

Bend Sergeant In Cited Unit

15th AAF in Italy—Sgt. Rodney Hufstader, 21, son of Mr. and Mrs. H. A. Hufstader, 1130 Union street, Bend, Ore., is a member in Italy with a Fifteenth air force Liberator group which has been awarded the distinguished unit citation, a combat honor which permits Sgt. Hufstader to wear the distinctive blue and gold citation badge.

A graduate of Bend high school, Sgt. Hufstader entered the air force in September, 1942.

Gets Citation

The group received the citation for its successful attack on the Floridsdorf oil refinery and rail yards in Vienna, Austria, last June, when Col. Walter E. Arnold, Jr., El Paso, Tex., was commanding the group.

On the way to the target, the bombers were attacked by rocket-firing fighters, which continued their running battle even after heavy AA fire was bracketing the bombers. Despite flak and fighters, the group dropped its bombs in what has been called the best incendiary bomb pattern ever achieved in the Fifteenth air force.

Damage Inflicted

Severe damage was inflicted on the enemy installations and oil production was substantially reduced for months.

The fighters continued their attacks for more than an hour but were unable to down a single bomber. The Liberator gunners destroyed eight enemy aircraft, probably destroyed three more and severely damaged one.

Sisters

as he is well enough to have company.

Mrs. Dolly Gammon has returned to her home in Montana.

W. S. Whitley of Portland, is Sisters on business for a few days.

Homemaking

There are two new bulletins recently available from your home demonstration agent's office, room 306 in the courthouse, Bend. "Dresses and Aprons for Work in the Home", farm bulletin 1963, contains work dresses and aprons designed by the clothing specialists of the bureau of home economics. Each garment is not only attractive and durable, but also cool and comfortable, easy to wash and iron, and usually safe to wear while working in the home.

For most women who make dresses, the biggest problems arise in fitting so the second bulletin is one that has been wanted for a long while. It is "Fitting Dresses", farm bulletin 1964. Many different problems encountered in fitting dresses are explained by pictures and sketches. Typical alterations in ready made dresses are also shown.

Church Arranges Special Services

There will be special services at the Church of the Nazarene, 1745 East First street, beginning tomorrow and lasting through Sunday, March 11, with Mrs. D. C. Stout as the speaker, Rev. R. E. Kiel, pastor, has announced. Services will be held each evening at 7:30 o'clock. Eleven o'clock will be the morning worship hour. Mrs. Stout, at that time accompanied by her husband, Rev. Stout, was in Bend about three years ago. "Her friends will remember her as a dynamic speaker," Rev. Kiel said, adding that she is outstanding among women preachers.

Mrs. Stout and her husband have spent many years in evangelistic work. Rev. and Mrs. Stout at present have a pastorate in Portland. The special meetings here will be open to all interested.

James Selken, 17, Signs in Marines

A local boy, James G. Selken, 17, son of Mr. and Mrs. William H. Selken, Route two, enlisted in the marine corps February 26.

He left for the San Diego "boot" camp immediately following enlistment.

Selken is a former student of Bend high school. A brother, Marine Private First Class Bob Selken, was killed in the battle for Saipan.

America Has its Portrait Painted

Dan Mascon's cousin, an honest-to-goodness artist, came to our town. And when he heard we were having a weenie roast, he asked could he come and bring his paints.

After he got through working on his canvas... he had as nice a picture of us enjoying ourselves as you could ask for... complete to the last little detail... from Molly Burtie's dimples to the foam on Ed Carey's glass of beer.

"I'm calling it a portrait of America," Dan's cousin says.

And from where I sit, he couldn't have a better title. Whether it's a weenie roast in our town or a square dance on a Wisconsin farm, it's all a part of America—a part of our neighborliness, our love of fun and pleasant living.

Because our right to enjoy a temperate beverage like beer is a part of our American heritage of personal freedom.

How to add glamour to cabbage, onions, carrots and potatoes...

FRENCH STYLE CABBAGE

Combine cooked chopped cabbage, small amount of milk and a beaten egg. Brown in a solid cake in a little hot shortening or drippings in a frying pan.

COUNTRY STYLE SMOTHERED CABBAGE

Cook chopped cabbage in drippings with salt, pepper and small amount of milk until tender, stirring occasionally to prevent burning.

QUICK FRENCH ONION SOUP

Cook sliced onions in a small amount of shortening or drippings until limp but not brown. Add about 1 cup water and 1 or 2 chicken or beef bouillon cubes per serving; salt and pepper to taste. Serve with cheese toast or grated cheese sprinkled on top of each bowl of soup.

CARROTS LYONNAISE

Brown sliced cooked carrots, a little chopped onion, salt and pepper in hot butter or shortening. (Cooked the same as Lyonnaise Potatoes.)

TOASTED BAKED POTATOES

Pare potatoes, brush with melted drippings. Roll potatoes in mixture of crumbs, salt and pepper, then in beaten egg, then again in the crumb mixture. Bake in a covered casserole in a moderately hot oven (400° F.) for about 1 hour or until done.

BAKED MASHED SQUASH

Steam unpeeled pieces of winter squash until tender, scrape from shell, mash, season with salt, pepper and add enough milk to make the same consistency as mashed potatoes. Put into a baking dish, dot with butter or margarine, sprinkle with brown sugar and chopped nuts, if desired. Bake in a moderate oven (350° F.) until heated through and browned on top. This is a good way to use leftover squash or plan to cook enough at one time to serve the second time in this way.
