Favorable News Weakens Market

By Elmer C. Walzer

New York, March 24 (IP)-Trading in stocks shrunk to the small est total since last October in the short session today as traders withdrew to the sidelines of the highly favorable war news.

Prices sagged irregularly after a narrow opening in which small gains and losses balanced each other. Dealings came almost to a standstill on the announcement that the allied armies of the west had swept across the Rhine.

All sections were dull. Railroad shares, regarded as the No. 1 war stocks, eased fractionally in most instances. In Delaware & Hudson, Missouri Kansas Texas preferred, and Nickel Plate preferred, losses extended to a point or more. Steels, easier at the opening, re-mained stationary at their lows of the day on very small trading. Motors lost slightly. So did coprail equipments, oils, and
