Man Accused of 1905 Murder

Fairmont, W. Va., Jan. 15 (IP) Judge Charles E. Miller today set Jan. 22 for the trial of 73-year-old Benjamin Franklin Male as Male was arraigned on a charge of murder in connection with the death of a crippled school teacher, Walter O. Smith, in 1905.

Judge Miller appointed L. E.
Johnson and Worley Powell as counsel for Male after he told the court he was financially unable to hire counsel. Male and his ottorneys will confer this afternoon to determine what plea will be made.

Male was placed behind bars officials that his "trouble with smith" was erased from his mind until his "estranged and crazed wife" hinted the story to authorites in the Oregon county where he had lived "an exemplary life" for 30 years.

Three sisters of the dead school teacher, Mrs. Earl V. Sergeant and Mrs. John Anderson of Morgantown, W. Va., and Mrs. Samuel Hayes of Wilmington, Del., were conferring with the prosecuting attorney after indicating a desire to bring Male to justice.

Moscow radio commentators freely forecast additional news of fresh attacks, in effect bearing out the Berlin accounts of new offensives blazing up everywhere.

One broadcast quoted the soviet writer Ilya Ehrenburg as saying in the communist party organ Pravda that "the red army is heading for Berlin . . . in Berlin we shall be" we shall be."

Under the sponsorship of the Bend Ministerial association and with the agreement of the particiry Shapiro, fresh from a trip to Lublin and Warsaw, reported from Moscow that a Polish army more than 300,000 strong was holding Konev's right flank. Its forward units, which he visited a pating churches, several local ministers exchanged pulpits yes-terday morning.
