Car Plunges Over Rocks Into Park

Two Bend youths narrowly escaped serious injury when an automobile in which they were riding shortly before midnight, left the highway and plunged into Pioneer park, overturning twice and coming to a rest among some large rocks. The accident was caused, according to their report to police, by a tire blowing out.

Mike Braun, 74, Dies in Portland

Madras, March 15 (Special)—
Michael Braun, pioneer resident of Jefferson county, died in a Portland hospital Saturday at the age of 74. Braun took up a homestead west of Madras on Agency Plains in 1905, and years later he owned a farm on the Deschutes river. "Mike" Braun, as he was much better known, was a familiar figure about town after his retirement, caused by ill health. Last fall he went to Portland to reside with a daughter.

Mrs. Doris Burrows, 24, wife of Lt. Emmet J. Burrows, who commanded first company of Yanks to cross the Rhine, happily holds his picture as she heard the news in her New York home. "I'm so thrilled," she said, sobbing. "But I'm even happier to know he's well."

March 17 Party Planned by Post

That's a situation Bend police found early today in a Bond street restaurant after they had been called there by startled attendants. Sitting quietly in a booth, clad only in scanty underwear, was a man apparently oblivious to his surroundings.

Topping the unusual guest on the shoulder, the officers found that he had apparently walked into the establishment sonambulist fashion. Waking him, the policemen discovered his identity and that he resided in a room upstairs. They escorted him back to bed.
