Polio Aid Dance Set for Tonight

More than one-third of the Deschutes county quota of $4,000 for the National Foundation for Infantile Paralysis has been raised, it was announced today by Mrs. J. F. Arnold, county chairman of the fund raising drive. To date, according to Mrs. Arnold, $1,629.76 has been collected to wage war on the malady.

A highlight of the campaign will be the "march of dimes" dance tonight at the Pine Forest grange hall in Carroll Acres, which is expected to attract a large crowd. The dance is being sponsored jointly by the Bend Eagles lodge and the Pine Forest grange.

According to Fred Holleback and Miss Mazie Smead, co-chairmen of the event, more than 250 tickets have already been sold. Ticket sellers were urged to turn their stubs in not later than 9 o'clock tonight, in order that a complete tally might be made tonight, it was said.

Auction Planned A feature of the dance will be an auction, at which time a cake donated by the Gregg Banner bakery, numerous valuable articles (including a carton of cigarettes!) and even livestock will be sold to raise funds to fight polio. The Bond Street grocery donated two sacks of flour and two pounds of coffee for the auction.

Even the money taken in at the check room will be donated to the fund, according to Miss Smead. All fares collected by the Bend Bus company after the regular schedule hours also will be turned over to the foundation, it was reported.

Parking facilities at the grange hall will be in good condition, according to the dance chairman.

Donors Listed Mrs. Arnold today released a list of donors and the amounts of money received to date as follows: St. Francis school, $25.00; Mrs. John Currie, $5; Women's Civic League, $10; Boy Scouts, $31.65; Ross Farnham, $10; Mr. and Mrs. P. Eight More Sign For Navy Service

Central Oregon furnished eight more men for the navy over the past week-end according to word received by Chief Paul Connet, recruiter in charge of the Central Oregon navy recruiting station in Bend, today.

Six of the boys were 17-year-old volunteers and two were taken into the navy through induction.

Five of the new bluejackets were qualified for radio technician training having taken and passed the Eddy test at the Bend recruiting station. These men include the two who entered the navy through induction with letters of directed assignment to the navy.

Two of the enlistees volunteered for the navy hospital corps and were sworn in as hospital apprentice second class.

List Released The complete list of new sailors from this area and their rating is as follows: E. B. Hogan, radio technician, seaman first class; Ronald Edward Hall, radio technician, seaman first class; John Joseph Ellis, radio technician, seaman first class; Donald Otto Schuman, radio technician, seaman first class; Max Byron Kline, radio technician, seaman first class; Merle Rodney Wescoatt, Jr., hospital apprentice second class; Phillip Thomas Quinn, hospital apprentice second class and Maitland Torve Waldon, apprentice seaman.

Hall, Hogan, Schuman and Kline are from Bend and Ellis, Quinn, Wescoatt and Waldon are from Prineville. Schuman and Kline are graduates of Bend high school and all of the other enlistees were attending either Bend or Prineville high school at the time of their enlistment.

37 Blood Donors Signed for Trip

Thirty-seven persons have signed up for the second Beta Sigma Phi sorority blood donor trip to Portland on Feb. 9, it was announced here today by Mrs. Wayne Faddis, president of the group. The donors are scheduled to appear the following Saturday at the blood center, 1634 S.W. Alder street, at 8:30 a. m.

The Beta Sigma Phi sorority is sponsoring the trips, and plans a third one, using funds raised last summer in a drive to furnish books for the USO servicemen's club.

The local chapter of the Red Cross today advised Evelyn Zumwalt, secretary of the sorority, of the requirements for blood donors. Persons wishing to donate blood for plasma to be used on the battlefields, should be between 18 and 60 years of age, in good health and weighing not less than 110 pounds. Any one under 21 years must have their parents' consent. It was also advised that prospective donors first submit to a blood test to determine whether their blood would be acceptable.

Reservations are being made in advance for those desiring rooms, according to Miss Zumwalt, who added that a permanent record of those donating blood at the center would be kept there.

Tickets Purchased Tickets have been purchased at the bus depot, and those desiring to go to Portland before the scheduled time may do so, it was said. Likewise they may return to Bend at their will.

The list of prospective donors scheduled for the Feb. 9 trip follows:

Mrs. Frank Britain, Miss Jess Smith, Mrs. Cecil Cox, Mrs. Kenneth Cox, Shirley Pratt, Mary Finley, Kay Dover, Mrs. Robert Hiewes, Mrs. Fred Shepherd, Mrs. Nina Willsey, Mrs. Frank Elliott, Mrs. R. N. Elliott, Leola Olson, Mrs. Lee Hollenbeck, Bonnie Allen, Jean Watson, Carola May, Fern Grindie, Grace C. Dick, Etta Glazier, Mrs. Frank Kelcher, Helen Peterson, Mrs. Orville Miller, Virginia Evans, Mrs. Alice Sage, Mrs. Stella Nelson, Mrs. C. W.
