Church Rally Here Is Well Attended

A crowd which filled the church to overflowing, last night attended a churchmen's rally sponsored by the Bend Ministerial association, at the First Christian church.

Proceeding the general meeting, more than 150 persons attended a dinner in the church.

The evening was featured by the appearance of Dr. N. A. Jepsen, a Seattle chiropractor and chairman of the Christian Business Men's committee of that city. Discussing "that ye may know the way by which ye must go for ye have not passed this way before," Dr. Jepsen said it was the duty of all men to support their church and pastor in the work they are doing. He also told of the nationwide success of the "Youth for Christ Movement."

Halvarson Present
Hiding Halvarson, a Seattle business man, sang "Jesus Gave Me a Song," "Consider the Lilies," "The Stranger of Gallilee" and "So May You." He was accompanied at the piano by Mrs. Craig Coynor.

W. J. Palmer, pastor of the First Christian church, acted as chairman of the rally, and Mrs. E. A. Miller of the same church, headed the dinner committee. Young women from the different churches acted as waitresses at the dinner.

Late Poll Closing Bill Not Favored
Salem, Ore., Jan. 24 (AP)—The first two "do not pass" recommendations made on bills by house committees were received by the lower assembly yesterday. Both reports were accepted, automatically postponing action on the bills indefinitely.

The two bills receiving an adverse report were both election bills. One would keep poles open until 10 p. m. on election day, the other would call for the mailing of sample ballots to electors before elections.

The report on the bill to keep the polls open caused considerable discussion in the house, with some members feeling that the bill would facilitate voting in highly populated districts of Portland.

Casualties Reach 100,000 Monthly
San Francisco, Jan. 24 (AP)—Indicating that the total number of men wounded in combat theaters has reached nearly 100,000 per month, Maj. Gen. Norman T. Kirk, surgeon general of the U. S. army, announced today that an earlier plan to place wounded evacuated to this country in hospitals near their homes has been abandoned.

Kirk said there was little chance that the casualty evacuation rate of 30,000 to 32,000 per month would decrease until fighting ceases.

Hayes to Salute KBND on Friday
A salute to radio station KBND for its aid in Deschutes county bond rallies will be voiced by Sam Hayes, nationally known news commentator, on Friday evening over the Mutual Don Lee broadcasting system, it was learned here today. The broadcast will be at 5 o'clock.

KBND will be mentioned for its part in two bond rallies, one in which it assisted in raising $25,000, and once, when, in cooperation with the Bend lodge of Elks, it aided in selling $75,000 in bonds.

FILM LIBRARY BUSY
Boston (AP)—Boston university's film library served approximately 1,500,000 children with visual education topics during the past year. Valued at $25,000, the unusual library consists of about 2,000 films and also includes radio program recordings for classroom use.

Kerosene or coaloil was produced from seepage oil by a method perfected by an American chemist in 1854; some 50 small refineries were in operation before the first production in 1859 from a drilled well.

Jack Chambers Now in Tokyo

Hope that T/Sgt. Robert Chambers would soon meet his brother, Pfc. Jack Chambers, in the Philippines disappeared today when their parents, Mr. and Mrs. Carey W. Chambers, learned that Jack, prisoner of the Japanese since the fall of Bataan, has been moved to the Tokyo camp, on the Japanese mainland.

Mr. and Mrs. Chambers today were notified, on orders of the provost marshal general, of Jack's new location. Only recently, Mr. and Mrs. Chambers heard from their son, then in the Philippines, stating he was in good health.

Bob is with the invasion forces now nearing the camp in Luzon where Jack was formerly held.

Junior Hostesses To Hold Meeting

USO junior hostesses of Bend have been asked to meet at the home of their chairman, Mrs. Walter E. Emard, 525 Delaware, tonight at 7:30 o'clock.

Primary purpose of the meeting will be to plan activities for the local club, now operating in the basement of Trinity Episcopal parish hall on a week-end basis.

Mrs. Emard stresses that all junior hostesses will be expected to attend the meeting.
