

Market Renews Upward Trend

By Elmer C. Walzer
(United Press Financial Editor)

New York, Jan. 8 (AP)—Wall street interpreted President Roosevelt's message to congress as not unfavorable to the market and resumed buying on an increased scale with the result that prices rose 1 to 3 points and the general average made a new high since September 4, 1937.

Shorts received a drubbing, particularly in the railroad shares where the main list rose 1 to 2 points and ordinarily inactive issues were up as much as 6 points in Minneapolis & St. Louis. Big four (Cleveland, Cincinnati, Chicago & St. Louis) gained 5 points on a few transactions. New York Central, which led the whole list in turnover, gained a full point to a new high. Gains of 2 points and more were noted in Nickel Plate preferred and Norfolk & Western. Southern Railway issues were up 2 points and more. Rail equipments were strong with the rails.

Forest Officials Pouring Concrete

The manpower shortage is being keenly felt by officials of the Deschutes national forest, when six of them left today for Benham Falls to pour concrete in the abutments of the new forestry bridge at that point. Several times recently attaches of the Bend offices helped in the work, but today the "crew" was augmented by two outside rangers.

In the "pouring party" today were Owen Aydelott, Ranger Eugene Wilmoth, Glenn Rhoton, Fire dispatcher Vern Everett, Harold Nyberg, Sisters ranger, and Ranger Marshal Stenerson from Crescent.

Homeless Solons Now Plan For Own Apartment House

By Frederick C. Othman
(United Press Staff Correspondent)

Washington, Jan. 8 (AP)—You know what those homeless congressmen are up to now? They're talking about solving their housing shortage by building themselves an apartment house. Nothing elaborate. Just a little $3,000-000 palace.

That fixes congressmen, but what about the countless ordinary citizens, like Othman, who also have housing problems?

Othman, for example, lives in a one-roomer barely big enough to hold a nine by 12 rug. Other members of the "WVWVPL"—Washingtonians who need places to live—are in the same fix, if not worse. We claim a congressman can pull his bed down out of the wall, too.

You listening, fellows? If you adopt the resolution of Rep. Adolph Sabath of Illinois to build yourselves an apartment house and another for your clerks, then you'd better reserve some space for the WVWVPL. Or we'll hex you. Personally, I'll get my uncles to vote against you. I've got a lot of uncles.

What I mean is we're irked. We can't rent houses. We can't buy 'em. We can't get the material to build 'em. And we can't even pass a bill to do something about it.

Rep. Sabath points out that you lads in congress are so worried about your housing problems you don't get your work done. What about, say, Othman's work?

Catch on, congressmen? If we're going to suffer and bump our heads every time we go to the kitchenette in the basement, wonder if maybe you congressmen couldn't get along for a while without a new $3,000,000 apartment.

In the last session of congress, Rep. Sabath (who lives in a suite at the Mayflower hotel) thought $2,000,000 would be about right for a congressional apartment house. The committee on public buildings and grounds never got around to it.

Now comes Rep. Sabath again, reintroducing his bill, saying that he's doing so on request of many members, and employees, and adding $1,000,000 more to the cost. Something plain and simple, congressman Sabath says he wants: something close to the capitol, something at a reasonable rent.

Understand, now, I'm not saying this in a spirit of carping criticism, but I've got some ideas of my own on the housing of congressmen. The legislators have three magnificent, hand-tooled office buildings, equipped with two restaurants de luxe, two cafeterias, several lunch rooms, bar-window, and fresh towels every morning.

Whatcha say, boys? Let's move in some cots and save that $3,000,000. Later on, maybe, when the war's over, you can have your new apartment house.

THREE PASSES WON
Redmond Army Air Field, Jan. 8—While weather conditions do not permit the usual "crew of the week" tests, three men stationed here nevertheless won three passes for crewmen efficiency. They are Sgt. Ralph Stone, Capt. Domenic Capo and Pvt. E. J. Ferries.
