By J. R. Williams Five Man Board To Study Changes In Football Rules

Chicago, Jan. 9 (17)—The National Footbal league's annual winter meeting opens today as the rules meeting opens today as the rules committee, a leading force in the modernization of the game of football, convenes to consider some of the most revolutionary rule suggestions ever presented.

Twenty-one proposals, ranging from the realignment of officials' duties to abolition of the traditional try for extra point, will be sifted by the five-man board, which wil make its recommenda-tions to the league's full membership later in the week. Commit-tee members are owner Bert Bell of Pittsburgh, and coaches Earle "Greasy" Neale of Philadelphia, Steve Owen of New York, Gus Dorais of Detroit and Curly La-
