CENTRAL OREGON LEAGUE

Redmond's power-packed Pan-thers won their fourth straight game from Bend's Lava Bears here Saturday night. Grabbing an early lead, the Peden men were never headed and stretched a 3point half time lead out to a 17point half time lead out to a 17point margin at the end of the game. Hofstetter led the Redmond attack with 13 points. Final score:
Redmond 43, Bend 26.

The lowly Bears ended their schedule with only 10 wins out of 24 starts and will hang up their suits following the Prineville tournament.

Redmond's easy conquest of Bend this last weekend established them as the chief threat to Prineville, the pre-tourney favorites. While the Panthers will enter the tournament in an underdog role in relation to the Cowboys as a result of their two lopsided losses to the champions last weekend, many Central Oregon fans think the return of Hagman and Harmon to the Panther lineup will do much to cut down
Prineville's margin of superiority.

Cowboys Get Break

Prineville gets the first break in the tourney when they draw a bye on the opening night. Redmond draws an easy opponent in their opener against Burns and may get more good out of their contest than Prineville will by sitting idle. The Panthers were 20 points better than the Buildogs in their regular season games and this tourney meeting should give them a good chance to smooth their attack for their meeting with the Cowboys Friday night.

Although the final game of the tournament will not be played untill Saturday night, the issue is expected to be settled in the Friday night game between the two teams. Prineville will definitely rule as favorites. The winner of this crucial game will meet either Lakeview or Bend who play the opening night. Neither of these teams has been able to muster much busket-getting ability this season.

Meetford Dangerous

Medford Dangerous
There is really little hope of the champion, whether it be Prineville or Redmond, getting past Medford, the district 4 champs. Already tabbed as potential state champs, the Tigers will probably have an easy time with either team. team. The team lineups: Redmond (43)

The northern division basketball conference entered its final week today with Oregon, Oregon State and Washington State virington 53-45 Saturday night to complete the two-game sweep, and the big WSC center Vince Hansen rang up 16 points to tie the all-time 16-game individual scoring record of 224 points set two years ago by Gall Bishop, also of Washington State. With two games against Idaho rémaining on the Cougar schédule, Hansen was certain to smash the mark.

Tie At Half Washington held the Cougars to a 22-22 tie at halftime Saturday, but was unable to match the visitors' scoring pace in the second period. The score, however, changed hands 11 times during Anderson — a small, middle agged man with faded, sandy hair — says these home-town committees should be organized on a five-year basis to help the boys adjust themselves during the trying years that follow their release from hospitals.

"No national organization is needed for this," he stressed to day at the hotel Belmont-Plaza, "It's strictly a job for home-town committees. But every community should hare such a committee.

"These committees—composed of newspaper men, sportsmen and fans—should contact every disabled veteran when he returns to his home, and find out what is his favorite sport.
