Steele-Pauls Wed Saturday In Redmond

Powell Putte, Feb. 22 (Special)—With the house appropriately decorated with yellow daffodils and yellow acacia, Miss Joyce Steele, youngest daughter of Joseph E. Steele of Redmond, became the bride of Charles Arthur Pauls at 10:30 a. m. Saturday at the home of the groom.

The bride was given in marriage by her father and Rev. D. L. Penhollow of Redmond officiated. The bride wore a navy blue street-length frock, a veiled hat and blue and white accessories. Miss Jean Steele, maid of honor, wore a cerise colored wool dress with a white carnation corsage. Bill Pauls, brother of the groom, was best man.

Proceeding the ceremony, Donna Mae Pauls sang "I Love You Truly," accompanied by her mother, who also played the march. Following the ceremony, brunch was served by the groom's sisters. Mrs. Otto Pauls poured and Mrs. Will McFarland of Prineville served the wedding cake.

The newly-married couple left immediately amid a shower of rice and old shoes, for a brief honeymoon in Portland. The bride wore a going-away suit of tomato red with white accessories. They will live in a newly furnished home on the Pauls Brothers ranch.

The couple received many gifts, among them a 50-year-old heirloom coffee pot from Mr. and Mrs. C. L. Worrell. Guests present included Mrs. M. F. Jackson, Mrs. Quentin Owens and son, Jack; Joe E. Steele and daughter, Jean, all of Redmond; Mrs. Nellie Sears of Bend, Mr. and Mrs. Julian Steele and sons, Julius and Winfred; Mr. and Mrs. C. L. Worrell, Mr. and Mrs. Otto Pauls and Donna Mae; Grace, Gladys and Bill Pauls all of Powell Butte, and Mrs. Will McFarland of Prineville.
