

'Bring 1 Sunday' To Be Observed

"Bring One" Sunday is to be observed in the Sunday schools of Bend this week-end, officers of the Bend Ministerial association, sponsoring organization, have announced, adding that boys and girls are being asked to bring friends who do not now attend any school.

A survey conducted this week by members of the ministerial association led to the discovery that there are over 400 students in the Bend grade and high schools who have entered in their records "No preference as to church affiliation." It was also found that there are scores of pupils who did indicate a church preference, but who are not now enrolled in any Sunday school.

A statement from the Bend ministers adds:

Leaders Of Tomorrow

"The youth of today are the leaders of tomorrow. What shall that leadership be? Whether or not the boys and girls of the country have Sunday school training in their early years will have much to do with the answer to that question. There is no more effective deterrent to crime among youth than good Sunday school training, according to statements of many juvenile court judges. A noted New York judge found that only three out of 5,000 boys he had sentenced were attending Sunday school. A nationwide survey revealed that less than one-half of one per cent of juvenile offenders were Sunday school members. 'Of course I believe in the Sunday school,' said J. Edgar Hoover, head of the FBI. 'Crime among youth could be young practically negligible if the young people of America attended Sunday school regularly during their formative years.'
