PORTLAND PRODUCE

Portland, Ore., Jan. 10 (AP)—The egg trade today awaited tomorrow's price reduction of three cents a dozen, while the shortage of quality stock continued. The price reduction is in line with the OPA long-range policy.

Butter prices were unchanged. Prices on dairy products: Butter—cube, 93 score, 42 1/2c; 92 score, 42 1/4c; 90 score, 42c; 89 score, 41 1/2c pound.

Eggs—price to retailers: AA large, 54c; A large, 52c; medium A, 47c; small, 42c doz.

More than half this year's pack of California sardines will be used for the armed forces and lend-lease requirements, because of the high food value of this fish, its low cost, and the transportability of the canned product.
