

Stocks Irregular, Volume Is Lower

By Elmer C. Walzer
(United Press Financial Editor)

New York, Feb. 17 (UP)—Stocks moved irregularly on contracted volume in the short session today.

Major groups failed to develop a definite trend because of realizing selling in individual issues. Investment demand continued in a number of selected issues which showed gains up to a point.

Albany & Susquehanna, inactive railroad issue, soared 9 points to a new high at 210. Leading active rails were narrowly mixed. Santa Fe rose nearly a point and small gains were noted in Chesapeake & Ohio, Minor losses appeared in New York Central, Pennsylvania and Union Pacific.

Bethlehem Steel and Youngstown Sheet & Tube eased while U. S. Steel firmed and Republic held at the previous close. In the motors, Chrysler was up nearly a point while Packard was unchanged and Hudson lost a fraction. In the chemicals Dupont rose a point while Allied Chemical eased.
