

Legion, Auxiliary Observe Birthday

Legionnaires and auxiliary members of Bend last night joined in a party celebrating the 26th anniversary of the American Legion, and following a dinner served by the auxiliary, were entertained by a mock wedding keyed to the 25th wedding anniversary of Mr. and Mrs. Craig Coyner. The dinner, attended by nearly 70 persons, was held in the USO quarters of the Episcopal parish hall, with B. A. Stover serving as song leader.

Joining the veterans of 1917-18 in the birthday celebration were a number of veterans of world war No. 1. D. Ray Miller, post commander, was in general charge of the program.

Taking part in the mock wedding were auxiliary members, in hill-billy regalia—even including a shotgun, carried by Mrs. Ann Forbes, in the role of "father," Mrs. Adam Repknoch was the "bride" and Mrs. Frank R. Prince was the "groom," with Mrs. Antonie Fossen serving as the "minister." Others taking part in the mock wedding, highlight of the entertainment, were Mrs. Ward H. Coble, Mrs. Joy Walker and Mrs. George R. Erick, with Mrs. B. A. Stover as organist.

Prior to the mock wedding, a Bend high school trio, Helen Bailey, Cynthia Shevlin and Beverly Wennerstrom, was presented in several numbers, accompanied by Helen Hudson.

The legionnaires also joined in dancing, and cards were played.

AMERICAN HEROES

POSTHUMOUSLY a Silver Star was awarded to Pvt. Willis V. McFarland, St. Louis, Mo. When attempting to establish a beachhead on the Rapido River, Italy, Pvt. McFarland's unit was halted by enemy artillery fire. Dropping to the ground, he crawled over the shell-blasted shore to cut barbed wire, discharging his automatic rifle as he went. Thus he advanced through barbed wire entanglements until severely wounded. He gave his life fighting to free Italy, and the purchase of War Bonds will help continue that fight until all of the world is liberated from the Axis yoke.

Honor for Medicos

Army Medical Corpsmen, whose heroism on the battlefield has won the admiration of even hard-boiled doughboys, will have their feats recognized by the award of the new badge pictured above. Of silver-colored metal, it shows the Medical Corps' caduceus insignia and the Geneva cross superimposed upon a litter surrounded by an oak leaf wreath. The badge will be awarded to Medical Department personnel attached to infantry.

Amazing! Super!

They're both right! It's Mother who can hardly believe that for only $26.50 she can buy young Johnny a 4-piece outfit that looks like 10 suits! There it is, in Wards big catalog. A two-piece all-wool tweed suit, a pair of gabardine slacks and a reversible front sweater vest make this miracle possible. Johnny will like its man-tailored lines and its rugged constitution. Come in now and investigate our "Ten-in-One" suit for boys 8 to 20... you're sure to find what you want in
