

McSpaden Leads In Golf Tourney; Nelson in Race

New Orleans, La., Feb. 10 (UP)—Harold (Jug) McSpaden of Sanford Me., always a tough golfer to beat in a tournament, today led a field of nearly 100 into the second round of the $5,000 New Orleans open with a two stroke margin over his nearest competitor.

McSpaden, long off the tees and accurate with his short irons, putted exceptionally well, too, in today's opening round to card a four-under-par 68.

Byron Nelson of Toledo, O., pre-tourney favorite and now co-favored with McSpaden, completed the opening 18 holes in a three way tie for second place with Denny Shute of Akron, O., and Claude Harmon of Grosse Point, Mich. All had 75's.

Snead Drops Out
Sammy Snead, highly regarded as a possible winner before the first round, provided the biggest disappointment of the day when he soared to a 78 to drop out of contention. Snead was in trouble constantly and once shot his ball into the crook of a tree and had to take an extra shot to shake it down.

Craig Wood, duration national open champion from Mamaroneck, N. Y., and Johnny Bulla of Chicago were tied for fifth with 71's.

Sammy Byrd of Detroit, former big league baseball player and one of the leading money winning professionals, appeared to have recovered from a sore arm but still was off his game from lack of practice, carding a 75.

Face Amateurs
Fred Haas, Jr. of New Orleans, and Ed Furgol of Detroit, Mich., and Ulica, N. Y., paced the amateurs with a 74 and 75 respectively.

Other scores included:
Tony Penn, Dayton, O., 72; Chick Ratan, Birmingham, Mich., 72; Leonard Dodson, San Francisco, 72; Johnny Revolta, Evanston, Ill., 73; Jack Groat, Chicago, 73; Leslie Kennedy, Pawtucket, Conn., 74; Willie Goggin, New York, 74; Gene Kunes, Hollywood, Cal., 74; George Low, Clearwater, Fla., 75; Henry Picard, Harrisburg, Pa., 75; Bob Hamilton, Chicago, 75; Ed Dudley, Atlantic City, N. J., 76; Joe Turnesa, Rockville center, N. Y., 76; Ned White, Shreveport, La., 77; Bob Stuppel, Chicago, 78; Archie Gonzales, New Orleans, 78; Ray Garmon, Memphis, Tenn., 78; and Tod Menesef, San Antonio, 78.

Cougars Defeat Husky Quintet

Pullman, Wash., Feb. 10 (UP)—Center Vince Hansen led his Washington State college Cougars into a tie for second place in northern division basketball standings last night, contributing 23 points to his team's 48-34 victory over the invading Washington Huskies.

The defeat shoved the Huskies into fourth place and virtually eliminated their chance of successfully defending their championship. The teams meet again tonight.

Washington kept strongly in the game throughout the first half, during which the lead changed hands a dozen times and which ended with Washington State enjoying a narrow 20-19 advantage.

Washington State turned on the heat in the second half, and baskets by Mort Joslin, George Hamilton and Hanson soon put the Cougars so far out of reach of the Huskies that Coach Jack Friel was able to inject his second team into the contest.

Hanson sank seven field goals and made nine free throws without a miss to come within three points of Red Rocha, Oregon State center, for the individual scoring leadership of the conference. Rocha has 158 points to Hanson's 155.

Out Our Way

Today's Sport Parade

By Jack Cuddy
(United Press Staff Correspondent)
New York, Feb. 10 (UP)—Washington department heads, who singled out racing as an "ugly duckling" of sports seven weeks ago today, are beginning to regard the gallop-and-game divertimento as a sort of "white swan" because of the admirable manner in which the hogs industry has reacted to the ban.

According to well-informed sources at the capital, this new regard for racing may bring about a re-opening of the nation's tracks in April, if war reports continue favorable.

Washington officials were pleasantly surprised at racing's calm, intelligent acceptance of the shut-down which mobilization director James F. Byrnes "requested" on Dec. 23, we are informed. They expected intense lobbying to have the ban removed, accompanied by pressure from congressmen and governors befriending the golden enterprise.

But nothing like that happened. Instead, the racing industry—with its $200,000,000 investment and its 40,000 employees—quietly took stock of the situation and sent Harry A. Parr, 3rd, to Washington to inquire if there was any way in which racing could be additionally useful in helping to win the war. Young Parr, genial and genteel, is president of the Maryland jockey club and president of the thoroughbred racing association of the United States. He made a favorable impression with the "right people" in Washington, we learn, by offering all-out cooperation instead of asking favors.

Our capital sources emphasize that, despite many rumors of a battle to stay in the northern division pennant race as a loss would practically assure the Ducks the championship. Names of starters against the Webfoots coach Slats Gill are Bob Lambhart and Ted Henningsen, forwards; "Red" Rocha, center; and floor captain Bernie McGrath and Larry West guards. McGrath is the only letterman veteran on the first five.

The Orange are in top physical and mental condition for the crucial battle. Beaver chances of victory hinge to a large extent upon whether Rocha, league leading individual point maker, is "on" and also on how much scoring support he gets from his teammates. To have a chance of winning the Beavers must also stop or at least slow down the high scoring antics of the Ducks.

Stanford Gridiron To Remain Idle

Palo Alto, Calif., Feb. 10 (UP)—Stanford University is not planning to send a football team into intercollegiate competition this fall whether or not Germany collapses before then, it was learned today.

"Even if the European part of the war is at an end," graduate manager Al Masters told the United Press, "it is doubtful that we will resume our gridiron program before complete victory."

"We don't believe the manpower situation, especially regarding available college athletes, will be so much improved that we will be able to field a team before complete cessation of hostilities," Masters said. No attempt was being made to hire a successor to Marchmont Schwartz, former head football coach.

Cowboys, Bears To Play in Bend

Two old rivals of Central Oregon courts, Prineville and Bend, will play on the local floor tonight with the Cowboys favored to win from the lowly Bears as a result of their showing last night in their 32 to 18 victory over the Deschutes team on the Crook county court. Tonight's main game will start at the usual time, 8 o'clock.

By winning from the Bears last night, the Cowboys, coached by Jim Pariseau, definitely stepped into the picture as aspirants for the 1945 basketball championship of Central Oregon. The showing of the Cowboys last night was even more impressive than that of Redmond in the two games here in the past two weeks. Redmond was able to nose out the Bears by only three points.

Takes Early Lead
In last night's battle, the Cowboys took an early lead over the Bears and were never headed. At the end of the first quarter, Prineville was out ahead 12 to 4, and at halftime the Pariseau men were coasting with a lead of 18 to 8. In the third quarter, the Cowboys stepped out and stretched their lead to 28 to 13. Each team used a total of 11 players.

The Bears' weakness in Prineville last night was again largely their inability to make baskets. They made six out of 20 free tosses. Prineville made only two out of 14.

Staters Go South To Face Oregon

Corvallis, Ore., Feb. 10 (UP)—A determined Oregon State basketball club will travel to Eugene tonight for the second round of the "Civil War" series with the league leading Oregon Webfoots. The Beavers must win tonight's battle to stay in the northern division pennant race as a loss would practically assure the Ducks the championship.

Names of starters against the Webfoots coach Slats Gill are Bob Lambhart and Ted Henningsen, forwards; "Red" Rocha, center; and floor captain Bernie McGrath and Larry West guards. McGrath is the only letterman veteran on the first five.

The Orange are in top physical and mental condition for the crucial battle. Beaver chances of victory hinge to a large extent upon whether Rocha, league leading individual point maker, is "on" and also on how much scoring support he gets from his teammates. To have a chance of winning the Beavers must also stop or at least slow down the high scoring antics of the Ducks.

VFW Broadcasts Enter Fifth Year

Veterans of Foreign Wars residing in Bend believe that Ray Cooper holds a record unequalled in the entire United States—48 consecutive "Speak Up for Democracy" broadcasts. Cooper will start his fifth year of talks over station KBND Sunday at 6 p.m., with an address dealing with Abraham Lincoln.

Over stations in all parts of the United States, the Veterans of Foreign Wars have released a total of 51 broadcasts since the start of the program four years ago. The Bend VFW post missed the first two, but have handled all others, and Cooper has presented the entire group of talks, not missing a single broadcast.

Lloyd H. Larson Gets Radar Duty

Lloyd Henry Larson, son of Mr. and Mrs. Axel E. Larson, Route 1, Prineville, was enlisted in the United States naval reserve as seaman first class for radio technician training at the Portland navy recruiting station on Saturday, Feb. 3, according to word received today by Chief Specialist Paul Conner of the Bend sub-station, who processed Larson's application.

Lloyd has been transferred to the naval training center Great Lakes, Ill., for training. From there he will go to radio material school in Chicago.

Lloyd graduated from Prineville high school last May and has been working for the forest service since that time.

Police Officer Lists Lingo Of Gangsters

St. Paul, Minn. (UP)—Lt. John Tierney, St. Paul police department detective, from his long association with the underworld as one of its leading enemies, knows its language perhaps better than the average thug, and could author a glossary that would be a great help to pulp magazine and mystery scenario writers.

Tierney was on the job when St. Paul was a favored spot for public enemies with high priorities, and as a plain clothesman, he knows that he was regarded as a "fly mug," rather than a "flatie," or the more common term for uniformed officer, "harness bull."

He has brought "benny workers" (pickpockets) and "petermen" (safe blowers) and perpetrators of greater crimes as "fish" (new arrivals) to their "trums" (cells) in the "can" (jail), and seen more than a few of the off "to school" (prison). None was ever "topped" (executed—generally, hanged), however, because Minnesota does not practice capital punishment.

Some of the other words in this dictionary are:
Bonnet—detonator cap to explode nitroglycerine in safe blowing job.
Breadbox—easily cracked safe.
Door-shaker—night watchman.
Elevator—holdup man.

Gaycat—one who steals only when necessary.
Gun—another term for pick-pocket.
Hoist—perpetrator of highway robbery.
Hook—thief.
Hype—short changer.
Ice—diamonds.
McGimper—habitual drinker.
Mud—opium.
Paperhanger—one who counterfeits or forges.

Pigiron joint—hardware store burglarized to provide tools for possibly other burglaries.
Strides—trousers.
Twist—a girl.

Manila Battle

Northwest of Manila, vanguards of the 38th division pushed ten miles down the west coast of Bataan from the recaptured Olongapo naval base to reach Moron.

Crossings Secured
Seventy to 75 miles north of Manila, the hard-fought Pampanga river crossings at Rizal and Bonabon finally were secured by the U. S. sixth division. Another 35 miles to the northeast, the 32nd division continued its advance up the Villa Verde trail leading to Imugan and the Cagayan valley, after smashing Japanese defenses five miles north of San Nicolas.

American medium bombers and fighters worked over the enemy in close support of the advancing ground forces on all sectors, and joined in with light naval units in a coastal sweep that wrecked a great number of small Japanese craft.

Ashland Couple Purchase Villa

Purchase of the $200,000 Jansen Villa at the corner of Portland avenue and West Fifth street, by Mr. and Mrs. H. D. Badger of Ashland, Ore., was announced here today by Mrs. Badger. Consideration in the transaction was not given.

Mrs. Badger said that she obtained the property, built in 1943 by James Jansen of Ashland, from Elliott F. Check, of Sacramento, Calif. Check recently bought the property from Jansen. The new owner said that the Gilbert Real Estate company here would act as managers of the property.

Mrs. Badger was enthusiastic in her praise of Bend and the scenic surroundings, and commented on the "friendly attitude of the people."

"I was here recently and just fell in love with the place," she said.

Local Sportsmen To Meet Tuesday

Sportsmen of Deschutes county will meet Tuesday night, Feb. 13, in the IWA hall on Bond street to discuss ways and means of better regulating and improving hunting and fishing conditions in Central Oregon, it was announced today.

Several topics of interest to all sportsmen are to be discussed, it was said.

While the meeting is to be held under the auspices of the Deschutes County Sportsmen's association, non-members as well as members are welcome, according to M. L. Myrick, president of the organization.

Robbin In December

Gary, Ind. (UP)—Mrs. Stanley Cutler and her daughter, Jean, wonder if spring isn't closer to December—for that's when they saw their first robin. Jean called her mother's attention to the bird when he joined others several times on the table she has reserved for feeding the fowls.
