65 Japanese Soldiers Traded For Santa Tomas Internees

General MacArthur's Advance Headquarters, Luzon, Feb. 5 (AP)—Drama ran high at dawn today when 65 Japanese soldiers were traded for 221 American internees held as hostages in the education building of the Santo Tomas com-

Armistice negotiations opened yesterday morning between Brig. Gen. William B. Chase and Japanese Lt. Col. Hayashi, resulting in suspension of firing. Hayashi insisted that his men be permitted to leave the building with packs and weapons and escorted to safety in return for leaving the Americans in the building unharmed. The exchanged Japanese, more neatly dressed than our soldiers because they had not been in the field, lined up in front of the education building with American soldiers on either side. Lt. Col. Charles E. Brady, West Orange, N. J., led the American unit. Before departing, this seasoned veteran who led the 5th regiment on Leyte, told his men: "The Japs have given us the alternative of freeing them or having all the American in there killed. We march down the road with them between us and at a given point we halt and they go on. I don't want any of you fellows to be trigger happy, but if they fire give the b—— hell." Several blocks from Santo Tomas, our forces halted and the Japanese, carrying two of the wounded on their backs and still well disciplined, marched off alone. They were nervous, however. They were nervous, however. They were nervous, however. Filipinos jeered and one Japanese yelled "Down with General MacArthur. Down with America."

EATS HIS SHIRT
Providence, R. I. (AP)—Vice President James P. Adams of Brown university literally ate his shirt recently as he had promised to do if the university topped its $65,000 sixth war loan goal. However, the shirt was made of pastry.
