
