

Snead Gets Lead In New Tourney

Jacksonville, Fla., March 1 (UP)—Sammy Snead, the "muscle man" from the navy who "muscled in" on a fat share of the winter golf tournament money, goes after his third first prize in a row and his sixth major victory of the season today in the $5,000 Jacksonville open.

As usual, his top competition is expected to come from Byron Nelson, top money winner on the winter circuit, and Harold (Jug) McSpaden, who ranks third in prizes won.

Snead is one up on Nelson, who has won four tournaments, but the Toledo, O., veteran has won $14,486 prize money to date, while Snead has collected $12,516. Snead, 27, of Hot Springs, Va., long driving specialist, was at the peak of his game in winning the recent $6,500 Pensacola open with a 72-hole card of 267, 21 strokes under par.

Although many of the golfers have complained, officials of the meet decided against playing winter rules despite ragged fairways, a factor which was expected to increase scores.

Snead shot a six under par 66 yesterday to lead all golfers turning in cards. Tony Penna of Dayton, O., had a 67 and Bob Hamilton of Evansville, Ind., a 68. McSpaden, the Sanford, Me. specialist, kept no score for his round but came up with an eagle two on the 381-yard seventh hole. He dropped his approach shot in the cup from 30 yards out.

Other pros competing include Sammy Byrd of Detroit, Ed Dudley of Philadelphia, Willie Goggin of New York, Ky Laffoon of Chicago, Henry Picard of Harrisburg, Pa., Johnny Revolva of Evanston, Ill., Gene Sarazen of Ponte Verda, Fla., and Mike and Joe Turnesa of New York. Fred Haas, Jr., of New Orleans was considered the top amateur prospect.

Pine Forest
Pine Forest, March 1 (Special)—The Pine Forest grange met in regular session Tuesday. Favorable voting on the application of Betty, Edna and Kathleen Ives was made. Mr. and Mrs. Claude Wanichek, Mr. and Mrs. Burel Straughn, Jack and Gene Watson and Gernet Rae Barton were initiated into the first and second degrees of the grange. George Murphy, head of the agriculture committee, gave a talk on certified potato seed, fertilizer and flume needs by the farmer, and the lack of trucks due to the European needs.

Juvenile grange met Saturday afternoon. After the regular meeting a Valentine party was held. A contest was held for the prettiest, funniest, most original and best made Valentines. The high prizes were won by Buena Jean Barton, Johnny Woods, and Vincent Wanichek. All contestants were given heart shaped cookies. Mrs. W. M. Underwood and Mrs. Other Scott were the judges. Lunch consisted of whipped pink jello and Valentine cookies. It was furnished by Clinton and Myrlin Walker.

The Home Economics club met at the home of Mrs. Everett Lentz Wednesday, with Mrs. Evelyn Watson assistant hostess. Early consideration of the Pomona dinner was discussed and a committee appointed to get the menu ready. Mrs. Ron Van Fleet gave a talk on fat salvaged by Oregon women during 1944 for the program.

There was a special meeting of the home extension at the home of Mrs. Vic Iler Friday. The day was spent in covering chairs. The next regular meeting will be at the home of Mrs. Helen Houck.

Y. G. A. met Friday at the home of Bonita Brandon with the work for Pomona as the main discussion of the evening.

George Murphy attended the Oregon Seed Growers league at Eugene. Topics discussed were: certified potato seed whose standard was raised. Triple A meeting of which the date will be set later at the Eastern Star. All farmers interested in this watch for the date and attend.

The Carroll Acres Telephone company held its annual meeting at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Roy Van Fleet. All officers were re-elected.

Mrs. L. C. Kramer entertained for Mrs. Denton Scott and Mrs. William Underwood Tuesday.

The ladies of the Pine Forest grange have formed a degree drill team. They will put on their first drill March 6th for the third and fourth degrees. Those in the team are: Mrs. Dagna Dudley, Mrs. Mave Iler, Mrs. Alice Walker, Mrs. Ida Straughn, Mrs. Grace Kramer, Mrs. Betty Huettl, Mrs. Eveline Gleas, Mrs. Evelyn Watson, Mrs. Bonita Brandon, Alice Klassen, Mrs. F. Springstube and Mrs. Gladys Garvik.

Sulfanilamide fed to laying hens resulted in many eggs without shells; sulfapyridine had no similar effect.

AIDS WOUNDED 48 HOURS
Sweetwater, Tex. (UP)—In a letter to his grandparents, V. T. Smith, Jr., writes that he went without sleep for 84 hours while aiding the wounded. He said: "I didn't think it could be done, but I did it." Smith is serving in the medical corps in France, and went four nights and three days without sleep because they were short-handed during one of our full-scale offensive drives in that salient.

PRACTICALLY A HABIT
Brazil, Ind. (UP)—Records revealed that Clay circuit court Judge Robert B. Stewart was the fifth member of a law firm, established in 1891 by the late Judge John M. Rawley, to serve in succession at that particular post.

"Today's kids..." SAYS PEET

"Today's kids want life, liberty and a helicopter in which to pursue happiness."
PEET SAYS:
"Today's housekeepers want a granulated soap that makes washing easy... gives them sparkling, pure-white washes every wash-day. Peet's is the answer! Peet's quick, thick, wonder-working suds make short work of the biggest wash... get all the grime out of heavy work-clothes, yet are ever so gentle to dainty underthings."

PEET SAYS:
"Sometimes it's better to stay quiet and just seem foolish than to speak up and remove all the doubt."

PEET SAYS:
"A woman's not going to stay quiet about Peet's. Once she sees those magic suds making her dishes glisten and gleam, she's going to tell other housewives... that's why three times as many women are now using Peet's. Peet's makes washes and dishes extra-clean. Try it, now!"
