Red Cross Drive In Second Day

The American Red Cross fourth war fund drive swung into its second day in Deschutes county today, but returns from volunteer workers had not yet reached the point where it could be determined if the drive slogan, "Fill the quota by the 12th", will be realized. Only scattered contributions had been received at the Red Cross office in the chamber of commerce building, at the foot of Oregon avenue, and firms and mills had not yet started making their returns.
Bruce Gilbert, chairman of the county drive, said that owing to lack of reports from Bend as well as outside workers, he would be unable to estimate receipts thus far and give a true picture of the trend of the battle for "mercy dollars."
Cooperation Asked
Bend business firms were asked to make their reports not later than Wednesday evening. Gilbert felt that after these figures were in a better picture of conditions could be had.
Meantime active workers from the Junior chamber of commerce, which is sponsoring the drive locally, were listed by Chairman Harold Gentry. Virgil Lyons, Charles Morrison and Frank Prince, Jr., were chosen as "captains", and the following were assigned to work with them in local solicitation:
Jerry Chester, Don Connor, Virgil Moss, Fred Westlake, Mark Sanders, Norman Gilbert, Walt Howard, Len McDow, George Thompson and Mrs. Ralph Hensley.
Mrs. Don Higgins, chairman of the headquarters in the chamber offices, listed her aides as follows:
List Released
Mrs. William Barton, Mrs. George Thompson, Mrs. Charles Boardman, Mrs. W. R. Nance, Mrs. C. J. Rademacher, Mrs. H. K. Marriott, Mrs. J. A. Burgess, Mrs. A. L. O. Schueler, Mrs. Wallace Guthrie, Mrs. Bruce Gilbert, Mrs. C. G. Reiter, Mrs. Jerry Chester, Mrs. Harold Gentry, Mrs. Wilfred Jossy, Mrs. Lowell Apilin, Mrs. Bruno Rath, Mrs. Harvey Field, Mrs. Howard Givan, Mrs. Jane Miles, Mrs. Richard Brandis and Mrs. Ward H. Coble.
These women will alternate during the campaign, computing returns and accepting donations at Bend headquarters. Staffing the headquarters yesterday were Mrs. Reiter, Mrs. Chester, Mrs. Gilbert and Mrs. Brandis.
Chairman Gilbert stressed today that in order for business firms to get credit for themselves and employees, they must place the name of the firm on the top of the contribution list.
