Bible Teaching Luncheon Topic Methods used in teaching the Bible in Eugene city schools were outlined this noon to Bend Kiwanis club members at the regular club meeting at the Pine Tavern by Mrs. C. M. Wood, for 18 years engaged in Bible teaching in the Lane county city. She stressed that the work is financed by churches and other donors.

One hour a week is used in instruction, which starts in the lower grades and goes into junior high school, Mrs. Wood said. Bible stories are used in covering the old testament, except for the psalms, which are used in the text with the new testament. Written request of a parent is required before a child is admitted to the course.

The speaker declared that an individual is not educated "until he has a knowledge of the Bible," stated also that "our jails and institutions of correction are not filled with Christian children."

The instruction given in Eugene is non-sectarian, she pointed out.

A. E. Hill was taken into Kiwanis membership, George W. Ager outlining to him the purposes of the organization.

The noon program was in charge of C. L. Allen.

Bend Polio Ball Yields Big Sum

The president's ball held Saturday night in the Elks hall for the benefit of the Foundation for infantile Paralysis, was one of the most successful events sponsored here in recent years, it was agreed today. The affair took on a semi-military cast as uniformed fliers from the Redmond army air field intermingled with the large crowd of celebrants.

Mrs. J. F. Arnold, chairman of the Deschutes county polio fund campaign, reported that the dance netted the fund $136, although $243.50 was collected during the ball.

Dancers were treated to pieces of a large cake donated by the Bend Baking company. The cake was cut by Mrs. J. L. Chute, assisted by Mrs. A. T. Niebergall, wife of Mayor Niebergall, and Mrs. Ruth Williams, regional head of the Foundation for Infantile Paralysis in Oregon and Washington.

B. A. Stover, acting as master of ceremonies, introduced a number of visitors, including Sgt. George Mirch, the "one man army of Attu," and Sgt. Dick Poole, who is on furlough from the south Pacific.

Chairman Arnold issued a statement today thanking the Elks lodge for the use of the hall, and listed receipts and expenses for the ball as follows: Door receipts, $217.50; Mrs. N. R. Gilbert, $4.50; Redmond army air field (presented by Maj. Vincent Luther, commanding officer) $11.50; Mrs. John Matson, $5, and Mrs. J. L. Chute, $5—a total of $243.50.

Expenses were orchestra, $107.50; advertising and tickets, $10.10 and miscellaneous, $1.

Sales of pieces of the cake brought $16.20, and what was left of the cake was donated to the St. Charles hospital today.

PHYSICIANS' REPORT A record was established in Deschutes county last week when, with all physicians reporting, only one communicable disease occurred. This, according to officials of the Deschutes department of public health, is the lowest weekly record since the department was established here in June, 1943. The case reported was from the Redmond area where an adult was treated for mumps.

DOGS KILL CHICKENS Mrs. Nels O. Skjersaa, 1106 Columbia avenue, today had sought the assistance of Bend police in preventing dogs from raiding her chicken pens. The raids have become a common occurrence, according to Mrs. Skjersaa, who reported that one of her hens was killed yesterday.

Hopkins Confers With Churchill

London, Jan. 29 (AP)—Harry Hopkins, President Roosevelt's special adviser, visited London last week and conferred with Prime Minister Churchill, Foreign Secretary Anthony Eden and King George, it can be revealed today.

Paris broadcasts said Hopkins brought with him to Europe for submission to British President Roosevelt's views on the agenda for the forthcoming Roosevelt-Churchill-Stalin conference.

Hopkins also has visited Paris and conferred with Gen. Charles De Gaulle and French foreign Minister Georges Bidault, Radio Paris said. Hopkins left Washington for Europe last Tuesday.

Hopkins was said to have informed De Gaulle and Bidault of the major subjects to be discussed at the "Big Three" conference.

One unconfirmed report said Hopkins had invited De Gaulle to participate in at least some phases of the "Big Three" meeting. However, should such an invitation not be forthcoming, he at least will be kept informed of the progress of the conference.

Note Reviewed The diplomatic correspondent of the London Daily Telegraph said the note in which President Roosevelt set forth his views for Britain was understood to urge:

1. Immediate agreement on total post-war demilitarization of enemy countries.

2. Creation of an Interim United Nations executive council to deal with European theater and Far Eastern problems.

3. Establishment of allied co-operative machinery to deal with liberated Europe as a matter of joint responsibility.

Motorist Given 5 Day Sentence

R. E. Smillie, who said that his home is in Los Angeles, and who on Saturday reported to state police that he had been assaulted by two sailors and robbed of $255, today reported in a county jail cell for his trouble. He was sentenced to five days in jail for being drunk on the highway.

Sgt. L. L. Hirtzel of the state police said that he was satisfied there had been no robbery after Smillie, sobering up in jail, changed his story, reducing the locale for the "robbery" from 40 miles north of Bend to the Santiam junction. Smillie's arrest followed his appearance at the war police and rationing offices where he sought gasoline coupons, claiming he had been robbed of his, as well as the money. Officers said that he was under the influence of wine and took him before Justice of the Peace Wilson George, who imposed the five-day sentence.

Civil Air Patrol Field Day Held

The Civil air patrol cadet field day held at the Bend municipal airport proved to be very successful, patrol members reported today. Approximately 20 flights were made with cadets as observers. Pilots were Lieutenants Lermo, Fredrickson and Bowman of the Headquarters flight.

Several townspeople attended throughout the day to watch the cadets drill and student pilots learning to fly. The day officially ended with inspection and dismissal at 4:45 p. m.

Gleemen Concert To Be at Tower

A highly trained men's chorus—the Bend Gleemen—will present a two-hour program of songs tonight in the Tower theater, under the direction of C. Dale Robbins, conductor. The event, which promises to be a musical highlight of the winter season, has aroused considerable interest, according to a report this morning. Ticket sales have been brisk and a large audience is assured.

The Gleemen provoked great enthusiasm before a Redmond audience last week and, Robbins said today, produced a surprising result at the high school. That there is a sudden interest among students in choral singing became manifest after listening to the superb singing of the Gleemen.

Tonight's program ranges from negro spirituals to compositions by Jerome Kern and Stephen Foster and includes numbers that will please everyone, Al Eriksen, secretary, has announced.

Tonight's performance starts at
