

Market Records New 7-Year High

By Elmer C. Walker (United Press Financial Editor) New York, Feb. 14 (UP)—Wall street turned bullish today and bid stocks up fractions to more than a point to a further new high for more than seven years.

Bullishness was prompted by the statement of undersecretary of war Patterson that competent military men can force no immediate end to the war in Europe and by the assertion of secretary of the treasury Morgenthau that he favors post-war tax cuts to aid expansion of business.

Morgenthau's statement was made in his report to congress on operations of the treasury and he warned that "little, if any" cut can be expected before the end of major hostilities.

All sections of the list joined the rise. Chrysler hit a high of 100 1/4, and the best level since 1937, reflecting Wall street rumors—wholly unconfirmed—on an impending stock splitup.

Body of Rancher Found Near Home

William Chester Evans, 60, was found dead of a gunshot wound, believed by officers to have been self-inflicted, on the lawn in front of his home about six miles east of Bend about 6:50 a. m. today.

Sweringen and Hand, still in the kitchen, presently heard a sound which they believed to be a stick breaking but paid no attention to it.

Sweringen and Hand telephoned Sheriff Claude L. McCauley immediately upon discovering the body and the sheriff, accompanied by coroner C. P. Niswonger and A. J. Moore, Deschutes county district attorney, went out to investigate, arriving about 7:30 a. m.

According to Sweringen and Hand, Evans, an employe of The Shevlin-Hixon Company for the past year, had been despondent for some time over domestic difficulties. He ate a hearty breakfast shortly after 6 this morning, went into his bedroom, apparently put a gun out through a window, and then left the house by the kitchen door, supposedly to do a few chores.

Sweringen and Hand, who had been living with Evans for the past two years and working on the ranch, stated that Evans had been despondent since his wife left him last summer and later filed a divorce action.

Evans, who came here from Prineville two or three years ago, was born in Prineville on May 7, 1886.

A formal inquiry into his death was held this afternoon in the office of Sheriff McCauley.
